Doing Faithjustice Fred Kammer, 2004 In this revised edition of a longtime bestseller lawyer activist and Jesuit priest Fred Kammer ushers Catholics into the twenty first century as he confronts the challenge of human poverty and injustice in the context of our consumer driven economically fragile world He defines faithjustice as a passionate virtue which disposes citizens to become involved in the greater and lesser societies around themselves in order to create communities where human dignity is protected and enhanced and gifts of creation are shared for the greatest good of all Writing with passion and conviction he explores the biblical grounding for this virtue and provides an overview of its historical development in the Catholic community And he brings out its contemporary meaning rooting each chapter in concrete times and places He concludes with a framework for living faithjustice in our time This revised edition contains new materials on social teaching documents of the nineties updated economic and social data and analysis and at the request of users of the original volume questions for reflection and renewal at the ends chapters Highlights Now more user friendly Author is highly respected in this field A Decade After Economic Justice for All National Conference of Catholic Bishops, 1995-11 Faith and Foreign Policy Stephen R. Rock, 2011-04-21 The work examines how the attitudes and preferences of various Christian groups in the United States can influence U S foreign policy with specific examples The Globalization Reader Frank J. Lechner, John Boli, 2014-12-15 Completely revised and updated the fifth edition of this well regarded textbook charts key topics and recent research in globalization along with the latest complexities and controversies in the field Includes a new section on globalization and identity and new readings on global inequality mental illness structural violence microfinance blood diamonds world citizenship the global justice movement and sumo wrestling Contains essential thought provoking readings by prominent scholars activists and organizations on the many dimensions of globalization from political and economic issues to cultural and experiential ones Examines foundational topics such as the experience of globalization economic and political globalization the role of media and religion in cultural globalization women s rights environmentalism global civil society and the alternative globalization movement Retains the helpful student features from prior editions including an accessible format concise introductions to major topics stimulating examples and discussion questions for each selection and section

Doing Faithjustice Kammer, Fred, SJ, The author defines faithjustice as a passionate virtue which disposes citizens to become involved in the greater and lesser societies around themselves in order to create communities where human dignity is protected and enhanced the gifts of creation are shared for the common good and the poor are treated with respect and a special love He says it is in the end a habit of the believing heart Against the backdrop of the author s explicit experiences as a southerner lawyer priest and Jesuit this book expounds on the meaning of faithjustice starting with the biblical grounding It then traverses the full breadth of historical developments in the Catholic Christian community for more than 200 years and elucidates the meaning of faithjustice in our contemporary context Underlining all this is the author s conviction that only people who are living out faithjustice commitments can promote the truth about the necessity of solidarity and counter the pernicious mistrust that creates division in society This updated edition includes new materials on creation and the jubilee tradition and on the parables of Jesus the writings of Popes Benedict XVI and Francis and other social teaching documents from the past twenty years and updated economic racial and social data and analysis in light of the justice tradition

Religion in Global Civil Society Mark Juergensmeyer, 2005-11-03 The extraordinary changes in world society at the beginning of the 21st century have involved religion to a degree that would have amazed earlier observers of modernity Within the past decade religion has been associated with some of the world s most strident forms of political encounter including new movements of nationalism the clerical leadership of political sects and the religiously motivated acts of terrorism Religion seems to be trying to tear the planet apart even as other cultural forces seem to be trying to pull it together The technology of the Internet film television cell phones and other forms of rapid universal communication seem to be knitting the world into a single social fabric Consumer franchises and popular culture seem to be making the world a single global city Religion seems to be at odds with all of this Is religion the natural enemy of globalization The essays in this volume explore the difficulties and possibilities of a diversity of religious groups occupying the same civil society The authors avoid simplistic generalizations Religion they show is not only identified with the culture and politics of the hostile anti urban village it is not simply the jihad that Benjamin Barber identified as the opponent of the homogenous global culture of McWorld True some religious activists have blown things up But others have tried to smooth things over Even the religious opposition to globalization is nuanced Some violent activists like Hindu extremists in India want a new religious state Others like Christian militias or al Qaeda envision a transnational religious entity a kind of religious globalization to supplant the secular one Prophetic religious voices call for moderation justice and environmental protection Religion these essays demonstrate plays diverse and sometimes contradictory roles in the new cultural globalization In a global culture the shared values of different religious traditions can provide a collective sense of virtuous conduct in public life But religion can also support the position of enemies of global society those who see in globalization the effort to impose the values and power of one country over the others

