Regional Integration and Trade Liberalization in SubSaharan Africa David Greenaway, T. Ademola Oyejide, B. J. Ndulu, 1997      Regional Integration and Trade Liberalization in SubSaharan Africa Ademola Oyejide, Stephen Yeo, 1999-09-20 An authoritative guide to Africa's economic development and prospects This is volume 3 in a major international research project coordinated by the African Economic Research Consortium and bringing together the top academics in development economics trade policy and international economics from Africa Europe and North America This third volume examines schemes for regional integration and the successes and failure of each of these specific projects to examine the potential and pitfalls facing co operation and integration in Africa today      Regional Integration and Trade Liberalization in SubSaharan Africa Ademola Oyejide, Benno Ndulu, Jan Willem Gunning, 1999-09-20 An authoritative guide to Africa's economic development and prospects This is volume 2 in a major international research project coordinated by the African Economic Research Consortium and bringing together the top academics in development economics trade policy and international economics from Africa Europe and North America This second volume applies the theoretical framework and issues of economic liberalization and regional integration to detailed country case studies of the Cote d'Ivoire Ghana Nigeria Kenya Mauritius Tanzania Uganda South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe      Regional Integration and Trade Liberalization in SubSaharan Africa: Country case-studies T. Ademola Oyejide, Ibrahim Elbadawi, Paul Collier, 1997      The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Regionalism Tanja A. Börzel, Thomas Risse, 2016-02-04 The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Regionalism the first of its kind offers a systematic and wide ranging survey of the scholarship on regionalism regionalization and regional governance Unpacking the major debates leading authors of the field synthesize the state of the art provide a guide to the comparative study of regionalism and identify future avenues of research Twenty seven chapters review the theoretical and empirical scholarship with regard to the emergence of regionalism the institutional design of regional organizations and issue specific governance as well as the effects of regionalism and its relationship with processes of regionalization The authors explore theories of cooperation integration and diffusion explaining the rise and the different forms of regionalism The handbook also discusses the state of the art on the world regions North America Latin America Europe Eurasia Asia North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa Various chapters survey the literature on regional governance in major issue areas such as security and peace trade and finance environment migration social and gender policies as well as democracy and human rights Finally the handbook engages in cross regional comparisons with regard to institutional design dispute settlement identities and communities legitimacy and democracy as well as inter and transregionalism      Borderless Africa Francis Manganzi, Andrew Mold, 2024-04-18 The African Continental Free Trade Area established in 2018 represented a monumental step forward for Africa in terms of meeting longstanding aspirations for greater economic and political integration But it has nonetheless been met with scepticism in some quarters both within the continent and beyond Borderless Africa makes the case for the AfCFTA in an accessible and compelling way without shying away from technical and academic debates Francis Mangeni and Andrew Mold take us on a journey through the different dimensions and implications of the AfCFTA the largest free trade zone in the world starting with its underlying economic rationale Pointing to the numerous historical examples of successful regional integration they argue that the African continent will need to take on board such lessons as the agreement is implemented They discuss too the more controversial elements of the AfCFTA including the freedom of movement protocol contending that this should not be seen as an optional extra but as an intrinsic part of the accord Also exploring the role of external partners in the construction of an economically stronger more united Africa this fascinating study reveals how the AfCFTA is contributing to sustainable development across the continent

Regional Developmentalism through Law Jonathan Bashi Rudahindwa, 2018-05-20 Offering a study of regionalism in Africa and investigating the ways in which law can be used to address the issues raised by regional processes on the continent this book examines the African Economic Community considering that it has been entrusted to coordinate and to harmonize policies between various Regional Economic Communities RECs across the continent thereby influencing the continent's approach towards regional integration It seeks to identify how law can be used to strengthen the African RECs while ensuring that they achieve their goal of promoting regional development across the continent Drawing upon economic and political theories and using a critical doctrinal analysis of legal texts and norms the book uncovers the legal and economic underpinnings of the model of regional integration followed by the regional schemes operating under the banner of the AEC aiming to contribute to the search for effective methods to ensure the success of these various initiatives Proposing the concept of Regional Developmentalism Through Law as the most suitable conceptual framework to support the effective establishment of an African Economic Community this book will be of interest to researchers academics and policy makers interested in the correlation between law regional integration and development in Africa

