Regionalization In A Globalizing World A Comparative Perspective On Forms Actors And Processes:

Regionalization in a Globalizing World Michael Schulz, Fredrik Soderbaum, Joakim Öjendal, 2001-05 The emerging role of regional systems of relations is an important feature of the new global politics While the European Union is the most advanced case most other parts of the world display at least the beginnings of regional systems Using a multidisciplinary approach the contributors examine these processes from a comparative perspective concentrating on the following questions what constitute a region how is the historical process of region formation unfolding what motives and factors underlie this drive to regionalisation what forms a regional awareness and institutionalisation are emerging and where what are the future prospects Globalising the Regional, Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick Fawn, 2009-04-30 A collection of leading international scholars examine the concept of regions from a range of perspectives and assess leading contemporary examples

Regionalisation and Global Governance Andrew F. Cooper, Christopher W. Hughes, Philippe De Lombaerde, 2007-12-21 The relationship between global governance and regionalization is fraught with ambiguity Understanding regionalization in this context requires an understanding of its relationship and reactive condition with both the constellations of global governance and globalization This book presents an overview and explores the distinctive but intersecting trajectories of regionalization and global governance It surveys the theoretical debates the economic dimensions multinationals trade and investment and labour the security considerations armed conflict conflict prevention and peacekeeping and non traditional security in Asia the governing structures managing contemporary multilevel architecture and cultural policy leadership and the L 20 The expert and multi disciplinary editors and contributors survey the context as well as the general character of these projects together with their links as both parallel mediating mechanisms and distinctive choices for interjecting governance into globalization Examining these projects in tandem amplifies their importance and enables the contributors to tease out coincidental as well as alternative possibilities in policy direction This book will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations area studies international economics international political economy political science public administration and development studies Globalization,

Regionalization and Cross-Border Regions M. Perkmann, N. Sum, 2002-07-12 Cross border regions are newly emerging social spaces stretching across national borders Globalization makes national borders more permeable and leads to a rearrangement of economic and political interactions This is particularly pronounced within supra regional blocs featuring specific internal border regimes The ensuing opportunities are increasingly seized to create border spanning discourses and institutions This is illustrated in the book by a range of experts analyzing cross border regions in Europe America East Asia and Africa Microregionalism and World Order S. Breslin, G. Hook, 2016-01-19 Microregionalism and World Order is a pioneering work on the least understood aspect of regionalism Leading specialists analyze the form microregionalism takes in different parts of the world including the Americas Asia Pacific and Africa By illustrating the complex relationship amongst the political economic and social dimensions of microregionalism the book seeks to contribute to the theoretical debate on regionalism as well as to provide new empirical insights

Security and International Law Mary E Footer, Julia Schmidt, Nigel D White, Lydia Davies-Bright, 2016-06-16 Of the many challenges that society faces today possibly none is more acute than the security of ordinary citizens when faced with a variety of natural or man made disasters arising from climate and geological catastrophes including the depletion of natural resources environmental degradation food shortages terrorism breaches of personal security and human security or even the global economic crisis States continue to be faced with a range of security issues arising from contested territorial spaces military and maritime security and security threats relating to energy infrastructure and the delivery of essential services The theme of the book encompasses issues of human political military socio economic environmental and energy security and raises two main questions To what extent can international law address the types of natural and man made security risks and challenges that threaten our livelihood or very existence in the twenty first century Where does international law fall short in meeting the problems that arise in different situations of insecurity and how should such shortcomings be addressed

The Theoretical and Practical Dimensions of Regionalism in East Asia Karolina Klecha-Tylec, 2016-11-29 This book provides a comprehensive overview of developments in East Asian regionalism combining qualitative evidence with empirical quantitative analysis It argues that two dominant processes have formed East Asian regionalism 1 regionalization and 2 inter regionalism Klecha Tylec examines the differences between traditional and new regionalisms as they apply to East Asia the differences between East Asian and European regionalism the role of the United States in shaping regional links and the evolution of the three key structures of ASEAN ASEAN 3 and Asia Summits The book is unique for examining together the network zonal and geospatial dimensions of relations in East Asia as they apply at micro regional sub regional macro regional trans regional and inter regional levels The book offers a detailed analysis of intra regional links and the hybrid relationships between micro regions and nation states

Regionalism, Globalisation and International Order Jens-Uwe Wunderlich, 2016-03-23 New regionalism and globalization have been prominent themes in academic and political debates since the beginning of the 1990s Despite the considerable amount of scholarly attention that the new regionalism has received in recent years its full empirical and theoretical potential has yet to be fully investigated This illuminating study provides an overview of new avenues in theorizing regionalism and proposes a consolidated framework for analysis and comparison Offering a comparative historical perspective of European and Southeast Asian regionalism it presents new and imaginative insights into the theory and practice of regionalism and the links between regional developments globalization and international order

Ageing and Globalisation Martin Hyde, Paul Higgs, 2016-07-06 Two of the most unprecedented transformations in the history of human social and economic life are currently underway One globalization is the subject of extensive media coverage and scholarly analysis Relatively ignored however is the other one the overall aging of the world s population This book offers the first in depth look at the two forces in tandem showing the many ways in which they interact and affect each other and helping us for the first time to grasp the implications of both This comprehensive introduction to globalization for gerontologists is part of the Ageing in a Global Context series published in association with the British Society of Gerontology      The Dynamics of Black Sea

