Religion And Peacebuilding:

The Role of Religion in Peacebuilding Pauline Kollontai, Sue Yore, Sebastian Kim, 2017-12-14 The question who is my neighbour challenges the way we see ourselves as well as the way we see others Especially in situations where we feel conflicted between our own self identity and common identity within a wider society Historically religion has contributed to this inner conflict by creating us versus them mentalities Challenging this traditional view this volume examines how religions and religious communities can use their resources methodology and praxis to encourage peace making The book is divided into two parts the first includes sources theories and methodologies of crossing boundaries of prejudice and distrust from the perspectives of theology and religious studies The second includes case studies of theory and practice to challenge prejudice and distrust in a conflict or post conflict situation The chapters are written by scholars religious leaders and faith motivated peace practitioners from various global contexts to create a diverse academic study of religious peace building

Religion, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Stipe Odak, 2021 This book provides fresh insights into the role of religious leaders in conflict transformation and peacebuilding Based on a large dataset of interviews with Christian and Muslim leaders in Bosnia and Herzegovina it offers a contextually rich analysis of the main post conflict challenges forgiveness reconciliation and tragic memories Designed as an inductive qualitative research it also develops an integrative theoretical model of religiously inspired engagement in conflict transformation The work introduces a number of new concepts which are relevant for both theory and practice of peacebuilding such as Residue of Forgiveness Degree Zero of Reconciliation Ecumene of Compassion and Phantomic Memories The book furthermore proposes two correlated concepts theological dissonance and pastoral optimization as theoretical tools to describe the interplay between moral ideals and practical limitations The text is a valuable resource for religious and social scholars alike especially those interested in topics of peace conflict and justice From the methodological standpoint it is an original and audacious attempt at bringing together theological philosophical and political narratives on conflicts and peace through the innovative use of the Grounded Theory approach

Making Peace with Faith Michelle Garred, Mohammed Abu-Nimer, 2018-01-15 Although religion is almost never a root cause it often gets pulled into conflict as a powerful element especially where conflicting parties have different religious identities Every faith tradition offers resources for peace and secular policy makers are more and more acknowledging the influence of faith based actors even though there remains a tendency to associate religion more with conflict than peace In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of The contributors are all practitioners whose faith or religious experience motivates their work for peace and justice in such a way that it influences their actions Their roles are diverse as some work for faith based institutions while others engage in secular contexts The multiple perspectives featured represent multiple faiths Muslim Christian Hindu Buddhist Jewish diverse scopes of practice different geographic regions

Each chapter follows a similar template to address specific challenges such as dealing with extremist views addressing negative stereotypes about one's faith endorsing violence developing relations with other faith based or secular groups confronting gender based violence and working with people who hold different beliefs In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of They provide a comprehensive view of the practice of peacebuilding in its many challenging aspects for both professionals and those studying religion and peacebuilding alike

Political Religion, Everyday Religion: Sociological Trends Pål Repstad, 2019-04-09 As the title suggests Political Religion Everyday Religion Sociological Trends reflects upon two important trends that have recently emerged in the sociology of religion Firstly there is an increasing interest in the interplay between religion and politics Religion has moved from being almost ignored by sociologists to being acknowledged some would even say overrated as an important political factor Secondly ordinary people's everyday religion has likewise become an important topic for many researchers In this book James Beckford Inger Furseth and other prominent scholars present critical discussions and empirical studies of both political and everyday religion and the editor Pål Repstad shows how these two trends should enter into a closer dialogue The book is essential for both students and experienced researchers in the sociology of religion Contributors are James A Beckford Inger Furseth Kristina Grundetjern Jan Olav Henriksen Ida Marie Heg Nils Martinius Justvik Bjarte Leer Helgesen Paul Leer Salvesen Anne L vland Tomas Rasmussen Pål Repstad Tale Steen Johnsen and Irene Trysnes