Investment and Risk in Africa Paul Collier, Catherine Pattillo, 2016-07-27 This book brings together academics in the fields of economics political science and law with business practitioners in the fields of risk assessment and portfolio management Their contributions are sequenced to tell a story Africa is perceived as being a highly risky continent As a result investment is discouraged These risks are partly exaggerated However to the extent that they reflect genuine problems they are capable of being mitigated by insurance and reduced by political restraints such as central banks investment charters and international agreements

African Voices on Structural Adjustment Codesria, International Development Research Centre (Canada), 2003 African Voices on Structural Adjustment presents 14 in depth studies on the history and future of structural adjustment in Africa Each study appraises the performance of structural adjustment policies SAPs with respect to a particular sector or issue Each evaluates the compatibility of SAPs with the requirements for long term development in Africa And most importantly each presents a truly African perspective The contributors represent an outstanding collection of leading African economists and development experts This volume is intended as a companion to Our Continent Our Future It will appeal to students professors academics and researchers in development economics and African studies professionals in donor organizations around the world and economic policymakers in both the governmental and non governmental sectors     Regionalism in Africa Daniel Bach,2015-12-22 Africa which was not long ago discarded as a hopeless and irrelevant region has become a new frontier for global trade investment and the conduct of international relations This book surveys the socio economic intellectual and security related dimensions of African regionalisms since the turn of the 20th century It argues that the continent deserves to be considered as a crucible for conceptualizing and contextualizing the ongoing influence of colonial policies the emergence of specific integration and security cultures the spread of cross border regionalisation processes at the expense of region building the interplay between territory space and trans state networks and the intrinsic ambivalence of global frontier narratives This is emphasized through the identification of distinctive threads of regionalism which by focusing on genealogies trajectories and ideals transcend the binary divide between old and new regionalisms In doing so the book opens new perspectives not only on Africa in international relations but also Africa s own international relations This text will be of key interest to students and scholars of African politics African history regionalism comparative regionalism and more broadly to international political economy international relations and global and regional governance     Tulsa Journal of Comparative & International Law ,2003     Regional Integration, Trade and Industry in Africa Helmut Asche,2021-06-14 This book examines the past present and prospects of regional economic integration in Africa The empirical analysis ranges from unions formed during the years following independence to the proposed African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA which aims to remove trade barriers between all 55 African states In addition the book explores to what extent Africa s Regional Economic Communities RECs have advanced in accordance with a linear integration model of goods labor and capital markets The book subsequently evaluates the suitability of the European model of deep integration with costly institutions for the conditions specific to Africa considering for example the role of informal and non recorded trade Stylized cases of regional division of labour with increasing returns and imperfect competition are introduced to support the economic integration logic Past and current economic policies in Africa are scrutinized to answer the question how can African regions best foster new manufacturing industries and value chains across the continent In conclusion the book outlines content and processes of Common Industrial Policy in the African regions The book also addresses the controversial issue of international trade agreements between developing countries and the European Union or the USA and investigates whether these agreements impede or promote economic development in Africa The book includes a detailed roadmap describing how to improve key clauses of agreements for economic partnership in the interest of African countries In closing it outlines a new vision of joint sustainable development for Africa and Europe     Regional Integration and Trade Liberalization in SubSaharan Africa David Greenaway,Ademola Oyejide,Benno Ndulu,2016-01-29 An authoritative guide to

Africa's economic development and prospects This is volume 4 in a major international research project coordinated by the African Economic Research Consortium and bringing together the top academics in development economics trade policy and international economics from Africa Europe and North America This fourth volume draws upon the theoretical framework and detailed studies of both individual countries and regional schemes of the previous three books to present an analysis of Africa's prospects for economic development regional integration and co operation and her changing place in the world economy today

