Writing and Identity Roz Ivani?, 1998 Writing is not just about conveying content but also about the representation of self One of the reasons people find writing difficult is that they do not feel comfortable with the me they are portraying in their writing Academic writing in particular often poses a conflict of identity for students in higher education because the self which is inscribed in academic discourse feels alien to them The main claim of this book is that writing is an act of identity in which people align themselves with socio culturally shaped subject positions and thereby play their part in reproducing or challenging dominant practices and discourses and the values beliefs and interests which they embody The first part of the book reviews recent understandings of social identity of the discursive construction of identity of literacy and identity and of issues of identity in research on academic writing The main part of the book is based on a collaborative research project about writing and identity with mature age students providing a case study of one writer's dilemmas over the presentation of self a discussion of the way in which writers' life histories shape their presentation of self in writing an interview based study of issues of ownership and of accommodation and resistance to conventions for the presentation of self linguistic analysis of the ways in which multiple often contradictory interests values beliefs and practices are inscribed in discourse conventions which set up a range of possibilities for selfhood for writers The book ends with implications of the study for research on writing and identity and for the learning and teaching of academic writing The book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of social identity literacy discourse analysis rhetoric and composition studies and to all those concerned to understand what is involved in academic writing in order to provide wider access to higher education

Relatively Norma Anna Livia, 1982 A London lesbian visits and comes out to an idiosyncratic assortment of relatives in Australia

The Angel and the Perverts Lucie Delarue-Mardrus, 1995-07-01 Set in the lesbian and gay circles of Paris in the 1920s The Angel and the Perverts tells the story of a hermaphrodite born to upper class parents in Normandy and ignorant of his/her physical difference. As an adult, s/he lives a double life as Marion Mario, passing undetected as a lesbian in the literary salons of the times and as a gay man in the cocaine dens made famous by Colette. Delarue Mardrus's novel belongs to a category of literature written between the turn of the century and approximately 1930 which depicted lesbians as members of a third sex. The hermaphrodite became the visual representation of the ways in which lesbians were different from their heterosexual sisters and Rene Vivien, Natalie Clifford Barney, Rachilde and Colette among others shared Delarue Mardrus's fascination with the topic. This is the first translation into English of The Angel and the Perverts. In an astute introduction, Anna Livia rereads Lucie Delarue Mardrus as a prolific and significant writer despite the fact that previous scholars viewed her primarily as the wife of the scholar and translator Joseph Charles Mardrus. Livia also places Delarue Mardrus's life in a lesbian context for the first time and decodes this delightful novel so that readers will feel quite at home in Mario Marion's unusual world which runs the gamut from Auguste Rodin to Jean Cocteau and Sarah Bernhardt.

The Secret Life of Marilyn Monroe J. Randy Taraborrelli, 2009-08-25 From New York Times bestselling author J. Randy Taraborrelli comes the definitive biography of the most enduring icon in popular American culture. When Marilyn Monroe became famous in the 1950s, the world was told that her mother was either dead or simply not a part of her life. However, that was not true. In fact, her mentally ill mother was very much present in Marilyn's world and the complex family dynamic that unfolded behind the scenes is a story that has never before been told until now. In this groundbreaking book, Taraborrelli draws complex and sympathetic portraits of the women so influential in the actress' life, including her mother, her foster mother, and her legal guardian. He also reveals for the first time the shocking scope of Marilyn's own mental illness, the identity of Marilyn's father and the half brother she never knew, and new information about her relationship with the Kennedy's Bobby Jack and Pat Kennedy Lawford. Explosive, revelatory, and surprisingly moving, this is the final word on the life of one of the most fascinating and elusive icons of the 20th Century.

