A Behavioural Theory of Economic Development Robert Huggins, Piers Thompson, 2021-01-14 Innovation entrepreneurship knowledge and human capital are widely acknowledged as key levers of development Yet what are the sources of these factors and why do they differ in their endowment across regions Motivated by a belief that theories of economic development can move beyond the generally accepted explanations of location and the organization of industries and capital this book establishes a behavioural theory of economic development illustrating that differences in human behaviour across cities and regions are a significant deep rooted cause of uneven development Fusing a range of concepts relating to culture psychology human agency institutions and power it proposes that the long term differentials in economic development between cities and regions both within and across nations is strongly connected to the underlying forms of behaviour enacted by humans on an individual and collective basis Given a world of finite and limited resources coupled with a rapidly growing population especially in cities and urban regions human behaviour and the expectations and preferences upon which it is based are central to understanding how notions of development may change in coming years This book provides a novel theory of the role of psychocultural context and human behavioural and institutional frameworks in uneven economic development on a global scale

The European Puzzle Marion Demossier, 2007 The twin concepts of Culture and Identity are inescapable in any discussion of European Integration and yet over the last ten years their meaning has become increasingly contested By combining an anthropological and political perspective the authors challenge the traditional boundaries within the issue of the construction of Europe In the first part historians and anthropologists from various national traditions discuss the process of the construction of Europe and its implications for cultural identities The second section examines a number of topics at the core of the process of Europeanization and presents up to date information on each of these issues political parties regions football cities the Euro ethnicity heritage and European cinema Emphasis is placed on the political structuring of cultural identities by contrasting top down and bottom up processes that define the tensions between the unity and diversity of the European Community

Everyday Culture in Europe Máiréad Nic Craith, 2016-04-15 This book discusses the history and contemporary practice of studying cultures at home by examining Europe's regional or small ethnologies of the past present and future With the rise of nationalism and independence in Europe ethnologies have often played a major role in the nation building process The contributors to this book offer case studies of ethnologies as methodologies showing how they can address key questions concerning everyday life in Europe They also explore issues of European integration and the transnational dimension of culture in Europe today and examine how regional ethnologies can play a crucial part in forming a wider European ethnology as local participants have experience of combining identities within larger regions or nations      Companies, Cultures, and the Region Nick Clifton, Stefan Gartner, Dieter Rehfeld, 2016-04-08 Europe has its strength in regional cultural diversity However current debates surrounding globalisation and the integration of markets tend to focus on the homogenisation of cultures whilst the emergence of vital and innovative regional cultures has typically been neglected This edited collection addresses this gap considering relevant questions such as how strategies orientations values and symbols help a company to become aware of its location and how different regional cultures are of interest to particular types of companies The book s central focus is the interaction of regional and corporate cultures how different cultures come together shape each other and change The volume takes an interdisciplinary approach bringing together research from cultural science regional science social science and economics This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal European Planning Studies      Culture and Economy Ullrich Kockel, 2019-07-17 This title was first published in 2002 For many regions culture is considered the only viable resource they have for economic development Neo liberalist economics has become the dominant paradigm across a wide range of cultural contexts while the cultural contingency of this paradigm itself has been obscured In offering an empirically grounded anthropological critique of these issues the volume makes an original contribution to the international debate on culture and economy The case studies shed light on everyday practices used to establish culture s economic value and concepts of culture and economy employed by policy decision makers are scrutinized through studies of strategies and policies at various levels Aspects of economy such as the market are examined as cultural constructs in a historical context Illustrated by international case studies the volume provides a compelling and insightful survey of the theories and practices that shape the polyvalent relationships between culture and economy in the twenty first century      Rural Transformations Holly Barcus, Roy Jones, Serge Schmitz, 2022-03-30 This book focuses on the transformation of rural places peoples and land endemic to the contemporary manifestations of globalization Migration global economic restructuring and climate change are rapidly transforming rural places across the globe Yet global attention characteristically focuses on urban social and economic issues neglecting the continued roles of rural people and places Organized around the three core themes of demographic change rural urban partnerships and innovations and landscape change the case studies included in this volume represent both the Global North and Global South and underscore the complexity and multi scalar nature of these contemporary challenges in rural development planning and sustainability This book would be valuable supplementary reading for both students and professionals in the fields of rural land management and rural planning      Re-Visioning Europe U. Kockel, 2010-07-28 Drawing on ethno anthropological fieldwork this book considers issues of identity and belonging in Europe from a consciously emic perspective The book explores issues such as borders migration economic organization heritage and the politics and practice of developing cultural understanding      Culture and Identity Politics in Northern Ireland Máiréad Nic Craith, 2003-05-02 Civilization and culture have traditionally been regarded as mutually exclusive concepts In this comparative case study of Northern Ireland M ir ad Nic Craith explores the commitment of unionists to a civic culture blind British state contrasting this with nationalist demands for official recognition of Irish culture The cultural turn in Northern Irish politics and the development of a bicultural infrastructure is examined here in the context of differing interpretations of equality and increasing demands for intercultural communication within as well as between communities

Articulating Europe Jonas Frykman, Péter Niedermüller, 2003 This reprint of a collection of articles addresses the challenges that European ethnology is facing Representing a variety of localities they give new insights and perspectives to the importance of doing empirical fieldwork and of seeing the emergence of new patterns as well as the remaking of old ones transnational regions such as the Oresund Region envisioned as a melding of Copenhagen Denmark with Malm Sweden Peebles argues that the drive to create such transnational spaces is inseparable from the drive to create a pan national currency He studies the practices and rhetoric surrounding the national currencies of Denmark and Sweden the euro and several new local currencies struggling to come into being The Euro and Its Rivals provides a deep historical study of the welfare state and the monetary policies and utopian visions that helped to ground it at the same time shedding new light on the contemporary movement of goods people credit and debt Alternative countrysides Jeremy Macclancy,2015-06-01 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license A fresh anthropological look at a central but neglected topic the profound changes in rural life throughout Western Europe today As locals leave for jobs in cities they are replaced by neo hippies lifestyle seekers eco activists and labour migrants from beyond the EU With detailed ethnographic examples contributors analyse new modes of living rurally and emerging forms of social organisation As incomers dreams come up against residents realities they detail the clashes and the cooperations between old and new residents They make us rethink the rural urban divide investigate regionalists politicisation of rural life and heritage and reveal how locals use EU monies to prop up or challenge existing hierarchies They expose the consequences of and reactions to grand EU restructuring policies which at times threaten to turn the countryside into a manicured playground for escapee urbanites This book will appeal to anyone seriously interested in the realities of rural life today