Human Rights in Nigeria's External Relations Philip Aka, 2016-12-20 This book is a broad ranging argument for thorough reforms at home and abroad in Nigeria as the only antidote to the nation building dilemmas Nigeria confronts in the first quarter of the twenty first century Because of its enormous material and human endowments Nigeria is dubbed the Giant of Africa It is a moniker many of its leaders take seriously Yet Nigeria is a state rife with instability some of it periodically erupting into violence Given still ongoing national security challenges in the land that notoriously includes a bloody religion oriented terrorism the Fourth Republic since 1999 the longest period of continuous democratic rule since independence key to the timeline of this book has not been insulated from the spell of instability The main argument of this work is that internationally agreed upon ethical standards embedded in human rights can save Nigeria This book is a methodologically and theoretically grounded seminal discourse on Nigerian foreign relations that spells out the human rights or lack thereof in those relations including underlying and impinging domestic forces This work is set around six issues of application embedded in a temple of Nigeria's human rights foreign policy comprising two steps and four pillars reconstructed national interest increased human rights at home redesigned peacekeeping reshaped foreign policy machinery increased bilateralism in foreign relations and the use of ECOWAS as human rights tool Although focused on the period since independence for proper understanding of events from the past that shape the current patterns of politics in the land this book also embodies a historical background chapter that overviews the pre colonial and colonial eras

Strategy to Combat Covid 19 164 Digital Local Transparent Six truths of supply chains after Covid 19 171 Africa and the World Trading System T. Ademola Oyejide, W. M. Lyakurwa, 2005 This three volume set presents the results of a research project initiated by the African Economic Research Consortium The project intended to identify and examine the critical analytical and policy issues involved in Africa's economic links with the rest of the world particularly in the context of the emerging global trading system The project had two distinct but closely related component parts The first was based on empirical region wide analysis and was designed to provide the framework for the menu of issues explored Assessing World Bank Support for Trade, 1987-2004 Yvonne Manu Tsikata, 2006-03-14 An independent evaluation of the World Bank's extensive support to developing countries on trade issues between 1987 and 2004 The study assesses the development effectiveness of World Bank trade related advocacy capacity building lending and research It examines the extent to which the Bank's policies and assistance have met its stated objectives in the area of trade and makes recommendations to strengthen the effectiveness of future Bank trade assistance The Palgrave Handbook of African Political Economy Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2020-06-23 This handbook constitutes a specialist single compendium that analyses African political economy in its theoretical historical and policy dimensions It emphasizes the uniqueness of African political economy within a global capitalist system that is ever changing and complex Chapters in the book discuss how domestic and international political economic forces have shaped and continue to shape development outcomes on the continent Contributors also provoke new thinking on theories and policies to better position the continent's economy to be a critical global force The uniqueness of the handbook lies in linking theory and praxis with the past future and various dimensions of the political economy of Africa The Southern African Development Community (SADC) and the European Union (EU) Johannes Muntschick, 2017-10-09 This book explores regionalism in the Southern African Development Community SADC and highlights the influence of the European Union EU as an extra regional actor on the organization and integration process The analysis is guided by theory and explains the emergence institutional design and performance of SADC's major integration projects in the issue areas of the economy security and infrastructure It provides in this way a profound assessment of the organization as a whole The study shows that South Africa plays a regional key role as driver for integration while external influence of the EU is ambivalent in character because it unfolds a supportive or obstructive impact The author argues that the EU gains influence over regional integration processes in the SADC on the basis of patterns of asymmetric interdependence and becomes a game changer insofar as it facilitates or impedes solutions to regional cooperation problems Assessing Regional Integration in Africa V, 2012 The fifth of the series ARIA V has come at a time of renewed enthusiasm for shortening the period of the vision of the Abuja Treaty Its overall objective is to provide an analytical research publication that defines frameworks for African Governments the African Union and the Regional Economic Communities towards accelerating the establishment of the African Common Market through the speedy removal of all tariff and non tariff barriers obstacles to free movement of people investments and factors of production in general across Africa and through fast tracking the creation of an African continental Free Trade Area