Subregionalism Panagiota Manoli,2016-03-23 Conflict and cooperation are two dynamics that have shaped the political economy and international relations around the Black Sea since the early nineties Despite the negative structural environment and the persistence of a high security dilemma cooperative efforts among Black Sea actors primarily state elites but increasingly non state actors have been advancing even though slowly Representing a new development in the study of contemporary regionalism Panagiota Manoli examines the process of institutionalized subregional cooperation and casts new light on the factors influencing the reconfiguration of subregional structures in the region Focusing on the primary initiative in the region Black Sea Economic Cooperation BSEC Manoli traces how subregionalism has evolved since the early nineties and what has been driving and conditioning this process Questioning whether there is a definitive nature to subregionalism Manoli then discusses Black Sea subregionalism within the European integration process examining the impact of the European Union Contributing to the conceptualization of the subregional phenomenon this book should be read by scholars and policy makers alike unclear on how local elements interface with extra regional forces in the shaping of a subregion

Region-building Ludger Kühnhardt,2010-07-01 After two centuries of nation building the world has entered an era of region building in search of political stability cultural cohesion and socio economic development Nations involved in the regional structures and integration schemes that are emerging in most regions of the world are deepening their ambitions with Europe s integration experience often used as an experimental template or theoretical model Volume I provides a political analytical framework for recognizing the central role of the European Union not only as a conceptual model but also a normative engine in the global proliferation of regional integration It also gives a comprehensive treatment of the focus motives and objectives of non European integration efforts Volume II offers a unique collection of documents that give the best available overview of the legal and political evolution of region building based on official documents and stated objectives of the relevant regional groupings across all continents Together these volumes are important contributions for understanding the evolution of global affairs in an age when power shifts provide new challenges and opportunities for transatlantic partners and the world community      World Politics Jeffrey Haynes,Peter Hough,Shahin Malik,Lloyd Pettiford,2017-03-20 Praised for achieving significant breadth and depth of coverage of all the key themes of IR this introduction is also full of a range of features and techniques including a wide range of contemporary case studies and reflection boxes to help students become adept at the subject quickly and easily      Ending Africa's Energy Deficit and the

Law Yinka Omorogbe,Ada Ordor,2018-02-22 With the inclusion of access to energy in the sustainable development goals the role of energy to human existence was finally recognized Yet in Africa this achievement is far from realized Omorogbe and

Order bring together experts in their fields to ask what is stalling progress examining problems from institutions catering to vested interests at the continent's expense to a need to develop vigorous financial and fiscal frameworks The ramifications and complications of energy law are labyrinthine this volume discusses how energy deficits can burden disabled people women and children in excess of their more fortunate counterparts as well as considering environmental issues including the delicate balance between the necessity of water for drinking and cleaning and the use of water in industrial processes A pivotal work of scholarship the book poses pressing questions for energy law and international human rights Roads to Regionalism Tanja A. Börzel, Lukas Goltermann, Kai Striebinger, 2016-04-08 Over the past few decades states all around the globe have intensified institutionalized cooperation at the regional level To deepen our understanding of state led regionalism the authors use an analytical framework comprising four main strands First they describe and explain the genesis and growth of regional organizations Second they account for institutional design looking at important similarities and differences Third they examine the interaction between organizations and member states in an attempt to reveal factors that shape the level of commitment to and compliance with regional initiatives Finally they consider the impact of regional organizations on their member states They conclude by providing a foundation for future research on the dynamic development of regionalism Routledge History of International Organizations Bob Reinalda, 2009-09-11 This is a definitive and comprehensive history of international organizations from their very beginning at the Congress of Vienna in 1815 up to the present day and provides the reader with nearly two centuries of world history seen from the perspective of international organizations It covers the three main fields of international relations security economics and the humanitarian domain which often overlap in international organizations As well as global and intercontinental organizations the book also covers regional international organizations and international non governmental organizations in all continents The book progresses chronologically but also provides a thematic and geographical coherence so that related developments can be discussed together A series of detailed tables figures charts and information boxes explain the chronologies structures and relationships of international organizations There are biographies histories and analysis of hundreds of international organizations This is an essential reference work with direct relevance to scholars in international relations international political economy international economics and business and security studies Regionalism and Regional Security in South Asia Zahid Shahab Ahmed, 2016-04-08 Zahid Shahab Ahmed evaluates the progress of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC This study goes beyond economic integration to present a detailed appraisal of cooperation under the overarching themes of economic cooperation environmental security human welfare and cooperation in security matters According to the author SAARC is making progress in addressing the myriad of issues on its agenda The transition from agreements to actions and frequent interactions among the member states has boosted confidence The progress of SAARC is more evident in the less controversial areas of human security such as poverty alleviation health and safety human resources development and higher education Notwithstanding enthusiastic commitments reflected in agreements and action plans there is a gulf between rhetoric and implementation most notably in sensitive areas relating to traditional security In the light of the findings of this study the author proposes that greater cooperation in common human security areas has a potential to pave the way for a cooperation on issues of a contentious nature particularly terrorism