Telling Moments Lynda Hall, 2003-11-15 Telling Moments collects contemporary short stories by a diverse group of twenty-four lesbian writers. Engaging themes of life and death, aging, motherhood, race, love, work, and travel, the writers offer brief glimpses into lesbian lives. The stories are by well-known contemporary writers: Gloria Anzaldá, Mary Cappello, Emma Donoghue, Jewelle Gomez, Karla Jay, Anna Livia, Valerie Miner, Lesléa Newman, Minnie Bruce Pratt, Ruthann Robson, Sarah Schulman, and Jess Wells, and exciting newer voices such as Donna Allegra and Marion Douglas. There are also stories from performance artists: Carmelita Tropicana, Peggy Shaw, and Maya Chowdhry. Anna Livia's protagonist appreciates her mother's artful garden creation; Ruthann Robson tells of a survivor of the health care system; in Marion Douglas's story, a teenager dances with an alluring classmate; Donna Allegra's strong construction worker copes with the death of her mother; and Karla Jay sets her character forth to swim with sharks. Most of the stories are accompanied by an author photo, biographical sketch, and a most significant feature: a commentary from the author on her writing process and the autobiographical nature of her story illustrating the truth behind the fiction Media and Politics in New Democracies Jan Zielonka, 2015-10-08 This book analyses the relationship between the media and politics in new democracies in Europe and other parts of the world It does so from both theoretical and empirical angles How is power being mediated in new democracies Can media function independently in the unstable and polarised political environment experienced after the fall of autocracy Do major shifts in economic and ownership structures help or hinder the quality of the media How much can new media laws alter old journalistic habits and political cultures And how do new technologies impact the media and democracy The book examines these questions drawing on a vast set of data assembled by a large international project Media and Politics in New Democracies focuses chiefly on new democracies in Central and Eastern Europe but chapters analysing new democracies in Latin America Africa and Southeast Asia are also included These new democracies represent a variety of what sociologists call glocalism homogenisation and heterogenisation coexist revealing hybrid models and multiple modernities It is local culture that assigns meaning to global and regional influences Ideal liberal models and best practices are being promoted and aspired to but these models and practices are often being adopted in opaque ways generating results opposite to those intended The book finds many new democracies to be fragile if not deficient and tries to show what is really going on in these countries how they compare to each other and what they can learn from each other The Oxford Handbook of Reasons and Normativity Daniel Star, 2018-05-31 The Oxford Handbook of Reasons and Normativity maps a central terrain of philosophy and provides an authoritative guide to it Few concepts have received as much attention in recent philosophy as the concept of a reason to do or believe something And one of the most contested ideas in philosophy is normativity the ought in claims that we ought to do or believe something This is the first volume to provide broad coverage of the study of reasons and normativity across multiple philosophical subfields In addition to focusing on reasons in ethics epistemology and the philosophy of mind action and language the Handbook explores philosophical work on the nature of normativity in general Topics covered include the unity of normativity the fundamentality of reasons attempts to explain reasons in other terms the relation of motivational reasons to normative reasons the internalist constraint the logic and language of reasons and ought connections between reasons intentions choices and actions connections between reasons reasoning and rationality connections between reasons knowledge understanding and evidence reasons encountered in perception and testimony moral principles prudence and reasons agent relative reasons epistemic challenges to our access to reasons normativity in relation to meaning concepts and intentionality instrumental reasons pragmatic reasons for belief aesthetic reasons and reasons for emotions The Routledge Handbook of Critical Discourse Studies John Flowerdew, John E. Richardson, 2017-07-06 The Routledge Handbook of Critical Discourse Studies provides a state of the art overview of the important and rapidly developing field of Critical Discourse Studies CDS Forty one chapters from leading international scholars cover the central theories concepts contexts and applications of CDS and how they have developed encompassing approaches analytical methods interdisciplinarity social divisions and power domains and media Including methodologies to assist those undertaking their own critical research of discourse this Handbook is key reading for all those engaged in the study and research of Critical Discourse Analysis within English Language and Linguistics Communication Media Studies and related areas

Intercultural Pragmatics Istvan Kecskes,2014 In Intercultural Pragmatics the first book on the subject Istvan Kecskes establishes the foundations of the field boldly combining the pragmatic view of cooperation with the cognitive view of egocentrism in order to incorporate emerging features of communication

Lesbian Sources Linda Garber,2018-10-24 This is the final volume of nine in a series on Gay and Lesbian studies Originally published in 1993 Lesbian Sources is a cross referenced bibliography of articles written by and or about lesbians and published in nationally or internationally distributed periodicals between 1970 and 1990

Handbook of Child and Adolescent Aggression Tina Malti,Kenneth H. Rubin,2018-08-31 Presenting cutting edge work from leading scholars this authoritative handbook reviews the breadth of current knowledge on aggression from infancy through adolescence The volume explores the forms and functions of aggression and the multiple factors that contribute to its emergence development and consequences including genetic and biological influences temperament family dynamics peer relations and social inequality It provides up to date perspectives on problems such as disruptive and defiant behaviors bullying including cyberbullying social aggression and youth violence and examines relations between aggression and normative social emotional and social cognitive development It also discusses the opposite end of the spectrum including kindness and prosocial behaviors Identifying important implications for practice and policy contributors describe effective approaches to screening assessment and intervention in family school community and clinical settings

The Parent App Lynn Schofield Clark,2013 New technologies offer new ways for families to connect access ideas and entertainment and manage the risks faced by children and teens but they also bring more responsibilities choices and challenges Clark argues that families experience digital and mobile technologies in their children s lives especially during the preteen and teen years quite differently depending on whether they are middle class or less advantaged Based on over ten years of interviews hundres of parents and children The Parent App explores these differences and provides the kind of guidance backed by thorough research that parents today desperately need

Morality, Normativity, and Society David Copp,2001-05-24 Moral claims not only assume to be true but they also guide our choices This fascinating book presents a new theory of normative judgment the standard based theory which offers a schematic account of the truth conditions of normative propositions of all kinds including moral propositions and propositions about reasons Here David Copp argues that because any society needs a social moral code in order to enable its members to live together successfully and because it would be rational for a society to choose such a system certain moral codes and the standards they include are justified In this work Copp raises a number of important issues in moral theory as well as in metaphysics and the philosophy of language Annals of Eugenics ,1928
