Engendering the Buddhist State Ashley Thompson,2016-04-14 Drawing from more than a decade of field and archival research this monograph concerns Cambodian cultural history and historiography with an ultimate aim of broadening and deepening bases for understanding the Cambodian Theravadin politico cultural complex The book takes the form of an interdisciplinary analysis of performative and representational strategies for constituting social collectivities largely developed at Angkor The analysis involves extended close readings of a wide range of cultural artefacts including epigraphic and manuscript texts sculpture and ritual practices The author proposes a critical re evaluation of dominant paradigms of Cambodian historiography in view of engendering new histories or hybrid histories which make room for previously absent perspectives and voices while developing new theoretical tools engaging with and partially derived from indigenous narrative practices in the broadest sense In this history making process the historical event is shown to never be entirely separable from its aesthetic representation Particular attention is paid to the roles of sexual difference in such re constructions of history The book presents a theory of power capable of accounting for the historical phenomena by which vernacular cultures appropriate subvert and submit to cosmopolitan forces It charts out a novel approach to the study of classical Southeast Asian materials and is of interest to students and scholars of Asian Art

Religion and Philosophy Buddhism and Southeast Asian History Virtuous Bodies Susanne Mrozik, 2007-07-20 Virtuous Bodies breaks new ground in the field of Buddhist ethics by investigating the diverse roles bodies play in ethical development. Traditionally Buddhists assumed a close connection between body and morality. Thus Buddhist literature contains descriptions of living beings that stink with sin, are disfigured by vices, or are perfumed and adorned with virtues. Taking an influential early medieval Indian Mahāyāna Buddhist text, the Compendium of Training (śamuccaya) as a case study, Susanne Mrozik demonstrates that Buddhists regarded ethical development as a process of physical and moral transformation. Mrozik chooses The Compendium of Training because it quotes from over one hundred Buddhist scriptures, allowing her to reveal a broader Buddhist interest in the ethical significance of bodies. The text is a training manual for bodhisattvas, especially monastic bodhisattvas. In it, bodies function as markers of and conditions for one's own ethical development. Most strikingly, bodies also function as instruments for the ethical development of others. When living beings come into contact with the virtuous bodies of bodhisattvas, they are transformed physically and morally for the better. Virtuous Bodies explores both the centrality of bodies to the bodhisattva ideal and the corporeal specificity of that ideal. Arguing that the bodhisattva ideal is an embodied ethical ideal, Mrozik poses an array of fascinating questions: What does virtue look like? What kinds of physical features constitute virtuous bodies? What kinds of bodies have virtuous effects on others? Drawing on a range of contemporary theorists, this book engages in a feminist hermeneutics of recovery and suspicion in order to explore the ethical resources Buddhism offers to scholars and religious practitioners interested in the embodied nature of ethical ideals.

Creation and Humanity Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2015-03-26 The third installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time. This third volume of Veli-Matti Karkkainen's ambitious five-volume theology project develops a Christian theology of creation and humanity, theological anthropology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths: Judaism, Islam, Buddhism, and Hinduism. In constructing his theology of creation and humanity, Karkkainen uniquely engages the natural sciences, including physical, cosmological, and neuroscientific theories. He devotes particular attention to the topics of divine action in a world subjected to scientific study, environmental pollution, human flourishing, and the theological implications of evolutionary theory with regard to both cosmos and humanity.

Pain and Its Ending Carol Anderson, 2013-10-11 Demonstrates how the four noble truths are used throughout the Pāli canon as a symbol of Buddha's enlightenment and as a doctrine within a larger network of Buddha's teachings. Their unique nature rests in their function as a proposition and as a symbol in the Theravāda canon.

The Qur'an and Late Antiquity Angelika Neuwirth, 2019-02-19 In this book, Angelika Neuwirth provides a new approach to understanding the founding text of Islam. Typical exegesis of the Qur'an treats the text teleologically as a fait accompli, finished text or as a replica or summary of the Bible in Arabic. Instead, Neuwirth approaches the Qur'an as the product of a specific community in the Late Antique Arabian peninsula, one which was exposed to the wider worlds of the

Byzantine and Sasanian empires and to the rich intellectual traditions of rabbinic Judaism early Christianity and Gnosticism A central goal of the book is to eliminate the notion of the Qur'an as being a historical She argues that it is in fact highly aware of its place in late antiquity and is capable of yielding valuable historical information By emphasizing the liturgical function of the Qur'an Neuwirth allows readers to see the text as an evolving oral tradition within the community before it became collected and codified as a book This analysis sheds much needed light on the development of the Qur'an's historical theological and political outlook The book's final chapters analyze the relationship of the Qur'an to the Bible to Arabic poetic traditions and more generally to late antique culture and rhetorical forms By providing a new introduction to the Qur'an one that uniquely challenges current ideas about its emergence and development The Qur'an and Late Antiquity bridges the gap between Eastern and Western approaches to this sacred text Liberalism Versus Postliberalism John Allan Knight, 2013 The book provides an original analysis of the central philosophical differences between liberal and postliberal theology Knight argues that important developments in philosophy of language reveal serious problems with the central methodological commitments of liberalism and postliberalism and suggest ways in which the divide can be bridged The Prophet's Whistle George Archer, 2024 The Prophet's Whistle is a study of the ancient nonliterary features of the Quran George Archer uses observations from the anthropologies of living oral cultures the cognitive sciences of literacy and the study of other dead oral cultures When the Quran appeared in the seventh century it was a vocal recital performed by an unlettered man named Muhammad The Prophet's Whistle shows that the thought systems of the Quran are oral through and through but by the end of the life of its Prophet the Quran likewise hints at a personal and cultural embrace of writing and the mindsets of literate people Buddhist History in the Vernacular Stephen Berkwitz, 2004-06-01 This is a careful study about the power attributed to historical narratives in early medieval Sri Lanka On the basis of Sinhala histories of the Buddha and his relics this work sheds new light on historiography at work in a vernacular setting Arguing that historical texts were both ethically and socially constructive the author demonstrates that narrative representations of the past served the purpose to transform writers readers and listeners of history into virtuous persons and therewith to generate moral communities Focusing on the thirteenth century Sinhala Thupavamsa this book problematizes modern interpretations of Buddhist histories compares the production of Pali and Sinhala texts and examines how historical works were directed towards religious ends A significant contribution to scholarship in Buddhist Studies Comparative Literature and Historical Criticism Meditation in Modern Buddhism Joanna Cook, 2010-08-05 In contemporary Thai Buddhism the burgeoning popularity of vipassan meditation is dramatically impacting the lives of those most closely involved with its practice monks and mae chee lay nuns living in monastic communities For them meditation becomes a central focus of life and a way to transform the self This ethnographic account of a thriving Northern Thai monastery examines meditation in detail and explores the subjective signification of monastic duties and ascetic practices Drawing on fieldwork done both as an analytical observer and as a full participant in the life of the monastery Joanna Cook analyzes the motivation and experience of renouncers and shows what effect meditative practices have on individuals and community organization The particular focus on the status of mae chee part lay part monastic provides a fresh insight into social relationships and gender hierarchy within the context of the monastery

