Asia Leo van Grunsven, 2019-01-04 First published in 1998 this boo responds to the dynamics of Industrializing Asia and the behavioural changes of actors which in response to changing internal and external forces have given rise to and are constantly giving rise to alterations in patterns of growth From a geographical perspective these are expressed in regional change understood as a reconstruction of spatial organization The imperatives of dynamic comparative advantage changing global or regional competitiveness and regional competition faced by different actors entities or territorial units can be identified as important forces underlying and shaping regional change This volume provides further illumination contextualization and interpretation of the spatiality of the economic reality in Industrializing Asia as well as the role played by and the implications for different actors The objectives of this book are 1 to outline the processes of regional change linked to responses in the form of restructuring and integrative and regionalization tendencies as well as the realignment of the global regional local divide in production systems complexes and the operation of firms associated with reorganization of production in the process of maintaining and reconfiguring comparative advantage 2 to highlight the wide scope of the process by considering differential units of analysis linked to the agents and manifestations of regional change and the role of scale in terms of the spatial units involved 3 to highlight the implications as to the current and future position or role of differential actors agents particularly nation state in shaping the new economic reality in the region and as a corollary its positioning in the global economic order Globalization, Regionalization and Cross-Border Regions M. Perkmann, N. Sum, 2002-07-12 Cross border regions are newly emerging social spaces stretching across national borders Globalization makes national borders more permeable and leads to a rearrangement of economic and political interactions This is particularly pronounced within supra regional blocs featuring specific internal border regimes The ensuing opportunities are increasingly seized to create border spanning discourses and institutions This is illustrated in the book by a range of experts analyzing cross border regions in Europe America East Asia and Africa

Growth Triangles in Asia Asian Development Bank, 1994 A form of regional economic cooperation that has gained rapid acceptance in Asia during the past decade growth triangles bring together the resources of a number of countries to foster economic development in a region The papers in this collection focus on three cases the first brings Mainland Chinese Taiwanese and Hong Kong investment to the Pearl River Delta and Fujian province in southern China the second has developed on the borders of Singapore the Indonesian province of Riau and the Malaysian state of Johor and the third is planned for development in the Tumen River Delta on China's northeast border with Siberia and North Korea A product of the Workshop on Growth Triangles in Asia held in Manila in February 1993 this collection defines explores and debates the issues surrounding the establishment of growth triangles and makes predictions about their potential For each case there is one paper that addresses general issues while others concentrate on more specific concerns such as the role of infrastructure public policy or foreign investment The contributors are all regional scholars well known for their experience and expertise in the field

Growth Triangles Min Tang, Myo Thant, 1994

The SIJORI Cross-Border Region Francis E Hutchinson, Terence Chong, 2016-06-14 Twenty five years ago the governments of Singapore Malaysia and Indonesia agreed to jointly promote the city state the state of Johor in Malaysia and the Riau Islands in Indonesia Facilitated by common cultural references a more distant shared history and complementary attributes interactions between the three territories developed quickly Logistics networks have proliferated and production chains link firms based in one location with affiliates or transport facilities in the other territories These cross border links have enabled all three locations to develop their economies and enjoy rising standards of living Initially economic in nature the interactions between Singapore Johor and the Riau Islands have multiplied and grown deeper Today people cross the borders to work go to school or avail of an increasing range of goods and services New political social and cultural phenomena have developed Policymakers in the various territories now need to reconcile economic imperatives and issues of identity and sovereignty Enabled by their proximity and increasing opportunities families have also begun to straddle borders with resulting questions about citizenship and belonging Using the Cross Border Region framework which seeks to analyse these three territories as one entity simultaneously divided and bound together by its borders this book brings together scholars from a range of disciplines Its 18 chapters and more than 20 maps examine the interaction between Singapore Johor and the Riau Islands over the past quarter century and seek to shed light on how these territories could develop in the future

The Making of Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya, 2013-02-15 Developing a framework to study what makes a region Amitav Acharya investigates the origins and evolution of Southeast Asian regionalism and international relations He views the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN from the bottom up as not only a U S inspired ally in the Cold War struggle against communism but also an organization that reflects indigenous traditions Although Acharya deploys the notion of imagined community to examine the changes especially since the Cold War in the significance of ASEAN dealings for a regional identity he insists that imagination is itself not a neutral but rather a culturally variable concept The regional imagination in Southeast Asia imagines a community of nations different from NAFTA or NATO the OAU or the European Union In this new edition of a book first published as The Quest for Identity in 2000 Acharya updates developments in the region through the first decade of the new century the aftermath of the financial crisis of 1997 security affairs after September 2001 the long term impact of the 2004 tsunami and the substantial changes wrought by the rise of China as a regional and global actor Acharya argues in this important book for the crucial importance of regionalism in a different part of the world

