Regions Practice And Projects Adventures In Time And Place:

A New Nation ,2000 Democracy & Education ,2006 The Nordic Wave in Place Branding Cecilia Cassinger,Andrea Lucarelli,Szilvia Gyimóthy,2019 The widespread international interest in the Nordic region and the mobility of Nordic brand imaginaries call for more research into the global relevance of Nordic place branding practices This book offers a timely attempt to unpack the specificity of the Nordic in regard to place branding by gathering different transdisciplinary accounts written by researchers in marketing tourism geography communication sociology and political science Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile,Cort J. Willmott,2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White Silver Bullets Karl Rohnke,1985 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2000 ,2000 A Survey of Reclamation: how the Great Government Adventure in Irrigation of the Arid West Came Into Being and what it Has Accomplished ,1923 Regional Worlds: Advancing the Geography of Regions Martin Jones,Anssi Paasi,2017-10-02 A key concern in the debate and empirical research on the geography of regions is the evolution of the conceptualizations and practical uses of the idea of region This idea prioritises both the intellectual and the practical development of regional studies This book drives the discussion further It stresses the complex forms of agency advocacy involved in the production and reproduction of regional spaces and space of regionalism as well as the importance of geohistory and context The book moves beyond the territorial relational divide that has characterized debates on regions and regional borders since the 1990s The contributors answer key questions from different conceptual and concrete contextual angles and to motivate readers to reflect on the perpetual significance of regional concepts and how they are mobilized by various actors to maintain or transform the contested spatialities of societal power relations This book was based on a special issue of Regional Studies The Software Encyclopedia 2000 Bowker Editorial Staff,2000-05 Imagining the Tropics Elizabeth S. Manley,Elizabeth Manley,2025-05-13 Imagining the Tropics is a history of the development of tourism in the Caribbean from the 1910s through the 1970s that focuses on the ways women s labors of hospitality writing and advocacy built the industry and its ubiquitous imagery of tropical island relaxation escape and romance By examining a range of sources engaging an array of women protagonists and looking broadly across multiple Caribbean island states including Jamaica Cuba the Bahamas Barbados the Dominican Republic Haiti Puerto Rico Trinidad and Tobago and the U S and British Virgin Islands it seeks to understand how the region came to be sold as a romantic escape from the troubles of the modern world By putting women at the center of Caribbean tourism history as both its ambassadors and objects of desire it seeks to explain some of the complicated contradictions that plague the business of pleasure but also to point toward ways of building alternative models to its present and past extractive realities

Times, Places, Passages International Society for Ethnology and Folklore. International Congress, Attila Paládi-Kovács, 2004 Times Places Passages Ethnological Approaches in the New Millennium was the theme expressed in the title of the Seventh International Congress of the Societ Internationale d'Ethnologie et de Folklore SIEF in Budapest This ethnological congress held at the beginning of the new millennium takes its inaugural role seriously What is demanded from us is that we should try to imagine what will happen to human society and that we should be prepared for the historical moment of transition We should know where we have come from where we are now and where we are going in the new era we are entering These tasks require a critical and reflective discussion of the theoretical and methodological possibilities of ethnology including the new politics of forming ethnological knowledge in a global world This book is a selection of the papers presented at the congress and contains approximately 80 articles

Alternative Health Practices for Livestock Thomas Morris, Michael Keilty, 2008-06-02 The idea that current methods of food production are not sustainable in the long term is a controversial topic This book provides information that will advance a form of livestock production that meets the long and short term goals of human food production minimizing degradation of natural resources Important concerns regarding food safety particularly antibiotic and chemical residues in meat milk and other livestock foods have stimulated renewed interest in alternative methods of promoting livestock health Alternative Health Practices for Livestock is the first compilation of its kind for veterinarians agriculture extension educators and livestock producers It provides a well referenced overview of some of the alternative livestock practices currently being examined Key Features A much needed information source on alternative health for large animals Contributions from veterinarians farmers extension educators and university professors Discusses the necessity for more validated scientific assessments of alternative and herbal therapies in livestock production Includes chapters on ways to promote alternative methods of health care for livestock including steps to obtain research funding

