Reiner Ruthenbeck:

Reiner Ruthenbeck. Objects, drawings, 1984 Reiner Ruthenbeck Amira Gad, 2014 Ready to Shoot Beatrice von Bismarck, Fernsehgalerie Gerry Schum, 2004 Absence and Difficult Knowledge in Contemporary Art Museums Margaret Tali, 2017-12-22 This book analyzes practices of collecting in European art museums from 1989 to the present arguing that museums actualize absence both consciously and unconsciously while misrepresentation is an outcome of the absent perspectives and voices of minority community members which are rarely considered in relation to contemporary art Difficult knowledge is proposed as a way of dealing with absence productively Drawing on social art history museology postcolonial theory and memory studies Margaret Tali analyzes the collections of four modern and contemporary art museums across Europe the Hamburger Bahnhof in Berlin the Ludwig Museum of Contemporary Art in Budapest the Kiasma Museum in Helsinki and the Kumu Museum in Tallinn Curatorial Challenges Malene Vest Hansen, Anne Folke Henningsen, Anne Gregersen, 2019-03-04 Curatorial Challenges investigates the challenges faced by curators in contemporary society and explores which practices ways of thinking and types of knowledge production curating exhibitions could challenge Bringing together international curators and researchers from the fields of art and cultural history the book provides new research and perspectives on the curatorial process and aims to bridge the traditional gap between theoretical and academic museum studies and museum practices The book focuses on exhibitions as a primary site of cultural exchange and argues that as highly visible showcases producers of knowledge and historically embedded events exhibitions establish and organize meanings of art and cultural heritage Temporary exhibitions continue to increase in cultural significance and yet the traditional role of the museum as a Bildung institution has changed As exhibitions gain in significance so too do curatorial strategies Arguing that new research is needed to help understand these changes the book presents original research that explores how curatorial strategies inform both art and cultural history museums in contemporary society The book also investigates what sort of critical transformative and perhaps even conservative potential can be traced in exhibition cultures Curatorial Challenges fosters innovative interdisciplinary exchange and brings new insights to the field of curatorial studies As such it should be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of curatorial practice museum studies the making of exhibitions museum communication and art history Earthworks Suzaan Boettger, 2002 A comprehensive history of the Earthworks movement provides an in depth analysis of the forms that initiated Land Art profiling top contributors and achievements within a context of the social and political climate of the 1960s and noting the form's relationship to ecological movements Fine Arts Exhibiting Italian Art in the United States from Futurism to Arte Povera Raffaele Bedarida, 2022-06-28 This volume explores how Italian institutions dealers critics and artists constructed a modern national identity for Italy by exporting literally and figuratively contemporary art to the United States in key moments between 1929 and 1969 From artist Fortunato Depero opening his Futurist House in New York City to critic Germano Celant launching Arte Povera in the United States Raffaele Bedarida examines the thick web of individuals and cultural environments beyond the two more canonical movements that shaped this project By interrogating standard narratives of Italian Fascist propaganda on the one hand and American Cold War imperialism on the other this book establishes a more nuanced transnational approach The central thesis is that beyond the immediate aims of political propaganda and conquering a new market for Italian art these art exhibitions publications and the critical discourse aimed at American audiences all reflected back on their makers they forced and helped Italians define their own modernity in relation to the world's new dominant cultural and economic power The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history social history exhibition history and Italian studies

Scottish Art since 1960 Craig Richardson, 2017-07-05 Craig Richardson here addresses key areas of cultural politics and identity in a way that not only illuminates the development of Scottish art but teases out another strand of the plurality of developments which led to the success of artists throughout the UK in the 1990s It is of the highest relevance whether one's perspective is that of the development of the Scottish art British art or European art of this period The book adds significantly to our knowledge of the art of this period in a way that will aid not only our historical understanding but our understanding of the dynamics of art practice today Providing an analysis and including discussion interviewing artists curators and critics and accessing non catalogued personal archives towards a new chronology Richardson here examines and proposes a sequence of precisely denoted exemplary works which outlines a self-conscious definition of the interrogative term Scottish art Among the artists whose work is discussed are John Latham Simon Starling Alan Johnston Roderick Buchanan Glen Onwin Christine Borland William Johnstone Joan Eardley Alexander Moffat Douglas Gordon Alan Smith Graeme Fagen Ross Sinclair and many others The discussion culminates in a critically original demonstration of the scope for further research and practice within the subject facilitating national cultural debate on the character of Scottish national visual art