Champions of the Poor Barend A. DeVries, 1998-03-01 Barend A de Vries a distinguished international economist examines the economic roots of poverty the actions that can be taken to eradicate it and the ethical case for integrating the poor into the mainstream of society De Vries applies Judeo Christian ethics in particular the values of social justice and compassion for the poor to the problem of poverty in both the United States and in developing countries Bringing together the insights of economists and ethicists he considers both the economic feasibility of religious views regarding the eradication of poverty and the ethical aspects of economic programs He analyzes the poverty of women resulting from discrimination the impact of environmental degradation on the poor the allocation of funding to military rather than social programs and the implications of the enormous debts incurred by poor countries In addressing these conditions he demonstrates the pressing need for action on both economic and ethical grounds Champions of the Poor offers an unbiased presentation of the ethical positions taken by Jews Catholics mainline Protestants and Evangelicals and stresses the need for all social sectors religious and secular business labor and government to work together to eradicate poverty By reassessing poverty from these seemingly disparate approaches it seeks to bring us closer to solving this age old problem

Anabaptist/Mennonite Faith and Economics Calvin Wall Redekop, Victor A. Krahn, Samuel J. Steiner, 1994 The continuing conflict between the Anabaptist Mennonite community and the expanding industrial culture of the modern world has not been investigated This book addresses the issues which fuel that conflict focusing on the implications of subordinating an economic system to the theological framework of a Christian society Contributors Gregory Baum Lawrence J Burkholder Leo Driedger Kevin Enns Rempel Norm Ewert Jim Halteman Leland Harder Al Hecht Jim Lichti Jacob A Leowen John Peters Cal Redekop Walter Regehr T D Regehr Jean Seguy Robert Siemens Arnold Snyder Willis Sommer Mary Sprunger and Laura Weaver Co published with the Institute of Anabaptist and Mennonite Studies Called to Global Solidarity Uscsb, 1998-03 Resource manual designed for parishes and other organizations that seek to live out the Holy Father s call to solidarity with our brothers and sisters throughout the world A Jubilee Call for Debt Forgiveness , 1999

General Synod, 1990 Vol 1 a translation includes the period from 1771 1812 preceded by the Minutes of the C tus 1738 1754 and the Proceedings of the Conferentie 1755 1767 and followed by the Minutes of the original particular synod 1794 1799 A West African Model to Address Human Trafficking Paul V.I. Sidlawinde Karenga, 2022-02-02 This book describes the nature of trafficking in persons in West Africa focusing on labor and sexual exploitation in the region and recommends tailor made solutions established by the Catholic Church in light of governmental authorities failure to effectively combat this scourge of humanity While states efforts to fulfill their international obligations in developing anti trafficking legislations are recognized their failure to carry out prosecutions of offenders and ensure protection of the victims reveals that law alone is not a sufficient instrument for realizing human rights and improving people s lives Faced with the sobering background of less than successful efforts by governmental entities to end the trade in humans this research study recommends adopting essential elements of Catholic social teaching which rests on the inherent dignity of human beings allowing the development of political socio cultural and religious reforms that will increase the effectiveness of existing legislation designed to combat trafficking This faith based approach highlights the role that religion may play in fulfilling the discretionary provisions of the Palermo Protocol by promoting the welfare and protecting the life and dignity of the victims Additionally religion is composed of sound moral ethics that determine people s behavior to refrain from the sinful conduct of trafficking It also creates a sense of ethical responsibility that promotes supply chain transparency and ethical purchasing as well as advocating social reforms and anti trafficking legislations initiatives In fact the author s approach may be a model for other regions in the world and will be of interest to scholars law and policy makers human rights advocates and law enforcement agents working in the field of trafficking in persons

Seattle University Law Review ,1999 Developing World 1999-2000 Robert J. Griffiths,1999 Catholic Social Thought and the New World Order Oliver F. Williams,1993

From its earliest origins the Catholic church has tried to influence society and society has to varying degrees shaped the church Recently with the demise of the Marxist alternative to capitalism Catholic social teaching has assumed the role of the major international force challenging free enterprise to be more humane What does the church have to say about the world s current situation and the possibility of a new world order and how has this message evolved over the past 100 years The 20 essays in Catholic Social Thought and the New World Order reflect on the development and evolution of Catholic social teaching and analyse its practical applications for the contemporary world Readings on Catholics in Political Life ,2006

Readings on Catholics in Political Life is a collection of excerpts from various papal Vatican and bishops documents Each excerpt touches on a different aspect of the role that Catholics play in pursuing the mission of the Church in the world
