Regional Disparities In Nigerias Development Lessons And Challenges For The 21st Century:

Regional Disparities in Nigeria's Development Ebenezer O. Aka, 2000 One of the major concerns in international development today is the effectiveness of programs for promoting widespread socio economic growth in a country In Regional Disparities in Nigeria's Development Ebenezer Aka investigates whether planning programs have encouraged or hindered substantial socio economic development throughout Nigeria He provides an overview of the various development programs that have been implemented discussing their objectives strategies and performances as well as their implications for the 21st century He reveals that over time there has actually been a divergence rather than a convergence of regional disparities and inequalities which he meticulously analyzes from socio cultural economic political and administrative perspectives An indispensable resource for Nigerian policy makers this book will also interest social scientists who study international development

Information and Communication Technologies in Nigeria Patience Idaraesit Akpan-Obong, 2009 In recent years information and communication technologies ICTs have been linked with socioeconomic development with the assumption that they can be harnessed for economic growth in developing countries and facilitate integration into the global information society However very few studies in the ICT for development field examine the direct connections between ICTs and socioeconomic growth Information and Communication Technologies in Nigeria Prospects and Challenges for Development is a compelling account of the development of ICTs in Nigeria It examines the ICT policy framework and the societal context within which application of the technologies emerged and highlights the potentials of ICTs in socioeconomic development However this book also demonstrates through interviews and case studies that ICTs are not the panacea to underdevelopment constraining factors in different countries can limit their capacity to succeed The author employs a rare multidisciplinary approach that makes the book appealing and accessible to a diverse range of readership

Federalism and Economic Reform Jessica Wallack, T. N. Srinivasan, 2006-02-24 This book contains case studies of economic reform in eight developing and industrial federal countries Argentina Australia Brazil Canada China India Mexico and Nigeria It focuses on the way in which the division of authority between levels of government affects the policymaking process as well as how changes such as globalization and market oriented reform affect the way federal governments are organized

African Studies Review, 2004 Women and Peacebuilding in Africa Ladan Affi, Liv Tønnessen, Aili Mari Tripp, 2021 Even in the best of circumstances women are all too often excluded from formal peacemaking and peacebuilding processes and relegated to the sidelines as observers or limited to informal peacebuilding strategies Yet there is enormous potential in these strategies as women often strive to build bridges across political ethnic religious clan and other differences through alliances arising from common concerns around violence land access to resources and protection of their families and communities and address sources of conflict at both national and local levels Drawing on cutting edge research by scholars and women's rights activists in South Sudan Sudan Algeria northern Nigeria and Somalia this book focuses on the consequences of the continuing exclusions of women from peace talks and from post conflict governance structures The case studies reveal how peacebuilding is gendered and why this matters in developing meaningful and sustainable approaches to peacebuilding Examining how women activists have made a difference through informal peacebuilding activities the contributors explore women s efforts to reshape the post conflict context by struggling for legislative and constitutional reforms and by advocating for political representation and political inclusion more generally within peacebuilding processes They also look at how women have pushed back against the conservative Islamist forces that today dominate much armed conflict in Africa Suggesting that women s formal participation in peace negotiations is vital in bringing about an end to conflict and preventing its resumption as well as the one of the most effective strategies this book will be essential reading for scholars and NGOs involved in development conflict resolution and peacebuilding Journal of African Development ,2008 Journal of Social Development in Africa ,2000 Africa and the Third Millennium George Klay Kieh,2008 There is a general consensus that Africa entered the 21st century plagued by multifaceted crises of underdevelopment This is evidenced by abject poverty the inadequacy of basic human needs environmental degradation and violent civil conflicts George Klay Kieh Jr argues that in order to reverse the negative effects of Africa s peripheral status the neo colonial state must be democratically reconstituted Once this has happened the foundations can be laid for government policies that address and fulfil basic human needs Nigerian Federalism in Crisis Eberé Onwudiwe, Rotimi T. Suberu,2005 Democracy & Development ,2003 American Book Publishing Record ,2006 International African Bibliography ,2005 G.K. Hall Interdisciplinary Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,2000 Urbanization in Nigeria Akin L. Mabogunje,1971 Reforming the Unreformable Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala,2012-09-21 Covers the period from 2003 2006 Contemporary Development Issues in Nigeria Olayinka Akanle,A.O. Olutayo,A.O. Omobowale,2015-04-01 Africa today confronts and is known for daunting developmental challenges despite the abundant human and material resources and significant global development assistance A number of issues have been identified as causes of the continent s poor development performance However a number of these implicated issues have been insufficiently unaccounted for and the majority of existing analysis on them is too generic and misinformed Against this background this book uses Nigeria as an example to contribute knowledge and informed research to the wider African continent Nigeria is the most populous nation in Africa and is one of the continent s most resource endowed countries but despite this it is one of the poorest countries in the entire world While many studies have examined the country in depth its continued development complications and its paradoxical status on the world stage suggest that there is still a need to better understand the country Even though the issues of Nigeria are engaged with directly in this book the findings have implications and relevance for the rest of the continent and many other developing countries in general As such this book will be of particular interest to all development students scholars practitioners and policy makers especially those interested in the sustainable development of Africa both now and in the future

