Less is More Jason Hickel, 2020-08-13 A powerfully disruptive book for disrupted times If you're looking for transformative ideas this book is for you KATE RAWORTH economist and author of Doughnut Economics A Financial Times Book of the Year _____ Our planet is in trouble But how can we reverse the current crisis and create a sustainable future The answer is DEGROWTH Less is More is the wake up call we need By shining a light on ecological breakdown and the system that's causing it Hickel shows how we can bring our economy back into balance with the living world and build a thriving society for all This is our chance to change course but we must act now

_____ A masterpiece Less is More covers centuries and continents spans academic disciplines and connects contemporary and ancient events in a way which cannot be put down until it's finished DANNY DORLING Professor of Geography University of Oxford Jason is able to personalise the global and swarm the mind in the way that insects used to in abundance but soon shan't unless we are able to heed his beautifully rendered warning RUSSELL BRAND Jason Hickel shows that recovering the commons and decolonizing nature cultures and humanity are necessary conditions for hope of a common future in our common home VANDANA SHIVA author of Making Peace With the Earth This is a book we have all been waiting for Jason Hickel dispels ecomodernist fantasies of green growth Only degrowth can avoid climate breakdown The facts are indisputable and they are in this book GIORGIS KALLIS author of Degrowth Capitalism has robbed us of our ability to even imagine something different Less is More gives us the ability to not only dream of another world but also the tools by which we can make that vision real ASAD REHMAN director of War on Want One of the most important books I have read does something extremely rare it outlines a clear path to a sustainable future for all RAOUL MARTINEZ author of Creating Freedom Jason Hickel takes us on a profound journey through the last 500 years of capitalism and into the current crisis of ecological collapse Less is More is required reading for anyone interested in what it means to live in the Anthropocene and what we can do about it ALNOOR LADHA co founder of The Rules Excellent analysis This book explores not only the systemic flaws but the deeply cultural beliefs that need to be uprooted and replaced ADELE WALTON

Bowker's Directory of Videocassettes for Children 1999 R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-03 Making Content Comprehensible for English Learners Jana Echevarria, MaryEllen Vogt, Deborah J. Short, 2012-05 The aim of this series is to bring together important recent writings in major areas of philosophical inquiry selected from a variety of sources mostly periodicals which may not be conveniently available to the university student or the general reader The editor of each volume contributes an introductory essay on the items chosen and on the questions with which they deal A selective bibliography is appended as a guide to further reading The newest addition to the successful Oxford Readings in Philosophy series The Philosophy of Science contains the most important contributions to the recent philosophical debate on the authority of scientific theory The contributors ask whether we are justified in believing scientific theories and what attitude we should take to them if we are not Although few philosophers seriously question the existence of everyday objects like trees and tables many have real doubts about viruses electrons and gravitational waves The last two decades have seen important new work in the philosophy of science stimulated by sceptical attitudes towards scientific theories Scientific realists have in turn countered with arguments of their own resulting in a wide ranging debate drawing from many different philosophical disciplines The Philosophy of Science bridges the gap between both sides of the argument including articles on different species of realism and anti realism the underdetermination of theory by evidence the lessons of the history of science naturalized epistemology of science and Bayesian methodology Shi-shi-etko Nicola I. Campbell, 2005-07-03 Winner of the Anishinabe Aboriginal Children's Book of the Year Award Finalist for the TD Canadian Children's Literature Award the Marilyn Baillie Picture Book Award and the Ruth Schwartz Award In just four days young Shi shi etko will have to leave her family and all that she knows to attend residential school She spends her last days at home treasuring the beauty of her world the dancing sunlight the tall grass each shiny rock the tadpoles in the creek her grandfather's paddle song Her mother father and grandmother each in turn share valuable teachings that they want her to remember And so Shi shi etko carefully gathers her memories for safekeeping Richly hued illustrations complement this gently moving and poetic account of a child who finds solace all around her even though she is on the verge of great loss a loss that native people have endured for generations because of the residential schools system Teaching Student-Centered Mathematics Pearson Etext Access Code John a.
