González, 2008-04-21 An analytically sophisticated and heavily documented study of two Latin American countries in their economic and political move toward democracy Choice In 1982 Latin America experienced a region wide economic collapse that had a drastic effect on governments throughout Central and South America Many were pushed to the verge of failure while several of the most authoritarian Argentina Bolivia Brazil and Uruguay went over the brink Yet somehow Chile's repressive military dictatorship and Mexico's hegemonic civilian regime endured amid the economic chaos Dual Transitions from Authoritarian Rule explains why these two regimes survived the upheaval and how each progressed toward a more open democratic market driven system in later years Using comparative analysis of Chile and Mexico Francisco González explains that their governments though different ideologically shared a type of authoritarian rule that maintained the political status quo while aiding proponents of political and economic liberalization Featuring a discussion of parallel phenomena in Brazil Hungary Taiwan and South Korea Dual Transitions from Authoritarian Rule challenges the received wisdom about sociopolitical and economic change within authoritarian nations A Choice Magazine Outstanding Academic Title The Secular and the Sacred William Safran, 2004-08-02 What is the place of religion in modern political systems This volume addresses that question by focusing on ten countries across several geographic areas Western and East Central Europe North America the Middle East and South Asia These countries are comparable in the sense that they are committed to constitutional rule have embraced a more or less secular culture and have formal guarantees of freedom of religion Yet in all the cases examined here religion impinges on the political system in the form of legal establishment semi legitimation subvention and or selective institutional arrangements and its role is reflected in cultural norms electoral behaviour and public policies The relationship between religion and politics comes in many varieties in differing countries yet all are faced with three major challenges modernity democracy and the increasingly multi ethnic and multi religious nature of their societies Colonialism and Narrative in Puerto Rico Victor C. Simpson, 2004 This book analyzes the effect of the colonial experience on the protagonists in the novels of Pedro Juan Soto a renowned author of the Puerto Rican Generation of 1950 Arguing in keeping with Soto's generational and personal pessimism that the protagonists are anti heroes who struggle with their environment and succumb to it in different ways it acknowledges that the themes of the Puerto Rican novel are firmly rooted in the island's reality and offers a cogent review of the literary and socio political context against which Soto's work must be understood. It also inserts Soto into the canon of post colonial writers while foregrounding his realist approach to characterization which is the author's means of articulating his social concerns.