Religious Peacebuilding in the Democratic Republic of Congo Roger B. Alfani, 2019 Religious Peacebuilding in the Democratic Republic of Congo analyzes the contributions of three churches at both the leadership and the grassroots levels to conflict transformation in Goma Democratic Republic of Congo While states have long been considered main actors in addressing domestic conflicts this book demonstrates that religious actors can play a significant role in peacebuilding efforts In addition rather than focusing exclusively on top down approaches to conflict resolution Religious Peacebuilding in the Democratic Republic of Congo incorporates viewpoints from both leaders of the Catholic 3 me Communaut Baptiste au Centre de l'Afrique and Arche de l'Alliance in Goma and grassroots members of these three churches

Faith-Based Organizations in Transnational Peacebuilding Tanya B. Schwarz, 2018-03-23 Identifies the critical influence of religious practices and power relations in the transnational peacebuilding and development work of Faith based organisations

Religion and Peacebuilding Harold Coward, Gordon S. Smith, 2012-02-01 In the wake of September 11 2001 religion is often seen as the motivating force behind terrorism and other acts of violence Religion and Peacebuilding looks beyond headlines concerning violence perpetrated in the name of religion to examine how world religions have also inspired social welfare and peacemaking activism Leading scholars from the Aboriginal Hindu Buddhist Confucian Jewish Muslim and Christian traditions provide detailed analyses of the spiritual resources for fostering peace within their respective religions The contributors discuss the formidable obstacles to nonviolent conflict transformation found within sacred texts and living traditions Case studies of Northern Ireland Bosnia Cambodia and South Africa are also examined as practical applications of spiritual resources for peace

On the Significance of Religion in Conflict and Conflict Resolution Christine Schliesser, S. Ayse Kadayifci-Orellana, Pauline Kollontai, 2020-07-01 In this ground breaking volume the authors analyze the role of religion in conflict and conflict resolution They do so from the perspectives of Judaism Christianity and Islam while bringing different disciplines into play including peace and conflict studies religious studies theology and ethics With much of current academic political and public attention focusing on the conflictive dimensions of religion this book also explores the constructive resources of religion for conflict resolution and reconciliation Analyzing the specific contributions of religious actors in this field their potentials and possible problems connected with them this book sheds light on the concrete contours of the oftentimes vague religious factor in processes of social change Case studies in current and former settings of violent conflict such as Israel post genocide Rwanda and Pakistan provide real life contexts for discussion Combining cutting edge research with case studies and concrete implications for academics policy makers and practitioners this concise and easily accessible volume helps to build bridges between these oftentimes separated spheres of engagement The Open Access version of this book available at <http://doi.org/10.4324/9781003002888> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Peacemaking in International

Conflict I. William Zartman, 2007 This updated and expanded edition of the highly popular volume originally published in 1997 describes the tools and skills of peacemaking that are currently available and critically assesses their usefulness and limitations

