Regional Sketches:

Cultivating Citizens Lauren Kroiz, 2018-04-03 Cultivating Citizens rethinks the aesthetics and politics of regionalism in the United States during the 1930s and 1940s During this period painters Grant Wood Thomas Hart Benton and John Steuart Curry formed a loose alliance as American Regionalists Some lauded their depictions of the rural landscape and hardworking inhabitants of America's midwestern heartland Others deemed Regionalist painting dangerous regarding its easily understood realism as a vehicle for jingoism chauvinism and even fascism Cultivating Citizens shifts the terms of this ongoing debate over subject matter and style by considering heretofore neglected Regionalist programs of art education and concepts of artistic labor Provided by publisher

Before the West Was West Amy T. Hamilton, Tom J. Hillard, 2014-11-01 Before the West Was West examines the extent to which scholars have engaged in depth with pre 1800 western texts and asks what we mean by western American literature in the first place and when that designation originated Calling into question the implicit temporal boundaries of the American West in literature a literature often viewed as having commenced only at the beginning of the 1800s Before the West Was West explores the concrete meaningful connections between different texts as well as the development of national ideologies and mythologies Examining pre nineteenth century writings that do not fit conceptions of the Wild West or of cowboys cattle ranching and the Pony Express these thirteen essays demonstrate that no single unified idea or geography defines the American West Contributors investigate texts ranging from the Norse Vinland Sagas and Mary Rowlandson's famous captivity narrative to early Spanish and French exploration narratives an eighteenth century English novel and a play by Aphra Behn Through its examination of the disparate and multifaceted body of literature that arises from a broad array of cultural backgrounds and influences Before the West Was West apprehends the literary West in temporal as well as spatial and cultural terms and poses new questions about westernness and its literary representation

A Regional Contemporary C. J. W.-L. Wee, 2025-03-18 The first critical account of the enormous upsurge in cultural expression across Asian countries from 1979 2008 and the new possibilities it presented for the aesthetic and cultural re imagining of a unified contemporary Asia Biennial style art exhibitions New discourses in modern and contemporary art The production and circulation of increasingly debordered popular culture A Regional Contemporary by C J W L Wee is an investigative account of the dramatic increase in cultural expression in Asia from 1979 to 2008 with the 1990s as the focal point of this period The so called East Asian miracle Wee argues projected a fictive but shared contemporary regional identity onto Northeast and Southeast Asia collectively taken as East Asia The new cultural explosion was notably enabled by expanded capitalist energies that reached a level critical enough to reposition the region's postcolonial and Cold War era nationalisms and this book examines the resulting implications A sophisticated and compelling study A Regional Contemporary is the first to examine the conjunction of high and popular culture in the region Moreover Wee reveals how the various cultural formations of this regional contemporary were able to traverse if not overcome uneven national economies the memory of Japanese empire and the geopolitical rifts of post Cold War nationalisms While foregrounding new cultural expression Wee simultaneously examines how novel economic conditions bolstered a more confident questioning of Western modernity's dominance and enhanced the capacity for regional dialogue in the bid to overcome colonial era legacies even as those legacies were being absorbed into the region VH1 VH1 For the designer if space is tight on the back this can be deleted Reading Asian Art and Artifacts Paul Kocot Nietupski, Joan O'Mara, Karil J. Kucera, 2011 Asian art and material artifacts are expressive of cultural realities and constitute a visible language with messages that can be read interpreted and analyzed These essays by scholars of Asian art philosophy anthropology and religion focus on objects held in ASIANetwork schools The chapters authors tell the stories of the collections and the collections themselves tell stories of the collectors

Regional Sketch Plan, 1974, Southern Columbia Regional Planning Commission, Columbia County, Pennsylvania Local Government Research Corporation, 1974 Such News of the Land Thomas S. Edwards, Elizabeth A. De Wolfe, 2001 A collection of new essays establishes women's voices as a powerful presence in US nature writing Nation and Migration Juliet Shields, 2016-01-04 Nation and Migration explores the significant contributions of Scotland Ireland and Wales to the development of a British Atlantic literature and culture moving beyond traditional studies of transatlantic literature that focus on what Stephen Spender has described as the love hate relations between the United States and England By allowing England to stand in for the British archipelago Juliet Shields argues recent literary scholarship has oversimplified the processes through which the new United States differentiated itself culturally from Britain and underestimated the impact of migration on British nation formation during the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries In short Nation and Migration provides a literary history for a nation that still considers itself a land of immigrants Scottish Irish and Welsh migrants brought with them to the American colonies and early republic stories and traditions very different from those shared by English settlers Americans looked to these stories for narratives of cultural and racial origins through which to legitimate their new nation Writers situated in Britain's Celtic peripheries in turn drew on American discourses of rights and liberties to assert the cultural independence of Scotland Ireland and Wales from the English imperial center The stories that late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Britons and Americans told about transatlantic migration and settlement whether from the position of migrant or observer reveal the tenuousness and fragility of Britain and the United States as relatively new national entities These stories illustrate the dialectical relationship between nation and migration Sketch of the Floral Regions of South Africa Harry Bolus, 1905 Colour, 1921 The periodical's purpose was to report on contemporary developments in painting from the British Isles and elsewhere more importantly each issue contained high quality colour reproductions of examples of various artists work International Directory of Art Libraries Thomas E. Hill, 2012-10-25 The International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions IFLA is the leading international body representing the interests of library and information services and their users It is the global voice of the information

profession The series IFLA Publications deals with many of the means through which libraries information centres and information professionals worldwide can formulate their goals exert their influence as a group protect their interests and find solutions to global problems The Directory of Museums & Living Displays Kenneth Hudson, Ann Nicholls, 1985-06-18

"Art in the North of England, 1979-2008" Gabriel N. Gee, 2017-07-05 Based on rare archival material and numerous interviews with practitioners Art in the North of England 1979-2008 analyses the relation between political and economic changes stemming from the 1980s and artistic developments in the principal cities of the North of England in the late 20th century Looking in particular at the art scenes of Liverpool Manchester Leeds Sheffield and Newcastle Gabriel Gee unveils a set of powerful aesthetic reactions to industrial change and urban reconstruction during this period on the part of artists including John Davies Pete Clarke the Amber collective Richard Wilson Karen Watson Nick Crowe Ian Rawlinson John Kippin and the contribution of organisations such as Projects UK Locus East Street Arts the Henry Moore Sculpture Trust and the Bluecoat Gallery in Liverpool While the geographical focus of this study is highly specific a key concern throughout is the relationship between regional national and international artistic practices and identities Of interest to all scholars and students concerned with the developments of British art in the second half of the 20th century the study is also of direct pertinence to observers of global narratives which are here described and analysed through the concept of trans industriality

East Central European Art Histories and Austria Karolina Majewska-Güde, Monika Leisch-Kiesl, 2024-05-06 The specific role of the Austro Hungarian Empire and the later nation of Austria within the formation of regional art histories in East Central Europe has received little attention in art historical research so far Taking into account the era of the Dual Monarchy as well as the period after 1989 the contributions analyze and critically scrutinize the imperial legacies transnational transfer processes and cultural hierarchies in art historiographies artistic practices and institutional histories Consisting of 17 texts with new commissions and one reprint case studies monographic essays and interviews grouped thematically into two sections the anthology proposes a pluriversal narrative on regional cultural and political contexts
