The Challenge of

Confidence-building Measures in South Asia Moonis Ahmar, 2001 This Book Is A Most Timely And Welcome Addition To The Growing Body Of Literature On Cbms In South Asia It Provides Reasons For Hope As There Are Many Reasons To Be Dispirited About The Absence Of Proper Confidence Building Measures In South Asia Regional Security in South Asia United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on Asia and the Pacific, 2000 South Asia Trade and Energy Security Narottam P. Banskota, 2012 Today policy makers in both developed and developing countries are pursuing regionalization as a means to achieve easier market access economies of scale and welfare gains South Asia Trade and Energy Security explains how regional economic cooperation in trade and energy security could help facilitate the economic transformation of the region reducing poverty and expanding production Currently intra regional trade in South Asia is constrained by tariff and non tariff barriers A fully functional free trade area as envisaged in the South Asian Free Trade Area agreement has yet to be realized This book explains the current patterns and limitations of energy trade between countries in South Asia and how the growing demand for energy could be met by working closely with energy rich Iran Burma and Central Asian countries Cross border cooperation between India and China Chinese investment in Tibet and Xinjiang and water relations are also discussed Policymakers geopolitical strategists and academics working in Asian Studies will appreciate this detailed analysis of how globalization and regional cooperation in trade and energy are playing a transformative role in South Asia s economic development Regional Outlook Deepak Nair, Lee Poh Onn, 2008 Provides an analysis of current political and economic trends shaping the region and the outlook for the forthcoming two years Contains political commentaries and economic forecasts on all ten countries in Southeast Asia Regionalism and Regional Security in South Asia Zahid Shahab Ahmed, 2016-04-08 Zahid Shahab Ahmed evaluates the progress of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC This study goes beyond economic integration to present a detailed appraisal of cooperation under the overarching themes of economic cooperation environmental security human welfare and cooperation in security matters According to the author SAARC is making progress in addressing the myriad of issues on its agenda The transition from agreements to actions and frequent interactions among the member states has boosted confidence The progress of SAARC is more evident in the less controversial areas of human security such as poverty alleviation health and safety human resources development and higher education Notwithstanding enthusiastic commitments reflected in agreements and action plans there is a gulf between rhetoric and implementation most notably in sensitive areas relating to traditional security In the light of the findings of this study the author proposes that greater cooperation in common human security areas has a potential to pave the way for a cooperation on issues of a contentious nature particularly terrorism South Asia Security Manan Dwivedi, 2009 The academic work titled as South Asia Security is a honest striving to delve into the notion of security in the South Asian Region which is under the arc of the Indian subcontinent The Book objectifies the differentiation between the traditional and convention notions of security which is avowedly power

centric with the new tenet of Comprehensive Human security which entails the concerns of sustainable development Human Rights Gender Empowerment along with the notions of Globalization and all pervading tenet of Interdependence with the advent of neo liberal institutionalism The book aims to posit the traditional bilaterals in the South Asian firmament in the larger than life matrix of new age convergence and Interdependence

Transforming South Asia: Imperatives for Action Ambassador Rajiv Bhatia, Mr Swaran Singh, Ms Reena Marwah, 2013-11-15 Right from the Himalayan hermit kingdoms of Nepal and Bhutan to the island and archipelago countries of Sri Lanka and the Maldives the sheer variety of South Asia not only in geographic terms but also in terms of culture language and tradition is unparalleled A wide array of religious beliefs existing in the region alongside distinctive mind sets tend to differentiate the countries that make up South Asia The divisions however of the region among countries are not the same as the divisions among cultures religions This book titled Transforming South Asia Imperatives for Action is the outcome of serious deliberations among well known scholars diplomats and policymakers at the Third Conference of the Asian Relations Conference Series organized by Indian Council of World Affairs in collaboration with Association of Asia Scholars in March 2012 Papers presented in the conference were thoroughly revised before publication and editors acknowledge with gratitude these insightful contributions Most contributors to this volume believe in the pertinence of regional integration amongst various South Asian nations Specifically the volume sheds considerable light on the issue of regionalization and co operation as tools to achieve the much longed for transformation in South Asia Experts do not shy away from examining issues of conflict and how border disputes have often marred the positive spirit of regionalization as also other mechanisms of SAARC in its day to day functioning Therefore an effort to present the complex reality objectively is visible Contributors also underscore India s role in regionalization of South Asia as being far more pragmatic since it has strengthened local synergies especially at the level of their civil societies

