Religion Als Phänomen:

Theatre and Religion Günter Ahrends, Hans-Jürgen Diller, 1998 Towards Religious Competence Hans-Günter Heimbrock, Christoph Th Scheilke, Peter Schreiner, 2001 In this book scholars around Europe reflect on the changing role of religious education in a time of growing pluralism in Europe and across the world The various contributions from different European countries England and Wales Germany Netherlands and Norway focus on the debate about the existing multicultural and multireligious situation in European societies Difference and diversity especially of religion is seen as a challenge for education in Europe The chapters mention trends and common challenges for religious education As a key term of religious education religious competence is introduced It includes the ability to deal with religious pluralism and differences in a constructive way It is argued that contextual religious education facilitates a new religious competence The book also contains detailed information about current developments in the field of religious education in some European countries The Pragmatics of Defining Religion Jan G. Platvoet, Arie Leendert Molendijk, 1999 The Pragmatics of Defining Religion is a multidisciplinary volume on the problem of the definition of religion with chapters on the polemics of defining religion in modern contexts the history of the concept of religion the methodology of its definition it includes several definition proposals The Pragmatics of Defining Religion Platvoet, Arie Molendijk, 2018-11-13 This volume promotes a pragmatic anti essentialist and anti hegemonic approach to the problem of the definition of religion It argues that definitions of religion are context bound strategies for pursuing a variety of purposes extra academic as well as academic Religions being immensely varied complex and multi functional phenomena they need to be studied by several academic disciplines from many different perspectives It is therefore legitimate and useful that many definitions of religions are developed The volume has contributions from scholars in Philosophy of Religion the Comparative Study of Religions Anthropology of Religion Sociology of Religion and Psychology of Religion It has chapters on the polemics of defining religion in modern contexts the history of the concept of religion and the methodology of its definition it includes several definition proposals
Phenomenology and the Holy Espen Dahl, 2013-02-12 SCM Veritas engages in critical and original questions of pressing concern to both philosophers and theologians The major concern of all books in this series is to display a rigorous theological critique of categories not often thought to be theological in character such as phenomenology or metaphysics which are mainly considered as philosophical categories All the books in this series aim to illustrate that without theology something essential is lost in our accounts of such categories not only in the abstract but in the way in which we inhabit the world Phenomenology and the Holy is a study of the holy which attempts to find this both in the ordinary and in the sublime thus challenging the reduction of the holy to a discrete and separated field of experience Phenomenology is a key area of twentieth century philosophy in which there is a wide interest not only among philosophers but also among theologians and religious studies scholars Studies in the History of Religions (supplements to Numen) , Rationalization in Religions

Yohanan Friedmann, Christoph Marksches, 2018-12-17 Current tendencies in religious studies and theology show a growing interest for the interchange between religions and the cultures of rationalization surrounding them. The studies published in this volume based on the international conferences of both the Berlin Brandenburgische Akademie der Wissenschaften and the Israel Academy of Sciences and Humanities aim to contribute to this field of interest by dealing with concepts and influences of rationalization in Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and religion in general. In addition to taking a closer look at the immediate links in the history of tradition between those rationalizing movements and evolutions in religion, emphasis is put on intellectual historical convergences. Therefore, the articles are led by central comparative questions such as: what factors foster/hinder rationalization? where are criteria for rationalization drawn from? in which institutions is rationalization taking place? who propagates, supports, and utilizes rationalization?

Religious Diversity and Education. Nordic Perspectives

Geir Skeie, 2009 In the last ten years or so, religious plurality has become higher on the agenda for religious education research in the Nordic countries. This attention to religious plurality partly reflects processes of globalisation that include both physical migration and communication of ideas and is seen across the world, making it smaller. It also reflects the preoccupation of governments with social cohesion and, as part of this, intercultural education. In the curricula of the Nordic countries, this is manifested in different ways, setting also the agenda for parts of educational research. This book addresses issues related to the increasing religious plurality in the Nordic countries. These issues are a challenge to many religious groups, including historically dominant Lutheran national churches, both nationally and locally. They have also led to a reorientation in religious education research in the last decade. A rich variety of research perspectives are presented under three headings: Theoretical and methodical perspectives; The world of the students; Teachers and textbooks. Nordic religious education research here proves to be internationally oriented in terms of theoretical perspectives whilst also contributing to the debate through important empirical studies. Examples of issues covered in the book are: unintended learning; dialogue; gender; life interpretation; spirituality; identity and values. In different ways, all the contributions in this book shed light on the common theme of diversity and are based on a will to include diverse perspectives both on the actors and the material of the classroom, as well as on the life world of young people. The researchers represent different generations and different theoretical and methodological perspectives.

Theology and the Religions Viggo Mortensen, 2003 The academic study of religion is undergoing great changes in response to globalization. Just as sociologists now find it necessary to think in terms of multiculturalism, so religion scholars and theologians today must work in the context of multireligiosity. Globalization is leading not only to multiethnic societies but also to plurality in religions and worldviews. Theology and the Religions: A Dialogue offers the first sustained analysis of the trend toward multireligiosity and its implications for the study of religion. Drawing on the resources of cultural analysis, religious studies, and theology, an international slate of scholars explores the relation of multiculturalism and multireligiosity.