Research for Development in the Dry Arab Region Shadi Hamadeh, Mona Haidar, Rami Zurayk, 2006 Relates the story of ten years of knowledge and experience of a team of development researchers investigating sustainable rural livelihoods in the community of Arsaal in arid north eastern Lebanon Covers how fruit growing became a source of conflict between the growers and pastoralists the problems of poor soil conditions limited access to water and loss of biodiversity and lack of access to agricultural extension knowledge and services as well as to markets for fruit products and women s handicrafts

Europe and the Spectre of Post-Growth Society Piotr A. Świtalski, 2014-05-30 Europe has been going through its most serious crisis of values since the fall of communism In public discourse economic and social pressures have overshadowed the other dimensions of the crisis including societal values However the crisis of values would appear to be more than simply an effect of the recession Europeans have lost trust in democratic institutions at all levels European national and local Rising xenophobia and discrimination against minorities undermine the vitality of the European model of tolerance Europe is plagued by endemic corruption which costs it more than 100 billion annually triggering political instability Some believe that once Europe is back on the path of growth the crisis of values will disappear and that there will be a resurgence of faith in European integration But in the long term growth in Western societies may be impaired by serious headwinds resulting from demographic trends and rising inequalities and Europe may become the first post growth society European societies are already changing their traditional characteristics as a result of exposure to the effects of two global mega trends the empowerment of the individual and cosmopolitisation Can the European project be of relevance when addressing these challenges What role in this process can be played by the Council of Europe which is the embodiment of the idea that Europe is bigger than the European Union and the European agenda is richer than the economy and politics

OECD Rural Studies Mining Regions and Cities Case of the Pilbara, Australia OECD, 2023-10-10 The green transition presents the Pilbara with an opportunity to diversify its economy and improve well being conditions of its communities while becoming a strategic player in the global shift towards more sustainable mining This study offers guidance on how the Pilbara can shape a more inclusive and sustainable development model that supports economic diversification and prioritises improving the living conditions of its communities particularly First Nations People, Places, and Practices in the Arctic Cunera Buijs, Kim van Dam, Frédéric Laugrand, 2022-11-30 This collection follows anthropological perspectives on peoples Canadian Inuit Norwegian Sami Yupiit from Alaska and Inuit from Greenland places and practices in the Circumpolar North from colonial times to our post modern era This volume brings together fresh perspectives on theoretical concepts colonial imperial descriptions collaborative work of non Indigenous and Indigenous researchers as well as articles written by representatives of Indigenous cultures from an inside perspective The scope of the book ranges from contributions based on unpublished primary sources missionary journals and fairly unknown early Indigenous sources and publications to those based on more recent Indigenous testimonies and anthropological fieldwork museum exhibitions and self representations in the fields of fashion marketing and the arts The aim of this volume is to explore the making of representations for and or by Circumpolar North peoples The authors follow what representations have been created in the past and in some cases continue to be created in the present and the Indigenous employment of representations that has continuity with the past and also goes beyond traditional utilization By studying these representations we gain a better understanding of the dynamics of a society and its interaction with other cultures notably in the context of the dominant culture s efforts to assimilate Indigenous people and erase their story People s ideas about themselves and of the Other are never static not even if they share the same cultural background This is even more the case in the contact zone of the intercultural arena Images of the Other vary according to time and place and perceptions of others are continuously readjusted from both sides in intercultural encounters This volume has been prepared by the Research Group Circumpolar Cultures RGCC which is based in the Netherlands Its members conduct research on social and cultural change focusing on topics that are of interest to the Indigenous peoples of the Arctic The RGCC builds on a long tradition in Arctic studies in the Netherlands Nico Tinbergen Geert van den Steenhoven Gerti Nooter and Jarich Oosten and can rely on rich Arctic collections of artefacts and photographs in anthropological museums and extensive library collections The expertise of the RGCC in Arctic studies is internationally acknowledged by academics as well as circumpolar peoples 100 Group Games: Skills in Facilitating
