Wood, Andrew Hazucha, 2008-08-21 This collection of 19 essays examine the role of baseball's Cubs in the history and politics of Chicago They focus on topics such as the rise of a nationwide fan base through the long reach of superstition WGN the local uses and views of icons Ernie Banks Ron Santo and Ryne Sandberg historical divides along lines of race on the field and class in the stands Wrigley Field as a public space both sacred and cursed the importance of local and nationwide media coverage and the Cubs impact on Chicago music and literature Dedicated to the People of Darfur Luke Reynolds, Jennifer Reynolds, 2009 Life's changes They happen every day Some large some small A few are very personal Others impact the world Dedicated to the People of Darfur Writings on Fear Risk and Hope includes original and inspiring essays that celebrate the glories gained from taking risks breaking down barriers and overcoming any obstacles Nobel and Pulitzer Prize winners a gallery of O Henry award recipients and many best selling authors come together to share personal and compelling challenges and experiences From contemplations on past drug use to reflections on gun control social justice passion and its sacrifices and adventures such as skydiving mountain climbing and golfing the topics vary greatly This kaleidoscopic anthology is a commentary on the lives of prominent literary artists and ordinary citizens who have made simple yet powerful choices that provoked change in one's self and for humanity much the same way that Luke and Jennifer Reynolds do by building this invaluable collection for readers and the world of human rights Not too long ago as struggling graduate students Luke and Jennifer Reynolds conceived this uniquely themed volume as a way to raise funds to support

The Cambridge Companion to The Essay Kara Wittman, Evan Kindley, 2022-11-03 The Cambridge Companion to the Essay considers the history theory and aesthetics of the essay from the moment it's named in the late sixteenth century to the present What is an essay What can the essay do or think or reveal or know that other literary forms cannot What makes a piece of writing essayistic How can essays bring about change Over the course of seventeen chapters by a diverse group of scholars The Companion reads the essay in relation to poetry fiction natural science philosophy critical theory postcolonial and decolonial thinking studies in race and gender queer theory and the history of literary criticism This book studies the essay in its written photographic cinematic and digital forms with a special emphasis on how the essay is being reshaped and reimagined in the twenty first century making it a crucial resource for scholars students and essayists Dear Friend, from My Life I Write to You in Your Life Yiyun Li, 2017 Yiyun Li's searing personal story of hospitalizations for depression and thoughts of suicide is interlaced with reflections on the solace and affirmations of life and personhood that Li found in reading the journals diaries and fiction of other writers William Trevor Katherine Mansfield and more Constructs of "home" in Gloria Naylor's Quartet Claudia Drieling, 2011 A Study Guide for James Alan McPherson's "Elbow Room" Gale, Cengage Learning, Not Saved Peter Sloterdijk, 2017-05-23 One can rightly say of Peter Sloterdijk that each of his essays and lectures is also an unwritten book That is why the texts presented here which sketch a philosophical physiognomy of Martin Heidegger should also be characterized as a collected renunciation of exhaustiveness In order to situate Heidegger's thought in the history of ideas and problems Peter Sloterdijk approaches Heidegger's work with questions such as If Western philosophy emerged from the spirit of the polis what are we to make of the philosophical suitability of a man who never made a secret of his stubborn attachment to rural life Is there a provincial truth of which the cosmopolitan city knows nothing Is there a truth in country roads and cabins that would be able to undermine the universities with their standardized languages and globally influential discourses From where does this odd professor speak when from his professorial chair in Freiburg he claims to inquire into what lies beyond the history of Western metaphysics Sloterdijk also considers several other crucial twentieth century thinkers who provide some needed contrast for the philosophical physiognomy of Martin Heidegger A consideration of Niklas Luhmann as a kind of contemporary version of the Devil's Advocate a provocative critical interpretation of Theodor Adorno's philosophy that focuses on its theological underpinnings and which also includes reflections on the philosophical significance of hyperbole and a short sketch of the pessimistic thought of Emil Cioran all round out and deepen Sloterdijk's attempts to think with against and beyond Heidegger Finally in essays such as Domestication of Being and the Rules for the Human Park which incited an international controversy around the time of its publication and has been translated afresh for this volume Sloterdijk develops some of his most intriguing and important ideas on anthropogenesis humanism technology and genetic engineering After the Program Era Loren Glass, 2017-01-04 The publication in 2009 of Mark McGurl's The Program Era provoked a sea change in the study of postwar literature Even though almost every English department in the United States housed some version of a creative writing program by the time of its publication literary scholars had not previously considered that this institutional phenomenon was historically significant McGurl's groundbreaking book effectively established that the rise of the creative writing program stands as the most important event in postwar American literary history forcing us to revise our understanding not only of the relationship between higher education and literary production but also of the periodizing terminology we had previously used to structure our understanding of twentieth century literature After the Program Era explores the consequences and implications as well as the lacunae and liabilities of McGurl's foundational intervention Glass focuses only on American fiction and the traditional MFA program and this collection aims to expand and examine its insights in terms of other genres and sites Postwar poetry in particular has until now been neglected as a product of the Program Era even though it is arguably a purer example since poets now depend almost entirely on the patronage of the university Similarly this collection looks beyond the traditional MFA writing program to explore the pre history of writing programs in American universities as well as alternatives to the traditionally structured program that have emerged along the way Taken together the essays in After the Program Era seek to answer and explore many of these questions and continue the conversations McGurl only began CONTRIBUTORS Seth Abramson Greg Barnhisel Eric Bennett Matthew Blackwell Kelly Budruweit Mike Chasar Simon During Donal Harris Michael Hill Benjamin Kirbach Sean McCann Mark McGurl Marija Rieff Juliana Spahr Stephen Voyle Stephanie Young White Flights Jess Row, 2019-08-06 A bold incisive look at race and reparative writing in American fiction by the author of Your Face in Mine White Flights is a meditation on whiteness in American fiction and culture from the end of the civil rights movement to the present At the heart of the book Jess Row ties white flight the movement of white Americans into segregated communities whether in suburbs or newly gentrified downtowns to white writers setting their stories in isolated or emotionally insulated landscapes from the mountains of Idaho in Marilynne Robinson's Housekeeping to the claustrophobic households in Jonathan Franzen's The Corrections Row uses brilliant close readings of work from well known writers such as Don DeLillo Annie Dillard Richard Ford and David Foster Wallace to examine the ways these and other writers have sought imaginative space for themselves at the expense of engaging with race White Flights aims to move fiction to a more inclusive place and Row looks beyond criticism to consider writing as a reparative act What would it mean he asks if writers used fiction to approach each other again Row turns to the work of James Baldwin Dorothy Allison and James Alan McPherson to discuss interracial love in fiction while also examining his own family heritage as a way to interrogate his position A moving and provocative book that includes music film and literature in its arguments White Flights is an essential work of cultural and literary criticism

Exile and Creativity Susan Rubin Suleiman, 1998 Essays that range chronologically from the Renaissance to the 1990s geographically from the Danube to the Andes and historically from the Inquisition to the Holocaust examine the complexities and tensions of exile focusing particularly on whether exile tends to block or to enhance artistic creativity 16 photos