the need for interreligious dialogue and the possibilities for a theology of religions This groundbreaking work is supported by case studies of various religious traditions in diverse cultures from around the world Special attention is paid to Christian theological reflection however since as a global religion Christianity is particularly challenged by multireligiosity Offering an engaging wide angle view of religion worldwide Theology and the Religions makes a vital contribution to our understanding of the forces shaping the future of religious and social life Contributors Kajsa Ahlstrand Theodor Ahrens Jan Martin Berentsen Ulrich Dehn Helene Egnell Marianne C Qvortrup Fibiger Patrik Friedlund Virginia Garrard Burnett Geomon K George Elisabeth Gerle Friedrich Wilhelm Graf Hans Hauge Ulf Hedetoft S Mark Heim Chris Hewer Klaus Hock Michael Ipgrave Andrew J Kirk Lene K hle Volker K ster Aasulv Lande Oddbjorn Leirvik Ole Skjerb k Madsen Hiromasa Mase Mogens S Mogensen Viggo Mortensen Johannes Nissen Klaus N rnberger Caleb Oladipo Tinu Ruparell Risto Saarinen Lamin Sanneh Olaf Schumann Notto R Thelle Joachim Track V tor Westhelle H S Wilson

[Anonymus AC00528382],1954 , Normativity And Empirical Research In Theology Johannes Antonius van der Ven,Michael Scherer-Rath,2004 In this publication researchers and academics from South Africa Great Britain Switzerland Germany and the Netherlands provide theoretical explanations and examples of empirical research with regard to the fundamental question of the role of theological normativity in empirical research in theological fields Romanticism and the Re-Invention of Modern Religion Alexander J. B. Hampton,2019-01-17 Early German Romanticism sought to respond to a comprehensive sense of spiritual crisis that characterised the late eighteenth century The study demonstrates how the Romantics sought to bring together the new post Kantian idealist philosophy with the inheritance of the realist Platonic Christian tradition With idealism they continued to champion the individual while from Platonism they took the notion that all reality including the self participated in absolute being This insight was expressed not in the language of theology or philosophy but through aesthetics which recognised the potentiality of all creation including artistic creation to disclose the divine In explicating the religious vision of Romanticism this study offers a new historical appreciation of the movement and furthermore demonstrates its importance for our understanding of religion today Love's Transcendence and the Problem of Theodicy Claudia Welz,2008 Claudia Weltz explores responses to the problem of evil that do not end up in a theodicy Kierkegaard s and Rosenzweig s reasons for having no reason to defend God and their ethics of love are discussed in the context of German idealism and French phenomenology BOOK JACKET Beyond the Babylonian Trauma Gerald Hartung,2018-09-24 Hartung works out both the linguistic and philosophy of language setting as well as socio political and cultural implications of the radical critique of language developed in the late 19th and early 20th centuries by philosophers as diverse as Steinthal Cohen Simmel or Cassirer He argues that the theories pleaded for a plurality of linguistic and cultural forms as well as for a new logic beyond the traditional nature culture partition Radical Theology Ingolf U. Dalferth,2016-07-01 Ingolf U Dalferth develops a radical theology that unfolds the orienting strength of faith for human life

from the event of God's presence to every present. In a concise and clear manner Dalferth outlines the theological and philosophical approaches to hermeneutics in the modern era in order to promote a convincing and defensible theology for the twenty-first century, critically carrying on Martin Heidegger and Rudolf Bultmann without forgetting Karl Barth. The result of his reconstruction is a radical theology that neither glorifies premodern theology in an antimodern attitude nor seeks a mystical deepening of the secular but argues for a radical change in theological perspective of the possible. In doing so, theology unfolds limit concepts that restrict the claims of science and philosophy critically and develops ideas of orientation that illumine the ways in which human life is understood and lived in radically new ways in faith. From here Dalferth unfolds the reality of revelation and the Christian sense of an unconditional hope that fundamentally transcends all beliefs based on mundane realities and orients the world on something beyond its own temporal horizon: its loving Creator.

International Handbook of Practical Theology Birgit Weyel, Wilhelm Gräb, Emmanuel Lartey, Cas Wepener, 2022-09-06 Practical theology has outgrown its traditional pastoral paradigm. The articles in this handbook recognize that faith, spirituality, and lived religion within and beyond institutional communities refer to realms of cultures, ritual practices, and symbolic orders whose boundaries are not clearly defined and whose contents are shifting. The International Handbook of Practical Theology offers insightful transcultural conceptions of religion and religious matters gathered from various cultures and traditions of faith. The first section presents concepts of religion. Chapters have to do with considerations of the conceptualizing of religion in the fields of anthropology, community, family, institution, law, media, and politics, among others. The second section is dedicated to case studies of religious practices from the perspective of their actors. The third section presents major theoretical discourses that explore the globally significant diversity and multiplicity of religion. Altogether sixty-one authors from different parts of the world encourage a rethinking of religious practice in an expanded transcultural, globalized, and postcolonial world.

Gemeinschaft und Gesellschaft Keramatollah Rasekh, Der Band stellt die grundlegende Frage über den Zusammenhang zwischen Sozialstruktur und politischen Beziehungen. Die Antwort ist wichtig im Hinblick auf die Hauptprobleme dieser Untersuchung: eine Unterscheidung zwischen Gemeinschaft und Gesellschaft und deren unterschiedlichen Auswirkungen auf politische Beziehungen. Ziel ist es, durch eine vergleichende Untersuchung der Strukturen von Gemeinschaft und Gesellschaft aus konzeptioneller, theoretischer, sozialer und politischer Perspektive Aspekte herauszuarbeiten, die die Basis für eine Einführung in die politische Soziologie eines islamischen Landes, Iran, bilden können.
