Regional Cooperation In South Asia New Dimensions:

South Asia in the New World Order Shahid Javed Burki,2011-03-24 Rapid changes have taken place in the structure of the global economy and this book looks at how South Asia can take advantage of these changes The author argues that the developing global economy will be more complex than originally thought that instead of a bipolar model with two countries the US and China at the centre it will be multipolar with eight centres of economic activity including India The book goes on to suggest that in the context of such a model there should be regional cooperation between India and its immediate neighbouring countries for South Asia to advance as an economic region It argues that South Asia will need to look at its history and that changes in attitudes particularly in India and Pakistan are necessary The possible benefits to the region in terms of increases in the rates of economic growth if the regional approach is adopted are discussed The book presents a useful contribution to studies in South Asia as well as Asian Economics Regionalism in South Asia Kishore C. Dash,2008-02-19 The dramatic surge in regional integration schemes over the past two decades has been one of the most important developments in world politics This book examines regionalism in South Asia exploring the linkages between institutional structures government capabilities and domestic actors preferences to explain the dynamics of regional cooperation Regional Cooperation in South Asia K. C. Reddy,T. Nirmala Devi,2002 Papers presented at a seminar

Regional Cooperation in South Asia and Southeast Asia Kripa Sridharan, 2007 Provides a comparative sketch of regional cooperation in South and Southeast Asia in the light of various political economic and social developments in the two The South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC) Lawrence Saez, 2012-05-23 The South Asian regions Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC is an international organization comprised of the eight countries in South Asia This work aims examine the institutional structure objectives and effectiveness of the SAARC in its role as South Asia s leading regional institution Drawing on original research it offers a fresh and accessible account of SAARC arguing that South Asia forms a unique regional security complex that enables certain forms of regional cooperation and bars cooperation on other issue areas The text provides a comprehensive introduction to the SAARC describing the historical developments that lead to its formation and examining key issues such as The inner workings of Regional Centres and their success in implementing the decisions reached at SAARC summits How SAARC has sought to address critical new security challenges such as health pandemics terrorism energy security South Asia s economic cooperation and the South Asia Free Trade Agreement SAFTA Challenges that expansion pose to the organization particularly China's suggestion to expand beyond the traditional borders of South Asia The work aims to evaluate what scope there is for formal institutions like SAARC to provide a permanent regional security architecture within which South Asian countries can effectively address important issues and will be of great interest to all students and scholars of Asian security studies and institutions in general and students and scholars of international relations in South Asia in particular Regionalism and Regional Security in South Asia Zahid

Shahab Ahmed, 2016-04-08 Zahid Shahab Ahmed evaluates the progress of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC This study goes beyond economic integration to present a detailed appraisal of cooperation under the overarching themes of economic cooperation environmental security human welfare and cooperation in security matters According to the author SAARC is making progress in addressing the myriad of issues on its agenda The transition from agreements to actions and frequent interactions among the member states has boosted confidence The progress of SAARC is more evident in the less controversial areas of human security such as poverty alleviation health and safety human resources development and higher education Notwithstanding enthusiastic commitments reflected in agreements and action plans there is a gulf between rhetoric and implementation most notably in sensitive areas relating to traditional security In the light of the findings of this study the author proposes that greater cooperation in common human security areas has a potential to pave the way for a cooperation on issues of a contentious nature particularly terrorism Bilateral and Multilateral Cooperation in South Asia A. Subramanyam Raju, 2021-09-24 This book examines how bilateralism and multilateralism serve as cornerstones in bringing countries together to enhance regional cooperation It explores the unfolding dynamics of bilateral and multilateral relationships in South Asia and looks at how factors like the absence of shared identities or common threats from external sources a lack of trust and suspicion are manifesting as obstacles for regional cooperation With case studies from various constituent countries the volume studies themes such as economic cooperation in South Asia connections through sub regional initiatives migration and refugee problems in the region SAARC and terrorism the Pashtun factor in Afghanistan Pakistan relations India s interests in ASEAN and BIMSTEC the nuclear dynamics of India Pakistan relations India Bangladesh connectivity issues Sri Lanka as a troubled island nation and Afghanistan's relations with the Kashmir Valley It discusses the implications of these long standing issues that have stood as impediments to regional cooperation and bringing new perspectives to enable greater understanding and probable solutions A comprehensive and accessible volume it will be useful for scholars and researchers of international relations international trade South Asian studies SAARC regional development international and multilateral trade political studies geo politics strategic and defence studies and peace and conflict resolution South Asia Subregional Economic Cooperation Operational Plan 2016-2025 Update Asian Development Bank, 2020-02-01 This report reflects the changes in the South Asia Subregional Economic Cooperation SASEC Program s operational plan for the period 2016 2025 It outlines the updates on the supporting list of priority projects resulting from a rigorous vetting process This involves defining SASEC transport and energy networks and identifying priority projects based on preparedness and their roles in filling network gaps The result is a more reasonable estimate of funding needs to help meet the SASEC Program s goals of multimodal connectivity energy market development and increased intraregional and interregional trade Region-building Ludger Kühnhardt, 2010-07-01 After two centuries of nation building the world has entered an era of region building in search of political stability cultural cohesion and socio economic development Nations involved in the regional structures and integration schemes that are emerging in most regions of the world are deepening their ambitions with Europe s integration experience often used as an experimental template or theoretical model Volume I provides a political analytical framework for recognizing the central role of the European Union not only as a conceptual model but also a normative engine in the global proliferation of regional integration It also gives a comprehensive treatment of the focus motives and objectives of non European integration efforts Volume II offers a unique collection of documents that give the best available overview of the legal and political evolution of region building based on official documents and stated objectives of the relevant regional groupings across all continents Together these volumes are important contributions for understanding the evolution of global affairs in an age when power shifts provide new challenges and opportunities for transatlantic partners and the world community Strengthening Regional Trade Integration in South Asia Owais Hasan Khan, 2021-03-05 This book brings forth the philosophical conceptual and practical contours of the trade regionalism provisions under the GATT WTO It analyses SAARC as the regional integration organisation of South Asia along with identifying major challenges and bottlenecks faced by it in the process of achieving regional integration It presents ways and methods through which SAARC can be made a more effective regional organisation The book predominantly focuses on trade regionalism However other areas of integration which have impacts on the trade regionalism are also examined like social and political integrations etc The book takes off from the premise that trade regionalism under SAARC has failed and has been marred by political and security concerns among its member nations It has failed to achieve its objective on all the three counts which are promoting peace development and economic cooperation However with the developing countries as members SAARC has great potential for trade integration Certain structural normative and organisation alteration along with favourable ideation can still make SAARC achieve its full potential The book also deals with the comparative analysis of SAARC regional integration with the regional integration under European Union and ASEAN Regarding comparative regionalism the discussion has been confined only to the EU and ASEAN The EU has been chosen because it is comparatively established as one of the most successful regional organisations in the contemporary world Whereas ASEAN has been chosen because of its similarity to the SAARC s economy society and political structure The analysis presented in the book is from the perspectives of international law and international relations theories and practise This book thus is of particular relevance to the students researchers academicians policymakers and practitioners of international trade law international relations and South Asian studies