Six Years Lucy R. Lippard, 2023-07-28 In Six Years Lucy R Lippard documents the chaotic network of ideas that has been labeled conceptual art The book is arranged as an annotated chronology into which is woven a rich collection of original documents including texts by and taped discussions among and with the artists involved and by Lippard who has also provided a new preface for this edition The result is a book with the character of a lively contemporary forum that offers an invaluable record of the thinking of the artists a historical survey and essential reference book for the period

Pattern Design Lou Andrea Savoir, 2007-11-01 The lack of a specific contemporary guide to pattern design called for the publication of this volume It brings together a wide variety of pattern designs and their variations and maps the spectrum of their possible applications such as wallpaper furniture interior design clothes and more Featuring work from outstanding pattern designers from around the world this book celebrates all aspects of pattern design The text includes detailed insight from the designers and artists featured making this book an in depth and influential reference for designers and artists working in all mediums CD with samples allows readers to experiment Contemporary patterns Not simply a compendium but a combination of each pattern with its real applications Patterns from all over the world including a wide range of examples such as wallpaper furniture interior design clothes and more Art of the Deal Noah Horowitz, 2014-08-31 An eye opening look at collecting and investing in today's art market Art today is defined by its relationship to money as never before Prices have been driven to unprecedented heights conventional boundaries within the art world have collapsed and artists think ever more strategically about how to advance their careers Art is no longer simply made but packaged sold and branded In Art of the Deal Noah Horowitz exposes the inner workings of the contemporary art market explaining how this unique economy came to be how it works and where it's headed In a new postscript Horowitz reflects on the market's continued ascent as well as its most urgent challenges Video Art Historicized Malin Hedlin Hayden, 2016-03-03 Video art emerged as an art form that from the 1960s and onwards challenged the concept of art hence art historical practices From the perspective of artists critics and scholars engaged with this new medium art was seen as too limiting a notion Important issues were to re think art as a means for critical investigations and a demand for visual reconsiderations Likewise art history was argued to be in crisis and in need of adapting its theories and methods in order to produce interpretations and thereby establish historical sense for moving images as fine art Yet as this book argues video art history has evolved into a discourse clinging to traditional concepts ideologies and narrative structures manifested in an increasing body of texts Video Art Historicized provides a novel insightful and also challenging re interpretation of this field by examining the discourse and its own premises It takes a firm conceptual approach to the material examining the conceptual theoretical and methodological implications that are simultaneously contested by both artists and authors yet intertwined in both the legitimizing and the historicizing processes of video as art By engaging art history's most debated concepts canon art and history this study provides an in depth investigation of the mechanisms of the historiography of video art Scrutinizing various narratives on video art the book emphasizes the profound and widespread hesitations towards but also the efforts to negotiate traditional concepts and practices By focusing on the politics of this discourse theoretical issues of gender nationality and particular themes in video art Malin Hedlin Hayden contests the presumptions that inform video art and its history Performative monuments Mechtild Widrich, 2024-07-30 This book answers one of the most puzzling questions in contemporary art how did performance artists of the 60s and 70s famous for their opposition both to lasting art and the political establishment become the foremost monument builders of the 80s 90s and today Not by selling out nor by making self undermining monuments This book argues that the centrality of performance to monuments and indeed public art in general rests not on its ephemerality or anti authoritarian rhetoric but on its power to build interpersonal bonds both personal and social Specifically the survival of body art in photographs that cross time and space to meet new audiences makes it literally into a monument The argument of the book spans art in Austria the former Yugoslavia and Germany Valie Export Peter Weibel and the Viennese Actionists working in Austria and abroad Marina Abramovic Sanja Ivekovic and Braco

Dimitrijevic working in Yugoslavia and abroad and Joseph Beuys and Jochen Gerz working in Germany and abroad These artists began by critiquing monumentality in authoritarian public space and expanded the models developed on the streets of Vienna Munich Rome Belgrade and Zagreb to participatory monuments that delegate political authority to the audience Readers interested in contemporary art politics photography and performance will find in this book new facts and arguments for their interconnection
