Pasternack, Gary L. Neilson, 2005-10-18 Every company has a personality Does yours help or hinder your results Does it make you fit for growth Find out by taking the quiz that's helped 50 000 people better understand their organizations at OrgDNA.com and to learn more about Organizational DNA. Just as you can understand an individual's personality, so too can you understand a company's type, what makes it tick, what's good and bad about it. Results explains why some organizations bob and weave and roll with the punches to consistently deliver on commitments and produce great results while others can't leave their corner of the ring without tripping on their own shoelaces. Gary Neilson and Bruce Pasternack help you identify which of the seven company types you work for and how to keep what's good and fix what's wrong. You'll feel the shock of recognition. That's me, that's my company, as you find out whether your organization is Passive Aggressive, everyone agrees, smiles and nods, but nothing changes; entrenched underground resistance makes getting anything done like trying to nail Jell-O to the wall; Fits and Starts, let 1,000 flowers bloom, filled with smart people pulling in different directions; Outgrown the good old days, meet a brave new world; reacts slowly to market developments since it's too hard to run new ideas up the flagpole; Overmanaged, we're from corporate and we're here to help more reporting than working; as managers check on their subordinates' work so they can in turn report to their bosses; Just in Time, succeeding but by the skin of our teeth; can turn on a dime and create real breakthroughs but also tends to burn out its best and brightest; Military Precision, flying in formation, executes brilliant strategies but usually does not deal well with events not in the playbook; Resilient, as good as it gets, flexible, forward looking, and fun, bounces back when it hits a bump in the road and never ever rests on its laurels. For anyone who's ever said, "Wow, that's a great idea, but it'll never happen here," or "Whew, we pulled it off again, but I'm tired of all this sprinting," Results provides robust practical ideas for becoming and remaining a resilient business. Also available as an eBook. From the Hardcover edition.

Evaluating Public Relations Tom Watson, Paul Noble, 2005. Global surveys have identified that evaluation is the current major professional research issue. Clients of PR firms are seeking greater evidence of the impact of campaigns and programmes, which in turn is leading to a greater demand for information on evaluation methods. Evaluating Public Relations comprises nine chapters which start with theoretical perspectives and then demonstrate the design and implementation of a range of PR research and evaluation methods. It is illustrated by award-winning case studies from around the world and concludes with consideration of future developments. Most chapters are supplemented by interviews with leading PR practitioners and responses to a survey of leading practitioners around the world.

The Fourth Industrial Revolution Klaus Schwab, 2017-01-03. The founder and executive chairman of the World Economic Forum on how the impending technological revolution will change our lives. We are on the brink of the Fourth Industrial Revolution. And this one will be unlike any other in human history. Characterized by new technologies fusing the physical, digital, and biological worlds, the Fourth Industrial Revolution will impact all disciplines, economies, and industries, and it will do so at an unprecedented rate. World Economic Forum data predicts that by 2025 we will see commercial use of nanomaterials 200 times stronger than steel and a million times thinner than human hair; the first transplant of a 3D printed liver; 10% of all cars on US roads being driverless; and much more besides. In The Fourth Industrial