Amitav Acharya,2011-07-22 Asia is a crucial battleground for power and influence in the international system It is also a theater of new experiments in regional cooperation that could redefine global order Whose Ideas Matter is the first book to explore the diffusion of ideas and norms in the international system from the perspective of local actors with Asian regional institutions as its main focus There s no Asian equivalent of the EU or of NATO Why has Asia and in particular Southeast Asia avoided such multilateral institutions Most accounts focus on U S interests and perceptions or intraregional rivalries to explain the design and effectiveness of regional institutions in Asia such as SEATO ASEAN and the ASEAN Regional Forum Amitav Acharya instead foregrounds the ideas of Asian policymakers including their response to the global norms of sovereignty and nonintervention Asian regional institutions are shaped by contestations and compromises involving emerging global norms and the preexisting beliefs and practices of local actors Acharya terms this perspective constitutive localization and argues that international politics is not all about Western ideas and norms forcing their way into non Western societies while the latter remain passive recipients Rather ideas are conditioned and accepted by local agents who shape the diffusion of ideas and norms in the international system Acharya sketches a normative trajectory of Asian regionalism that constitutes an important contribution to the global sovereignty regime and explains a remarkable continuity in the design and functions of Asian regional institutions BIISS Journal ,2006 Transitions and Interdependence: India and its Neighbours Dr Pankaj Jha, Dr Smita Tiwari, 2015-07-15 Developments in South Asia in the areas of democracy political economy and security in the last couple of years are intriguing and raise questions about whether the region is on the road to transformation The years 2013 and 2014 particularly have been years of transition in South Asia Almost all South Asia countries have undergone political transitions with cascading effects These elections are significant for South Asian countries because the region has witnessed political instability for a long period of time The elections in South Asia generated the hope that the most un integrated region may become interdependent after coming up of new sets of political heads These developments in the region have an influence on India's foreign policy and also mould its domestic politics and vice versa India's policy towards individual countries also has a decisive impact on the pace of on going political transitions in a number of spheres civil military relations foreign policy of individual countries socio political and economic dynamics and nature of governance These transitions reflect the nature behaviour and response of the transitory states towards the others India as an important stakeholder in the region is keenly observing these transitions in its neighbourhood This book titled Transitions and Interdependence India and Its Neighbours is the outcome of serious deliberations among well known scholars diplomats and policy makers at the Fifth Asian Relations Conference organised by the Indian Council of World Affairs in collaboration with the Institute of Peace and Conflict Studies in February 2014 Papers presented in the conference have been thoroughly revised before publication and the editors acknowledge with gratitude theses insightful contributions South Asian Security Sagarika Dutt, Alok Bansal, 2013-06-17 The South Asian security complex refers to security interdependencies between the states in the region and also includes the effect that powerful external actors such as China the US and Russia and geopolitical interests have on regional dynamics This book focuses on the national securities of a number of South Asian countries in order to discuss a range of issues related to South Asian security The book makes a distinction between traditional and non traditional security While state centric approaches such as bilateral relations between India and Pakistan are considered to be traditional realist approaches to security the promotion of economic environmental and human security reflect global concerns liberal theories and cosmopolitan values The book goes beyond traditional security issues to reflect the changing security agenda in South Asia in the twenty first century and is a useful contribution to studies on South Asian Politics and Security Studies India's Foreign Policy and Regional Multilateralism Arndt Michael, 2013-02-07 The book provides a novel analytical perspective on regional multilateralism in South Asia and its neighbouring regions and covers the genesis evolution and status quo of the four major regional organizations Economic Integration in South Asia Muinul Islam,Nitai Chandra Nag,2010 Economic Integration in South Asia Issues and Pathways is one of the volumes of the series titled Imagine a New South Asia presented by ActionAid International Asia This volume envisions a new South Asia free from human deprivation and poverty where countries will become successful proud and inclusive societies This book demonstrates how South Asian countries can learn from the best practices in the region as well as from their failures and also by trying to emulate the successful strategies of introducing egalitarian education and health systems of East Asia China and Southeast Asian countries Rich in analysis and research this volume seeks an alternative people centred perspective and takes into account all those voices that have so long been unheard in policy making processes through reviews of case studies Not only will the findings of this volume be useful in conducting campaigns for appropriate policy and mindset changes but these will also eventually make the emergence of a highly integrated South Asia truly possible