Regional Disparities, Growth, and Inclusiveness Mr. Holger Floerkemeier, Mr. Nikola Spatafora, Anthony Venables, 2021-02-12 We discuss regional disparities in economic performance and living standards We first set out some key facts and provide a conceptual framework to help analyze whether such disparities are efficient or instead reflect market and or policy failures We examine whether policy attempts to reduce regional disparities necessarily involve a trade off between equity and efficiency We then investigate whether policymakers should focus on boosting the economic performance of lagging regions or conversely accept the presence of regional disparities and instead assist households in lagging regions through transfer payments investments in education health and other basic services and by facilitating out migration

Regional Development: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2012-04-30 From domestic to international settings aid and assistance to less developed areas has recently been bolstered by a boom in technological advances and new research Regional Development Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications presents a vital compendium of research detailing the latest case studies architectures frameworks methodologies and research on regional development With over 100 chapters from authors from around the world this three volume collection presents the most sophisticated research and developments from the field relevant to researchers academics and practitioners alike In order to stay abreast of the latest research this book affords a vital look into regional development research

Urban and Regional Planning and Development Rajiv R. Thakur, Ashok K. Dutt, Sudhir K. Thakur, George M. Pomeroy, 2020-02-10 This book discusses urban planning and regional development practices in the twentieth century and ways in which they are currently being transformed It addresses questions such as What are the factors affecting planning dynamics at local regional national and global scales With the push to adopt a market paradigm in land development and infrastructure the relationship between resource management sustainable development and the role of governance has been transformed Centralized planning is giving way to privatization not only in the traditional regions but also in newly emerging regions of Asia Africa and Latin America Further attempts are being made to bring planning related decision making closer to the people who are most affected by it Presenting a collection of studies from scholars around the world and highlighting recent advances in the field the book is a valuable reference guide for those engaged in urban transformations whether as graduate students researchers practitioners or policymakers

Domestic and Regional Environmental Laws and Policies in Africa Jean-Claude N. Ashukem, Semie M. Sama, 2023-11-10 This book explores African domestic and regional responses and approaches to environmental protection and sustainability Written by African experts the collection consists of five parts covering the whole of Africa It provides broad coverage of specific themes including environmental constitutionalism climate change gender and the environment wildlife trade environmental justice and human displacement The key aims are first to explore theoretical and empirical studies to interrogate and provide clarity on academic discourse on how and whether environmental human rights approaches and policy implications have effectively enhanced environmental protection and sustainability at African domestic levels Second to investigate and present innovative solutions on how African domestic legal regimes deal with environmental justice natural resources governance refugees environmental rights and climate induced displaced persons Finally to propose innovative legal and institutionalised solutions to Africa s ecological realities by determining the legal and regulatory gaps on environmental human rights issues on the continent The collection will be a valuable resource for researchers academics and policymakers in human rights law environmental law political science ecology and conservation environmental management disaster management and development studies
