Reinventing Olivia:

Venus in the Afternoon Tehila Lieberman, 2012 Winner of the Katherine Anne Porter Prize in Short Fiction 2012 The short stories in this rich debut collection embody in their complexity Alice Munro's description of the short story as a world seen in a quick glancing light In chiseled and elegant prose Lieberman conjures wildly disparate worlds A middle aged window washer mourning his wife and an estranged daughter begins to grow attached to a young woman he sees through the glass a writer against his better judgment pursues a new relationship with a femme fatale who years ago broke his heart and the daughter of a Holocaust survivor struggles with the delicate decision of whether to finally ask her aging mother how it was that she survived It is all here the exigencies of love of lust the raw unlit terrain of grief Whether plumbing the darker depths or casting a humorous eye on a doomed relationship these stories never force a choice between tragedy and redemption but rather invite us into the private moments and crucibles of lives as hungry and flawed as our own
