Religion And Custom In A Muslim Society The Berti Of Sudan:

Religion and Custom in a Muslim Society Ladislav Holy,1991-07-26 Among the Berti of Northern Darfur Sudan as among many Muslim societies the formal religious practices are predominantly the concern of men while local unorthodox customary rituals are performed mainly by women It is usual to dismiss such local popular practices as pre Islamic survivals but Professor Holy shows that the customary rituals constitute an integral part of the religious system of the Berti Carefully analysing the symbolic statements made in Berti rituals Professor Holy demonstrates that the distinction between the two classes of rituals is an expression of the gender relationships characteristic of the society He also examines the social distribution of knowledge about Islam and explains the role of the religious schools in sustaining religious ideas The work is not only an ethnographic study of ritual belief and gender in an African society It also makes a significant contribution to current anthropological discussion of the interpretation and meaning of rituals and symbols Religion and Sexuality in

Cross-Cultural Perspective Stephen Ellingson,M. Christian Green,2014-03-18 Issues of sexuality and gender are hotly contested in both religious communities and national cultures around the world In the social sciences religious traditions are often depicted as inherently conservative or even reactionary in their commitments to powerful patriarchal and pronatalist sexual norms and gender categories In illuminating the practices of religious traditions in various cultures these essays expose the diversity of religious rituals and mythologies pertaining to sexuality In the process the contributors challenge conventional notions of what is normative in our sexual lives The Sudan Handbook John Ryle,2011 The handbook offers a

Murray,Will Roscoe,1997-02 The first anthropological collection that reveals patterns of male and female homosexuality in the Muslim World The dramatic impact of Islamic fundamentalism in recent years has skewed our image of Islamic history and culture Stereotypes depict Islamic societies as economically backward hyper patriarchal and fanatically religious But in fact the Islamic world encompasses a great diversity of cultures and a great deal of variation within those cultures in terms of gender roles and sexuality The first collection on this topic from a historical and anthropological perspective Homosexuality in the Muslim World reveals that patterns of male and female homosexuality have existed and often flourished within the Islamic world Indeed same sex relations have until quite recently been much more tolerated under Islam than in the Christian West Based on the latest theoretical perspectives in gender studies feminism and gay studies Homosexuality in the Muslim World includes cultural and historical analyses of the entire Islamic world not just the so called Middle East Essays show both age stratified patterns of homosexuality as revealed in the erotic and romantic poetry of medieval poets and gender based patterns in which both men and women might to varying degrees choose to live as members of the opposite sex The contributors draw on historical documents literary texts ethnographic observation and direct observation by both Muslim and non Muslim authors to show the considerable diversity of Islamic societies and the existence of tolerated gender and sexual variances

Infibulation Esther Hicks,2018-01-16 Infibulation is the most extreme form of female circumci sion It plays an important role in the Islamic societies of northeastern Africa Until now the social significance and function of this practice has been poorly understood In this volume Hicks analyzes female circumcision as a cultural trait embedded in a historically traditional milieu and shows why it cannot be treated in isolation as a single issue destined for elimination

Contesting Realities Susanne Dahlgren,2010-12-23 As a resident of Aden for more than three years spanning the late years of Marxist South Yemen Dahlgren presents the reader with an intimate portrait of Yemeni men and women in the home in the factory in the office and in the street demonstrating that Islamic societies must be understood through a multiplicity of social spheres and morality orders Within each space she examines the range of legal political religious and social regulations that frame gender relations and social dynamics Highlighting the diversity of women s and men s positions as a continuum rather than as distinct areas Dahlgren presents a vivid picture of this dynamic society providing an in depth background to today s political upheavals in Yemen

Astuti,1995-03-23 The Vezo a fishing people of western Madagascar are known as the people who struggle with the sea Dr Astuti explores their identity showing that it is established through what people do rather than being determined by descent Vezo identity is a way of doing rather than a state of being performative rather than ethnic However her innovative analysis of Vezo kinship also uncovers an opposite form of identity based on descent which she argues is the identity of the dead By looking at key mortuary rituals that engage the relationship between the living and the dead Dr Astuti develops a dual model of the Vezo person the one defined contextually in the present the other determined by the past Identity Through

History Geoffrey M. White,1991 For people who live in small communities transformed by powerful outside forces narrative accounts of culture contact and change create images of collective identity through the idiom of shared history How may we understand the processes that make such accounts compelling for those who tell them Why do some narratives acquire a kind of mythic status as they are told and retold in a variety of contexts and genres Identity Through History attempts to explain how identity formation developed among the people of Santa Isabel in the Solomon Islands who were victimised by raiding headhunters in the nineteenth century and then embraced Christianity around the turn of the century Making innovative use of work in psychological and historical anthropology Geoffrey White shows how these significant events were crucial to the community s view of itself in shifting social and political circumstances South Coast New Guinea Cultures
