French Film Theory and Criticism Richard Abel,1993-09-12 These two volumes examine a significant but previously neglected moment in French cultural history the emergence of French film theory and criticism before the essays of Andr Bazin Richard Abel has devised an organizational scheme of six nearly symmetrical periods that serve to bite into the discursive flow of early French writing on the cinema Each of the periods is discussed in a separate and extensive historical introduction with convincing explications of the various concepts current at the time In each instance Abel goes on to provide a complementary anthology of selected texts in translation Amounting to a portable archive these anthologies make available a rich selection of nearly one hundred and fifty important texts most of them never before published in English Jouer

Selon Les Regles Du Jeu - Playing by the Rules of the Game - Spielen Nach Den Spielregeln Martina Ghosh-Schellhorn,2008 Games form an integral part of life and the rules that determine how they are to be played provide us with rich insights into the specific nature of cultures Comprising theoretical philosophical and legal discussions the contexts of game playing are comprehensively examined in essays which range widely through time and space In focussing on the topic of game playing this volume of essays which stems from a Transcultural symposium on the transcultural key concept of the rules of the game engages in a fresh way with the field of sports as a unique and yet shared cultural phenomenon

European Film Theory and Cinema Ian Aitken,2001 European Film Theory and Cinema explores the major film theories and movements within European cinema since the early 1900s An original and critically astute study it considers film theory within the context of the intellectual climate of the last two centuries Ian Aitkin focuses particularly on the two major traditions that dominate European film theory and cinema the intuitionist modernist and realist tradition and the post Saussurian tradition The first originates in a philosophical lineage that encompasses German idealist philosophy romanticism phenomenology and the Frankfurt School Early intuitionist modernist film culture and later theories and practices of cinematic realism are shown to be part of one continuous tradition The post Saussurian tradition includes semiotics structuralism and post structuralism La Regle du jeu V.F.
