Towards Employment Guarantee in India Indira Hirway, Piet Terhal, 1994 Studies and evaluates seven rural public works programmes four in India and three outside India which reflect different experiences and models and which provide some insight into the feasibility of introducing an employment guaranty programme in India The programmes were carried out between the 1930s and the 1990s Development, Devolution, and Democracy Georges Kristoffel Lieten, 1996

Economic and Political Weekly, 1994 Regions and Powers Barry Buzan, 2007 Renewed Great Power Competition Ronald O'Rourke, 2019-08-22 World events in recent years have led observers particularly since late 2013 to conclude that the international security environment in recent years has undergone a shift from the post Cold War era that began in the late 1980s and early 1990s also sometimes known as the unipolar moment with the United States as the unipolar power to a new and different situation that features among other things renewed great power competition with China and Russia and challenges by these two countries and others to elements of the U S led international order that has operated since World War II The shift to renewed great power competition has become a major factor in the debate over future U S defense spending levels and has led to new or renewed emphasis on the following in discussions of U S defense strategy plans and programs grand strategy and geopolitics as part of the context for discussing U S defense budgets plans and programs nuclear weapons and nuclear deterrence new U S military service operational concepts U S and NATO military capabilities in Europe capabilities for conducting so called high end conventional warfare i e largescale high intensity technologically sophisticated warfare against countries such as China and Russia maintaining U S technological superiority in conventional weapons speed of weapon system development and deployment as a measure of merit in defense acquisition policy mobilization capabilities for an extended length large scale conflict against an adversary such as China or Russia minimizing reliance in U S military systems on components and materials from Russia and China and capabilities for countering so called hybrid warfare and gray zone tactics employed by countries such as Russia and China The Eastern Dimension of America's New European Allies Janusz Bugajski, 2007 Without a realistic prospect for NATO and EU accession Ukraine Belarus Moldova and Georgia will become sources of domestic and regional instability and objects of Russia's neo imperialist ambitions that will undermine American and European strategic interests The new members of NATO and the EU have sought to develop credible policies for consolidating democratic reforms among their eastern neighbors enhancing their prospects for inclusion in NATO and the EU and containing a resurgent and assertive Russia The new European democracies have also endeavored to more closely involve Washington in the process of Euro Atlantic enlargement as a more effective Eastern Dimension jointly pursued by the U S NATO and the EU would significantly consolidate trans Atlantic security

Russia and Arms Control Stephen Blank, 2009 Russo American relations are generally acknowledged to be at an impasse Arms control issues feature prominently in that conflicted agenda Since the outbreak of the Russo Georgian war in August 2008 both Russia and the U S have further hardened positions and raised tensions apart from the war itself and Russia's quite evident refusal to abide by its own cease fire terms Nevertheless and for better or worse arms control and its agenda will remain at the heart of the bilateral Russo American relationship for a long time Arms control and disarmament issues are quintessentially political as well as military issues that are among the most critical components of the bilateral relationship and regional security in both Europe and Asia For these reasons neither the political nor the military aspect can be divorced from the other And for these same reasons we cannot refuse to participate in the bilateral effort to resolve those issues

International Relations Theory and Regional Transformation T. V. Paul, 2012-02-23 A comprehensive treatment of regional transformation offering insights from different theoretical perspectives and generating a range of policy relevant ideas Strategic Stability in the Post-Cold War World and the Future of Nuclear Disarmament Melvin L. Best, Jr., John Hughes-Wilson, Andrei A. Piontkowsky, 2013-04-17 This Report contains a Consensus Report and the papers submitted to the April 6 10 1995 NATO Advanced Research Workshop on Strategic Stability In The Post Cold War World And The Future Of Nuclear Disarmament held in Washington D C United States Of America of at The Airlie Conference Center The workshop was sponsored by the NATO Division Scientific and Environmental Affairs as part of its ongoing outreach programme to widen and deepen scientific contacts between NATO member countries and the Cooperation Partner countries of the former Warsaw Treaty Organization The participants recognize that the collapse of the former Soviet Union has left a conceptual vacuum in the definition of a new world order Never before have the components of world order all changed so rapidly so deeply or so globally As Henry Kissinger points out the emergence of the new world order will have answered three fundamental questions What are the basic units of the international order What are their means of interacting and

What are the goals on behalf of which they interact The main question is whether the establishment and maintenance of an international system will turn out to be a conscious design or the outgrowth of a test of strength The concept of a planning framework that could shape or govern these interactions is emerging and may now be at hand Capturing this emerging framework is the thrust of this NATO sponsored Advanced Research Workshop