The Hebrew Bible and Philosophy of Religion Jaco Gericke, 2012-11-01 This study pioneers the use of philosophy of religion in the study of the Hebrew Bible After identifying the need for a legitimate philosophical approach to Israelite religion the volume traces the history of interdisciplinary relations and shows how descriptive varieties of philosophy of religion can aid the clarification of the Hebrew Bible's own metaphysical epistemological and moral assumptions Two new interpretative methodologies are developed and subsequently applied through an introduction to what the biblical texts took for granted about the nature of religious language the concept of deity the properties of Yhwh the existence of gods religious epistemology and the relation between religion and morality

Entre mémoire et pouvoir Antoine Borrut, 2010-11-11 Cet ouvrage entend d montrer qu'une solide culture de l'écriture de l'histoire existait dans la Syrie du 2^e au 8^e siècle et propose de nouvelles approches méthodologiques afin d'offrir un accès vers cette historiographie perdue tiraillée entre mémoire et oubli En étudiant la fabrication des héros omeyyades ou des mythes d'origines abbassides cette étude s'efforce de mettre au jour les significations successives données à l'histoire syrienne et d'identifier les différentes strates d'écritures et de réécritures de l'histoire au cours des premiers siècles de l'islam L'ensemble de ces éléments conduit à proposer une histoire du sens de l'espace syrien articulée autour de la thématique du pouvoir qui donne une profonde cohérence à la période par-delà la césure dynastique de 132-750 This book intends to demonstrate that a robust culture of historical writing existed in 2nd-8th century Syria and to offer new methodological approaches to access this now lost history torn between memory and oblivion By studying the making of Umayyad heroes or Abbasid origins myths this study aims to reveal the successive meanings granted to Syrian history and to identify the various layers of historical writing and rewriting during the first centuries of Islam Taken together these elements make possible a history of the meaning of the very space of Syria articulated around power and its expression which grants a clear coherence to the period extending well beyond the dynastic caesura of 132-750

Oral-Scriptal Dimensions of Scripture, Piety, and Practice Werner H. Kelber, Paula A. Sanders, 2016-09-30 In April 2008 a conference was convened at Rice University that brought together experts in the three monotheistic religions of Judaism Christianity and Islam The papers discussed at the conference are presented here revised and updated The thirteen contributions comprise the keynote address by John Miles Foley three essays on Judaism and the Hebrew Bible three on the New Testament three on the Qur'an and two summarizing pieces by the Africanist Ruth Finnegan and the Islamicist William Graham respectively The central thesis of the book states that sacred Scripture was experienced by the three faiths less as a text contained between two covers and a literary genre and far more as an oral phenomenon In developing the performative recitative aspects of the three religions the authors directly or by implication challenge their distinctly textual identities Instead of viewing the three faiths as quintessential religions of the book these writers argue that the religions have been and continue to be appropriated not only as written but also very much as oral authorities with the two media interpenetrating and mutually influencing each other in myriad ways The Heritage of Arabo-Islamic Learning Maurice A. Pomerantz, Aram Shahin, 2015-10-14 The Arabo Islamic heritage of the Islam is among the richest most diverse and longest lasting literary traditions in the world Born from a culture and religion that valued teaching Arabo Islamic learning spread from the seventh century and has had a lasting impact until the present In The Heritage of Arabo Islamic Learning leading scholars around the world present twenty five studies explore diverse areas of Arabo Islamic heritage in honor of a renowned scholar and teacher Dr Wadad A Kadi Prof Emerita University of Chicago The volume includes contributions in three main areas History Institutions and the Use of Documentary Sources Religion Law and Islamic Thought Language Literature and Heritage which reflect Prof Kadi s contributions to the field Contributors Sean W Anthony Ramzi Baalbaki Jonathan A C Brown Fred M Donner Mohammad Fadel Kenneth Garden Sebastian G nther Li Guo Heinz Halm Paul L Heck Nadia Jami Jeremy Johns Maher Jarrar Marion Holmes Katz Scott C Lucas Angelika Neuwirth Bilal Orfali Wen chin Ouyang Judith Pfeiffer Maurice A Pomerantz Ri w n al Sayyid Aram A Shahin Jens Scheiner John O Voll Stefan Wild
