

*Уважаемые читатели журнала
«Региональные проблемы»!*

Вашему вниманию предлагается тематический номер журнала, посвященный исследованию приграничных регионов России. Тема не является новой, однако представленные работы отражают современные аспекты развития приграничных территорий России и сопредельных стран. Опубликованные статьи затрагивают как общие вопросы развития приграничных территорий, так и региональные особенности.

В рамках общего блока в статье Н.П. Неклюдовой и Е.А. Трушковой представлены результаты библиометрического анализа русскоязычных публикаций по вопросам исследования российского приграничья. В статье В.А. Колосова, М.В. Зотовой и А.А. Медведева на основе обработки снимков 30-метрового расширения и среднемасштабных топографических карт дана оценка социально-экономической ситуации, показаны контрасты по обе стороны границы России. Авторы делают вывод об асинхронности процессов на «новых» (постсоветских) и «старых» границах, увеличении асимметрии трансграничных взаимодействий.

Новым направлением в исследовании социально-экономических процессов в приграничных регионах России является изучение женской миграции. В работе С.Ю. Сивоплясовой приграничные регионы России разделены на три группы исходя из динамики женской миграции.

Региональная часть исследований представлена работами естественно-научного и социально-экономического блока. В коллективной статье А.А. Аверина, В.Н. Бурика, Т.А. Рубцовой и Чжу Баогуана представлены результаты сравнительного анализа природных условий и списка позвоночных животных в особо охраняемых природных территориях России и Китая.

Объектом исследования большинства статей социально-экономического блока является Дальний Восток. Подходы и оценки англоязычной историографии (1990–2010-е гг.) по вопросу участия китайских граждан в аграрной отрасли юга Дальнего Востока России раскрыты в статье Е.Н. Чернолуцкой. В статье А.С. Ващук показаны особенности становления и развития предпринимательства на железнодорожном транспорте в Хасанском районе Приморского края. Вопросы безопасности приграничных территорий в российско-китайских отношениях, перспективные пути минимизации угроз рассмотрены в статье Е.В. Гамермана. Результаты социологического исследования об отношении местных жителей к некоренному населению и интеграции в Алтайском крае представлены в статье Н.П. Гончаровой и Н.В. Варахсиной.

Несмотря на различную предметную и территориальную направленность исследований данного блока, выводы авторов отражают значимую роль фактора приграничного положения региона в характере происходящих процессов.

Редакция журнала крайне признательна авторам, поддержавшим нашу идею формированию этого номера журнала. Мы уверены, что представленные публикации будут интересны и полезны не только представителям сферы науки и образования, но и органов власти, и некоммерческих организаций, деятельность которых связана с изучением процессов, происходящих в приграничных регионах России.