Catholic Peacebuilding and Mining Caesar A. Montevecchio, Gerard F. Powers, 2022-01-31 This book explores the role of Catholic peacebuilding in addressing the global mining industry Mining is intimately linked to issues of conflict human rights sustainable development governance and environmental justice As an institution of significant scope and scale with a large network of actors at all levels and substantial theoretical and ethical resources the Catholic Church is well positioned to acknowledge the essential role of mining while challenging unethical and harmful practices and promoting integral peace development and ecology Drawing together theology ethics and praxis the volume reflects the diversity of Catholic action on mining and the importance of an integrated approach It includes contributions by an international and interdisciplinary range of scholars and practitioners They examine Catholic action on mining in El Salvador Peru Colombia the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Philippines They also address general issues of corporate social responsibility human rights development ecology and peacebuilding The book will be of interest to scholars of theology social ethics and Catholic studies as well as those specializing in development ecology human rights and peace studies Bridge Or Barrier Gerrie Ter Haar,James J. Busuttil,2005 Annotation This collection of essays focuses on religion and violence in the so called brahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam An additional chapter on Buddhism highlights the comprehensive vision of this religious tradition in the field of peace building The book discusses the transformative role of religion in situations of violent conflict It considers both the constructive and destructive sides of religious belief and particularly explores ways in which religion s may contribute to transforming conflict into peace The Ambivalence of the Sacred R. Scott Appleby,2000 This text explains what religious terrorists and religious peacemakers share in common and what causes them to take different paths in fighting injustice Peacebuilding and Catholic Social Teaching Theodora Hawksley,2020-09-30 The Roman Catholic Church with its global reach centralized organization and more than 1 4 billion members could be one of the world s most significant forces in global peacemaking and yet its robust tradition of social teaching on peace is not widely known In Peacebuilding and Catholic Social Teaching Theodora Hawksley aims to make that tradition better known and understood and to encourage its continued development in light of the lived experience of Catholics engaged in peacebuilding and conflict transformation worldwide The first part of this book analyzes the development of Catholic social teaching on peace from the time of the early Church fathers to the present drawing attention to points of tension and areas in need of development The second part engages in constructive theological work exploring how the existing tradition might develop in order to support the efforts of Catholic peacebuilders and respond to the distinctive challenges of contemporary conflict Peacebuilding and Catholic Social Teaching is one of the first scholarly monographs dedicated exclusively to theology ethics and peacebuilding It will appeal to students and academics who specialize in Catholic social teaching and peacebuilding to practitioners of Catholic peacebuilding and to anyone with an interest in religion and peacebuilding more generally Evaluating Interreligious Peacebuilding and Dialogue Mohammed Abu-Nimer,Renáta Katalin Nelson,2021-09-20 In the emerging fields of religious and interreligious peacebuilding the question of monitoring and evaluation is a challenging yet necessary process The need to develop comprehensive yet fitting evaluation models for religious and interreligious peacebuilding is not only important for donor interests but also critical as a means of documenting and learning for peacebuilders themselves Theories and best practices in monitoring and evaluation have become prevalent in many fields yet the amount of literature on evaluating intercultural and especially religious and interreligious projects remains scant in comparison This volume offers a unique contribution that not only looks at several of the challenges and implications faced by religious and interreligious peacebuilders but also provides concrete examples of new models and tools for monitoring and evaluating religious and interreligious peacebuilding projects In doing so this volume serves as a tool and point of reference for individuals and organizations developing and implementing interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding projects Violence, Religion, Peacemaking Douglas Irvin-Erickson, Peter C.

Phan, 2016-09-09 This volume explores how religious leaders can contribute to cultures of peace around the world The essays are written by leading and emerging scholars and practitioners who have lived taught or worked in the areas of conflict about which they write Connecting the theory and practice of religious peacebuilding to illuminate key challenges facing interreligious dialogue and interreligious peace work the volume is explicitly interreligious intercultural and global in perspective The chapters approach religion and peace from the vantage point of security studies sociology ethics ecology theology and philosophy A foreword by David Smock the Vice President of Governance Law and Society and Director of the Religion and Peacebuilding Center at the United States Institute of Peace outlines the current state of the field Religious Leaders and Conflict Transformation Nukhet A. Sandal, 2017-02-16 The book introduces a theoretical framework to understand the role of religious leaders in conflict transformation and peacebuilding Interfaith Dialogue and Peacebuilding David R. Smock, 2002 As the Christian Muslim and Jewish contributors to this volume have discovered firsthand religion is better at fostering peace than at fueling war Rarely conclude the authors is religion the principal cause of international conflict even though some adversaries may argue differently But religion can often be invaluable in promoting understanding and reconciliation and the need to exploit that potential has never been greater Drawing on their extensive experience in organizing interaction and cooperation across religious boundaries in the Middle East Africa Southeast Asia Northern Ireland and the Balkans the contributors explore the formidable potential of interfaith dialogue The first part of the volume analyzes the concept and its varied application the second focuses on its practice in specific zones of conflict and the third assesses the experiences and approaches of particular organizations When organized creatively interfaith dialogue can nurture deep engagement at all levels of the religious hierarchy including the community level It draws strength from the peacemaking traditions shared by many faiths and from the power of religious ritual and symbolism Yet as the authors also make plain it also has its limitations and carries great risks
