Registration Methods For The Small Museums:

Registration Methods for the Small Museum Daniel B. Reibel, Deborah Rose Van Horn, 2018 Registration Methods for the Small Museum has been the definitive guide to registration methodology for small museums since 1978 The book covers all aspects of the registration process and provides practical solutions for the small museum professional in a concise readable manner This step by step guide begins with developing policy and takes the reader through acquisition numbering accessioning documentation loans and deaccessioning It is a great introduction to both manual and computer systems and can help those that are unfamiliar with museum registration systems learn more about their collections The fifth edition updates the handbook to fit the registration systems in today's small museums and provides additional forms that weren't in previous additions of the book Features include oEasy to understand forms and templates oOverviews of both manual and computer registration systems oOverview of the acquisition process oOverview of the cataloging process oOverviews of museum loans oExamples of a collections policy and registration manual for a small museum oGuidance for small museums on how to create a new registration system or interpret the one they have Registration Methods for the Small Museum Daniel B. Reibel, 1978

Registration Methods for the Small Museum Daniel B. Reibel, 2008 Daniel B Reibel's Registration Methods for the Small Museum has been the definitive guide to registration methodology since 1978 Covering all aspects of the registration of museum collections Registration Methods for the Small Museum provides practical solutions for any museum professional in a concise readable manner The new fourth edition brings the classic handbook up to date with the electronic registration techniques that are available for today's museum Things Great and Small John E. Simmons, 2018 This revised edition of Things Great and Small is a comprehensive resource for preparing and applying collections management policies Simmons reviews current ideas and literature on the subject highlights the issues that collections management policies should address and explains the pros and cons of choosing some policy options over others

Registration Methods for Small History Museums Daniel B. Reibel, 1991 Exchanging Objects Catherine A. Nichols, 2025-07 As an historical account of the exchange of duplicate specimens between anthropologists at the Smithsonian Institution and museums collectors and schools around the world in the late nineteenth century this book reveals connections between both well known museums and little known local institutions created through the exchange of museum objects It explores how anthropologists categorized some objects in their collections as duplicate specimens making them potential candidates for exchange This historical form of what museum professionals would now call deaccessioning considers the intellectual and technical requirement of classifying objects in museums and suggests that a deeper understanding of past museum practice can inform mission driven contemporary museum work Managing Previously Unmanaged

Collections Angela Kipp, 2024-11-19 This book is a practical guide for everyone who is confronted with a collection that hasn't seen any preventive conservation or cataloging before It helps gaining an overview defining priorities and organizing the work in a way it is safe for the objects and the people involved It defines logical exits goals to work towards where the collection is in a state the next steps can wait without risking the progress made Later on readers learn to define their own logical exits that fit their specific situation Compared to other books about collections management it doesn't focus on the details of collections care but rather on the big picture of managing such a project It assumes that at the beginning there is nothing but the reader and an unmanaged collection so that part of the project is to source money material and people to help The second edition has a new chapter on setting up collections management systems the original text was reworked and in parts enhanced there are additional success stories in the last chapter with references to them in the text and the bibliography now contains some resources for natural history indigenous and archaeological collections

The Small Museum Toolkit Cinnamon Catlin-Legutko, Stacy Klingler, 2012 As a small museum staff person you are responsible for a lot including areas outside of your expertise or training You need a quick reference that makes the process of becoming a sustainable valued institution less overwhelming The Small Museum Toolkit is a collection of six books that serves as a launching point for small museum staff to pursue best practices and meet museum standards These brief volumes address governance financial management human resources audience relations interpretation and stewardship for small museums and historic sites Amazon

Positioning Your Museum as a Critical Community Asset Robert P. Connolly, Elizabeth A. Bollwerk, 2016-11-10 In this how to guide practitioners at cultural heritage venues share their experiences in building sustainable relationships with their geographic and demographic communities The volume includes practical discussions of activity types that museums can employ to build relationships with their communities including education advocacy co creative while serving as a community asset and resource Case studies include direct application of successes and lessons learned with an emphasis on small to medium sized institutions with limited staff and budgets Highlights include Thematic discussions on topics such as building an advocacy network between the museum and community developing cultural heritage institutions as critical and essential components of educational systems museum response to community expressed needs through a co creative approach the varied means for developing community members as cultural heritage stakeholders and positioning the cultural heritage institution as an integral community asset Twenty case studies directly apply the thematic discussions in small to medium sized museum contexts Extensive list of resources including digital links to forms workbooks and guides produced in the case studies A list of national organizations and an extensive bibliography on community museum engagement Specifically addressed to smaller institutions with limited budgets and limited or no full time staff the volume includes cost effective projects that can be completed for 1 500 or less

Active Collections Elizabeth Wood, Rainey Tisdale, Trevor Jones, 2017-11-07 In recent years many museums have implemented sweeping changes in how they engage audiences However changes to the field's approaches to collections stewardship have come much more slowly Active Collections critically examines existing approaches to museum collections and explores practical yet radical ways that museums can better manage their collections to actively advance their missions Approaching the question of modern museum collection stewardship from a position of tough love the authors argue that the museum field risks being constrained by rigid ways of thinking about objects Examining the field's relationship to objects artifacts and specimens the volume explores the question of stewardship through the dissection of a broad range of issues including questions of quality over quantity emotional attachment dispassionate cataloging and cognitive biases in curatorship The essays look to insights from fields as diverse as forest management library science and the psychology of compulsive hoarding to inform and innovate collection practices Essay contributions come from both experienced museum professionals and scholars from disciplines as diverse as psychology education and history The result is a critical exploration that makes the book essential reading for museum professionals as well as those in training
