Religion And Politics In East Africa:

Religion and Politics in Kenya B. Knighton, 2009-09-14 Addresses the various political aspects of the Kenyan political mosaic during the time of Bishop David Gitari later Archbishop 1997 2002 These essays focus on both this courageous man and the various aspects of the political mosaic in Kenya at that time to 2008 in an effort to bring out the religious dimensions of Kenyan and African politics

Religion & Politics in East Africa Holger Bernt Hansen, 1995 Religion & Politics in East Africa Holger Bernt Hansen, Michael Twaddle, 1995 Religious activities have been of continuing importance in the rise of protest against postcolonial governments in Eastern Africa Issues considered include attempts by government to manage religious affairs in both Muslim and Christian areas religious denominations as surrogate oppositions to one party state regimes and as advocates of human rights Islamic fundamentalism before and after the end of the Cold War and Christian churches as NGOs in the age of structural adjustment

Religion, Politics and Cults in East Africa Emmanuel K. Twesigye, 2010 Religion Politics and Cults in East Africa is the first major original and extensive research based study of the apocalyptic and doomsday Catholic Marian Movement and its Benedictine monastic moral and religious practices including vows of poverty celibacy obedience daily contemplation in silence and hard work The Marian Movement is presented within the cultural historical political and religious context of the East African Revival Movement the Anglican Balokole Movement Alice Lakwena's Holy Spirit Movement Joseph Kony's Lord's Resistance Army LRA and other religious political liberation movements including the Maji Maji the Mau Mau and Nyabingi Liberation Movement The Marian Movement was locally known as Abanyabugoto and The Movement for the Restoration of the Ten Commandments of God It began in 1989 as a Catholic women's Marian devotional and moral reformation movement founded and headed by Keledonia Mwerinde Faced with African cultural patriarchy and male dominated Catholic Church hierarchy Mwerinde recruited Joseph Kibwetere and the Rev Fr Dominic Kataribabo to serve as the public face of the Marian Movement In response to Catholic hierarchy's opposition and persecution Fr Kataribabo designed a theology of ritual sacrifice atonement and martyrdoms for the devout Marian Catholics who were devotees of the Blessed Virgin Mary He martyred the Marian devotees in March 2000 in order to transform them into Mary's saints and to liberate their souls and send them to heaven where they would instantly attain eternal life lasting peace and happiness

The Politics of God in East Africa Mario I. Aguilar, 2009 Following on from his previous work Being Oromo in Kenya Mario Aguilar stresses the conflict and creativity expressed by different Oromo generations who treasure their Oromo identity but are also searching for their place within a post colonial and post independent East African world Thus the featured essays not only provide creative ways of researching identity but also assert the central role of Oromo culture within the ever changing world of East African religion and politics

Religion and Politics in Europe, the Middle East and North Africa Jeffrey Haynes, 2009-10-16 In the early twenty first century it is now clear that religion is increasingly influential in the political realm in ways which call into question the principles and practices of secularism The Iranian revolution of 1978-9 marked the decisive reappearance of political religion in global politics highlighting a major development which is the subject of this edited volume Addressing a highly salient and timely topic this book examines the consequences of political interactions involving the state and religious actors in Christian Muslim and Judaist contexts Building on research the basic premise of this text is that religious actors including Islamist groups the Roman Catholic and the Orthodox churches pose various challenges for citizenship democracy and secularisation in Europe the Middle East and North Africa MENA The key questions on which the book focuses are Why how and when do religious actors seek to influence political outcomes in these regions Providing a survey of what is happening in relation to the interaction of religion and politics both domestically and internationally this book will be of interest to students and scholars of politics religion European and Middle East studies

Religion and Politics in Africa Jeffrey Haynes, 1996 The impact of religion on the political process has come to the fore in recent years in a wide variety of societies Yet the significant and varied ways in which the rapidly changing religious context has impacted on the politics of modern Africa is still a relatively neglected field This book which is designed to fill this gap in the teaching of African Politics assembles and analyses an enormous amount of hitherto scattered material on the interaction between politics and religious groups in the post independence but also colonial eras Dr Haynes focuses on all three of the main organised religious traditions in Africa Christian Islamic and syncretistic movements including the rise of various fundamentalist groups His thematic and comparative approach embraces all parts of Sub Saharan Africa and seeks to locate the role of religion in the African political process in its historical social and international contexts In doing so he illuminates what has often been a profoundly important factor affecting the stability of governments evolution of civil society and even the development trajectory of many African countries The author's combination of theoretical context rich empirical information and thoughtful analysis makes this book ideal as a text for students as well as commanding a wider interest