Southeast Asia in the New World Order Bruce Burton, David Wurfel, 2016-07-27 This multi authored book looks at one of the most dynamic regions of the Third World within the context of the rapidly changing international system of the 1990s Among the many themes it explores are ASEAN's new political roles and new modes of economic cooperation the growing importance of ecological and human rights issues the policies of the major external powers towards the region the Cambodian and Spratly conflicts and the relevance of Southeast Asian experience in the New World Order to the ongoing theoretical debates about democracy the market the state and multilateralism

Regional Economic Development in China Swee-Hock Saw, John Wong, 2009 This book incorporates a selection of fourteen revised papers presented to the International Conference on China's Regional Economic Development Cooperation Challenges and Opportunities for Singapore organized jointly by the Saw Centre for Financial Studies NUS Business School and the East Asian Institute National University of Singapore in May 2008 The fourteen chapters discuss in considerable detail the recent shift adopted by the Chinese Government towards the regional development of the country in order to achieve a more balanced economy for the whole country The economic challenges and opportunities in the various parts of the region are examined in the context of this new policy The book with contributors from experts in the topics covered will be invaluable to businessmen analysts academics students and policy makers

purposes of this book the dispute would have to be at the level of a war revolution or other dispute that involves substantial bloodshed on one or more sides rather than a dispute that merely involves words economic competition or non violent conflict The SOS Resolution is a special kind of Win Win dispute resolution where one where both or all sides come out ahead of even their best initial expectations simultaneously The steps and strategies of this resolution are fully explained The Economies of Southeast Asia Teofilo C. Daquila,2005 This book analyses the growth development and crisis experiences of the Southeast Asian economies in particular Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand also known as ASEAN 5 The proposition is developed that the robust economic performance of the Southeast Asian economies during the past four decades has been attributed to the various factors developments and independent national policies which have been pursued by the individual member countries rather than to any regional economic framework The book covers eleven topics which is suitable for a one semester course on the economics of Southeast Asia Also it has a narrower area coverage as it focuses only on the five economies namely Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand The sectoral treatment of the crisis impact and the analytical treatment of policy responses to the crisis differentiate this book from other publications on the same topic Finally this book provides an analysis of national developments policies and factors which have contributed to the economic transformation of the respective Southeast Asian economies Regionalism and Globalism in Southeast Asia E. Palmujoki,2001-10-25 Eero Palmujoki examines the regionalist debate in Southeast Asia from the end of the Cold War up to the beginning of the new millennium He focuses on the organization of the ASEAN Association of Southeast Asian Nations and covers the political economic and security issues characterizing its development The book compares the theoretical debate with political developments in the region from the beginning of the post Cold War period with its rapid economic growth through the Asian economic crisis of 1997 and the resulting restructuring of Southeast Asian regional systems Regionalization and Labour Market Interdependence in East and Southeast Asia Duncan Campbell,Asma Lateef,Aurelio Parisotto,Anil Verma,2016-01-06 How can we account for the dynamic growth of East and Southeast Asian countries Much of the debate has turned on the question of the state versus the market as exclusive and often competing explanations of the successful performance of individual countries This book explores the distinctively interdependent nature of the East and Southeast Asian experience As firms create a regional organization of production the growing interdependence of national labour markets is one major outcome Interconnected Worlds: Tourism in Southeast Asia K.C. Ho,2001-07-05 Examines the political discourse behind tourism presenting some questions regarding the tensions associated with the interconnections This title focuses on deterritorialisation and the development of fresh regionalisms paying specific attention to collaborative efforts in tourism development ADB Through the Decades: ADB's Fifth Decade (2007-2016) Asian Development Bank,2017-09-01 Asia proved resilient to the effects of the 2008 2009 global financial crisis but sustaining rapid growth became more difficult afterward Development challenges intensified the global development agenda became more ambitious and new sources of development finance emerged This volume shows how the Asian Development Bank ADB continued to reform in order to meet these challenges A new long term strategic framework Strategy 2020 was launched in 2008 to respond to the changing needs of the region A midterm review of Strategy 2020 was released in 2014 further refining and adjusting priorities in order for ADB to remain relevant and responsive to borrowers Various organizational changes were introduced internal business processes were improved and several new instruments were adopted as part of ADB s efforts to become stronger better faster ADB s lending capacity expanded significantly with the fifth general capital increase in 2009 followed by the unique and groundbreaking combination of the Asian Development Fund portfolio with the ordinary capital resources balance sheet approved in 2015 Lending reached record levels in 2015 and 2016 exceeding the earlier spike in 2009 when ADB had responded to the needs of countries affected by the global economic crisis ADB also enhanced its accountability and results orientation becoming the first multilateral development bank to adopt a corporate results framework in 2008

□□□□□□□□□□,2002      East Asian Security in the Post-Cold War Era Sheldon W. Simon,2016-06-16 This edition adds chapters on Burma and Vietnam and updated material throughout reflects the current economic crisis in the region
