Rehabilitation Sourcebook Dawn D. Matthews, 2000 Resource added for the Physical Therapist Assistant program 105241 What Works in Crime Prevention and Rehabilitation David Weisburd, David P. Farrington, Charlotte Gill, 2016-04-14 This ambitious volume brings together and assesses all major systematic reviews of the effectiveness of criminological interventions to draw broad conclusions about what works in policing corrections developmental prevention situational prevention drug abuse treatments sentencing and deterrence and communities Systematic reviews aim to minimize any possible bias in drawing conclusions by stating explicit criteria for inclusion and exclusion of studies by conducting extensive and wide ranging searches for possibly eligible studies and by making all stages of the review explicit and transparent so that the methods can be checked and replicated Over a decade ago a concerted effort was made by members of the criminology community including the Editors and contributors of this volume to bring the practice of systematic reviews to the study of Criminology providing replicable evidence based data to answer key questions about the study of crime causation detection and prevention Now the pioneers in this effort present a comprehensive stock taking of what has been learned in the past decade of systematic reviews in criminology Much has been discovered about the effectiveness of for example boot camps hot spots policing closed circuit television surveillance neighborhood watch anti bullying programs in schools early parenting programs drug treatment programs and other key topics This volume will be of interest to researchers in criminology and criminal justice as well as in related fields such as public health and forensic science with important implications for policy makers and practitioners Decisively showing that the nothing works era is over this volume takes stock of what we know and still need to know to prevent crime I plan to keep this book close at hand and to use it often Francis T Cullen Distinguished Research Professor Emeritus University of Cincinnati At a time when there is a broad commitment to bringing science to the front lines of practice this book should be on the reading list of both policymakers and scholars Laurie O Robinson Clarence J Robinson Professor of Criminology Law Society George Mason University and former Assistant Attorney General of the U S Department of Justice Handbook of Psychosocial Rehabilitation Robert King, Chris Lloyd, Tom Meehan, 2007-03-12 The Handbook of Psychosocial Rehabilitation is designed as a clinical handbook for practitioners in the field of mental health It recognises the wide ranging impact of mental illness and its ramifications on daily life The book promotes a recovery model of psychosocial rehabilitation and aims to empower clinicians to engage their clients in tailored rehabilitation plans The authors distil relevant evidence from the literature but the focus is on the clinical setting Coverage includes the service environment assessment maintaining recovery focussed therapeutic relationships the role of pharmacotherapy intensive case management and vocational rehabilitation

Sourcebook of Occupational Rehabilitation Phyllis M. King, 2013-11-11 Experts from academia clinical settings and the business world pool their knowledge about work injury prevention and management in the new Sourcebook of Occupational Rehabilitation The 22 contributions in this wide ranging reference address aspects of the three primary areas of service delivery prevention assessment and rehabilitation The text takes a multidisciplinary viewpoint toward its subject in order to shed light on the mechanisms and management of work related disorders It boasts a wealth of current and in depth information and takes a practical applications approach to rehabilitation

Drug Courts James E. Lessenger, Glade F. Roper, 2008-07-17 I've done them all and I'm not talking about stage screen and television I stopped taking drugs in the 1970s and stopped smoking in the 1980s I ceased drinking in the 1990s when I needed a liver transplant and my doctors told me they wouldn't do it if I continued drinking So I stopped got the transplant and became a friend of Bill W Stopping was the best thing I ever did second to marrying Maj My substance abuse started like most people's in high school through peer pressure It progressed while I was on the stage and in the Air Force where alcohol was the drug of choice The problem continued as I worked in motion pictures where the day ended with drinks When I finally made it big in television I was drinking a case of champagne a day I tell myself that I did this because of my insecurities about being at the top but it also tasted good Looking back and having read some of the things in this book I realize that I have the addictive personality and the genetic predisposition to be a substance abuser All that was necessary was a situation in which I was near drugs and had peer pressure to get me going

Sourcebook of Rehabilitation and Mental Health Practice David P. Moxley, John R. Finch, 2006-04-11 We live in a day and age in which many fields come together to define new ones and out of these newly defined areas come innovative practices and emergent ways of thinking The Sourcebook on Rehabilitation and Mental Health Practice documents one of these new fields one formed by the coalescence of rehabilitative and mental health services and employment Only recently have human service practitioners policy makers and administrators recognized that there is a growing synergy among these areas once separated by great gulfs of differences in culture perspectives and values and technologies It is not happenstance that rehabilitation mental health and employment are becoming increasingly integrated in contemporary human services There is considerable interest in work in contemporary society although different values and perspectives mediate this interest For people with disabilities an interest in work often comes from deep frustration from not having ready access to work and from not having enough of it to facilitate an acceptable quality of life or independent living Some people find work to be a source of problems that negatively affects their functioning They find the workplace stressful and unsupportive or they feel that work exacts too much from them reducing their quality of life and setting into motion numerous negative personal effects Beck 2000 Juvenile Justice Sourcebook Wesley T Church, II, David Springer, Albert R Roberts, 2014-02-28 Several million reported and unreported delinquent acts take place each year In fact according to the U S Department of Justice and the U S Bureau of Justice Statistics juvenile delinquency acting out and oppositional behavior illegal drugs guns and youth violence are pervasive throughout American society Juvenile Justice Sourcebook is the first comprehensive volume devoted exclusively to the biopsychosocial assessment police and juvenile court processing and institutional and community based treatment and rehabilitation of juvenile offenders The overriding objective of this sourcebook is to trace the tremendous progress achieved toward resolving juvenile justice issues dilemmas and controversies while providing futuristic visions for the juvenile justice field Each chapter authored by preeminent expert practitioners and researchers explores topics ranging from innovative counseling and multisystemic programs to restorative justice to rehabilitation programs such as aggression replacement training wilderness programs family treatment substance abuse treatment restitution and aftercare This volume grounded in history and exhaustive research presents the latest evidence based policies programs and innovative treatment alternatives Examining the entire juvenile justice system including juvenile law policies practices and research the Juvenile Justice Sourcebook will be invaluable to all juvenile justice practitioners policy analysts researchers and students Consumer Sourcebook ,2005 Sourcebook on the Mentally Disordered Prisoner ,1985 Involuntary Resettlement Sourcebook ,2004 Involuntary Resettlement Sourcebook Planning and Implementation in Development Projects clarifies many policy and technical issues that confront resettlement policymakers and practitioners It provides guidance on resettlement design implementation and monitoring and it discusses resettlement issues particular to development projects in different sectors such as urban development natural resource management and the building of dams The sourcebook will be useful to a wide range of stakeholders Its primary audience is resettlement practitioners who have a role in the actual design implementation and evaluation of resettlement programs The sourcebook will also be of interest to policymakers and project decision makers Closed Head Injury: A Clinical Source Book 3rd Edition , Mild to moderate to severe closed head injuries result from accidents that force the soft tissue of the brain into contact with the hard bony skull Long term effects and poor prognosis turn these injuries into major often life long problems Until recently physicians did not or could not diagnose many of them and lawyers found them too difficult to prove Closed Head Injury A Clinical Source Book helps the practitioner understand how emerging diagnoses of previously ignored brain trauma can be a new source of compensation to injured parties The author a noted expert on the subject clearly explains the nature of the injury how to identify it and the information you need to prove it Closed Head Injury A Clinical Source Book leads the trial attorney into new territories for litigation with up to date analysis and instruction on successful trial strategies Written by leading neurologist Peter Bernad and his team this volume provides a detailed and practical guide for litigating