Asia-Pacific Regional Security Assessment 2021 The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), 2021-06-07 The Asia Pacific Regional Security Assessment 2021 provides insight into key regional strategic geopolitical economic military and security topics Among the topics explored are US China decoupling and its regional security implications Japan s security policy and China India s emerging grand strategy Southeast Asia amid rising great power rivalry Australia s new regional security posture NATO s evolving approach to China The United Kingdom s tilt to the Indo Pacific and Emerging technologies and future conflict in the Asia Pacific Authors include leading regional analysts and academics Kanti Bajpai Gordon Flake Franz Stefan Gady Prashanth Parameswaran Alessio Patalano Samir Puri Sarah Raine Tan See Seng Drew Thompson Ashley Townshend Joanne Wallis and Robert Ward

Security in South Asia Dipankar Banerjee, 1999 Ten years after the end of the Cold War South Asia stands almost alone among regions where the potential for conflict remains high The situation was further aggravated by the nuclear tests in the region in May 1998 This has led to avoidable tensions high military spending and lack of economic co operation among its member countries As a result South Asia is today among the poorest regions in the world with human development indices even worse than Sub Saharan Africa It is imperative that this cycle of tension and conflict is broken The only way out is to develop alternative approaches to security One such alternative is comprehensive and co operative security Ideas which have emerged in recent years in Europe and Asia may be adapted usefully in South Asia This book is an attempt at understanding the security concerns of individual countries of South Asia

Strategic Forum ,1994 Marginalisation and Human Rights in Southeast Asia Al Khanif,Khoo Ying Hooi,2022-12-28

This book analyses marginalisation and human rights in Southeast Asia and offers diverse approaches in understanding the nuances of marginalisation and human rights in the region Throughout the region a whole range of similarities and differences can be observed relating to the Southeast Asian experience of human rights violation with each country maintaining particular aspects reflecting the variability of the use and abuse of political power This book explores the distinct links between marginalisation and human rights for groups exposed to discrimination It focuses on ethnic minorities children indigenous peoples migrant workers refugees academics and people with disabilities This book highlights the disparities in attainment and opportunity of marginalised and minority groups in Southeast Asia to their rights It examines how marginalisation is experienced with case studies ranging from a regional approach to country context Paying attention to how broader socio economic and political structures affect different people s access to or denial of their fundamental human rights and freedoms the book argues that tackling human rights abuses remains a major hurdle for the countries in Southeast Asia Providing a broader conceptual framework on marginalisation and human rights in Southeast Asia and a new assessment of these issues this book will be of interest to readers in the fields of Asian Law Human Rights in Asia and Southeast Asian Studies in particular Southeast Asian Politics How Realist Is India's National Security Policy? Kanti

Bajpai,2023-03-30 In managing national security how Realist is India in terms of cultivating and using power and especially military power A conventional view of India is that it has been uncomfortable with realism or power politics as a guide to policy This volume shows that it has been more realist than is generally recognized and that it has increasingly become comfortable with power in the service of its interests The essays in this volume Examine the different aspects and types of realism in India s national security policy Include a range of perspectives from academics as well as former military officers and diplomats Focus on India s military and foreign policy in dealing with China Pakistan the United States Southeast Asia and West Asia This key volume will be indispensable to scholars and researchers of politics and international relations defence and strategic studies and South Asian studies and to government officials journalists and general readers interested in the external dimensions of India s national security Minority Rights in South Asia Rainer Hofmann,Ugo Caruso,2011 This publication contains case studies on human and minority rights in the South Asian countries including a special focus on the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC and articles on different forms of National Human Rights Commission and Immigration to the UK and new minorities It is further complemented by an in depth study on Autonomy

Kashmir and International Law Assembling articles authored by leading scholars from both South Asia and Europe the book will contribute to a mutual exchange of views on human and minority rights issues in South Asia In particular the book is aimed at increasing awareness and understanding of current developments in South Asia and on this basis at enhancing a constructive dialogue between representatives of the scientific community policy makers and civil society in Europe and their counterparts in South Asia

Chinese Foreign Relations Robert G. Sutter, 2008 This comprehensive introduction to Chinese foreign relations explores the opportunities and limits China faces as it seeks growing international influence Tracing the record of twists and turns in Chinese foreign relations since the end of the Cold War Robert G Sutter provides a nuanced analysis that shows that despite popular perceptions of its growing power Beijing is hampered by both domestic and international constraints This text's balanced and thorough assessment shows China's leaders exerting more influence in world affairs but remaining far from dominant Facing numerous contradictions and tradeoffs they move cautiously as they deal with a complex global environment
