McClelland,2018-10-15 Featuring over 1 200 topical entries arranged alphabetically this encyclopedia provides diverse and detailed coverage of the related subjects of reincarnation and karma Its in depth examination ranges from ancient beliefs to those of the present incorporating all relevant world cultures A series of broad thematic entries cover foundational aspects while over a thousand highly focused entries deal with various societies and organizations which support the concepts of reincarnation and karma specific religious groups sects and associations key individuals both historic and modern and related beliefs concepts and practices      Reincarnation Or Resurrection? Hermann Ha ring,Johann Baptist Metz,1993      Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A. Lane,2005-01-26 Today more and more people are asking questions about human social and cosmic destiny Does the universe have a purpose What is the point of historical existence What happens at death What can we hope for Is it possible to talk meaningfully about another world In Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A Lane addresses these and other questions The author sets out to develop a theology of hope rooted in both human experience and the Christian tradition In discussing Christian belief Lane pays particular attention to the death and resurrection of Christ as both the pivotal eschatological event and the fundamental ground of Christian hope At the same time he deals with contemporary human experience addressing questions arising from the Marxist critique of Christianity the nuclear threat the ecological crisis and the apparent emptiness of much post modern thinking Dermot Lane confronts difficult issues such as death heaven hell purgatory resurrection reincarnation and the possibility of universal salvation with realism and honesty The end result is a new theological synthesis that takes account of recent developments in anthropology feminism and cosmology This carefully crafted book will be of value to all who are asking searching questions about the meaning of living and dying

Between Death and Resurrection Stephen Yates,2018-08-09 Christians look with hope to the resurrection of the dead and the restoration of all things But what of those who have already died Do they also await these things or have they in some sense already happened for them Within the Catholic theological community this question has traditionally been answered in terms of the disembodied souls of human beings awaiting bodily resurrection Since the 1960s Catholic theologians have proposed two alternatives resurrection at death into the Last Day and the consummation of all things or resurrection in death into an interim state in which the embodied dead await with us the final consummation of all things This book critically examines the Scriptural philosophical and theological reasons for these alternatives and on the basis of this analysis offers an account of the traditional schema which makes clear that in spite of these challenges it remains the preferable option      Reclaiming Theodicy M. Stoeber,2005-09-15 In Reclaiming Theodicy Michael Stoeber explores various themes of theodicy theology that defends God in the face of evil by creatively developing a distinction between transformative and destructive suffering Emphasising the importance of human compassion and illustrating various spiritual experiences of God that are healing the book proposes a narrative of life within which one might understand suffering in relation to a personal God of ultimate power and love and suggests basic principles toward developing a politics of compassion

The Resurrection Stephen T. Davis, Daniel Kendall, Gerald O'Collins, 1997-05-30 This collection of papers is an international ecumenical and interdisciplinary study of Jesus resurrection that emerged from the Resurrection Summit meeting held in New York at Easter 1996 The contributions represent mainstream scholarship on biblical studies fundamental theology systematic theology philosophy moral theology and homiletics and combine to offer a timely wide ranging and well balanced work on the central truth of Christianity

Asian Christian Theologians in Dialogue with Buddhism Kenneth Fleming, 2002 This book is a study of three of Asia's most respected contemporary theologians Kosuke Koyoma Choan Seng Song and Aloysius Pieris It gives an introduction to Asian Buddhism and the Christian dialogue with Buddhists in Asia Furthermore it examines the work of each theologian in detail looking at the method and content of their dialogue and outlining its impact upon their respective theologies The book provides a critique of their dialogue and engages with the theological issues that have emerged In areas such as religious identity theological method and liberation theology it is shown that their conversation with Buddhism contributes to the development of a genuinely Asian theology and moreover raises important challenges to the worldwide theological community churches and to those engaged in interreligious dialogue

"But God Raised Him from the Dead" Kevin Anderson, 2007-02-01 But God Raised Him from the Dead is the first comprehensive study of Jesus resurrection in Luke Acts Through wide sweeping research and detailed exegesis Dr Anderson supports the claim that the resurrection of Jesus is the focus of the message of salvation in Luke Acts The study situates Luke's resurrection theology within Jewish and Hellenistic conceptions of the afterlife and addresses critical questions in Lukan studies such as the relationship between resurrection ascension and exaltation and the vital linkage between Jesus resurrection the hope of Israel and the final resurrection of the dead But God Raised Him from the Dead demonstrates how the resurrection of Messiah Jesus is indispensable to the major theological dimensions of Luke's narrative of God's saving action Jesus resurrection is a key component in the divine plan to raise up the Savior for Israel to extend God's saving benefits to the ends of the earth and to guarantee the complete fulfillment of the hope of Israel and salvation of the people of God at the final resurrection of the dead

Faith and the Future Johann Baptist Metz, Jürgen Moltmann, 1995 In complementary ways these authors have emphasized the eschatological character of Christianity in a way that does justice both to the transcendent and this worldly implications of the gospel This book brings their work into a unique dialogue drawing on their respective contributions to the international journal Concilium of which they are both editors architecture the sexual abuse crisis doctrine and theology spirituality and worship and church structure     Hope in Action Steven M. Rodenborn, 2014-08-01 This volume contends against a major lacuna in the story of eschatology in the twentieth century by offering a historical and comparative analysis of Edward Schillebeeckx's prophetic eschatology and Johann Baptist Metz's apocalyptic eschatology with the goal of identifying relative advantages and limitations of these divergent eschatological frameworks for rendering a Christian account of hope that prompts action in the public arena Rodenborn provides a fresh angle on eschatologies of hope     Resurrection James H. Charlesworth, 2008-10-01 Resurrection is the central feature of the New Testament gospels and lies at the center of many of Paul's letters as well In addition the doctrine of the resurrection lies at the core of the Christian church's faith The essays in this stunning collection explore the idea of resurrection as the idea appears not only in the New Testament texts but also in the Dead Sea Scrolls the pseudepigraphal Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs and in contemporary theology Charlesworth asks where the concept of resurrection appears and the ways we know it and he also examines the concept of resurrection in the Dead Sea Scrolls and the New Testament Casey Elledge explores the earliest evidence we have for a notion of a resurrection of the dead and investigates the hope for Israel in Judaism and Christianity found in the Testaments Crenshaw looks at the Hebrew Bible's ideas of resurrection and Hendrikus Boers examines the meaning of Christ's resurrections in Paul's writings W Waite Willis explores a theology of resurrection     Time & Eternity Antje Jackelen, 2005-06-28 What is time Is there a link between objective knowledge about time and subjective experience of time And what is eternity Does religion have the answer Does science Antje Jackelen investigates the problem and concept of time Her analysis of the subject includes The notion of time and eternity as it is narrated through Christian hymn books stemming from Germany Sweden and the English speaking world with insights into changes of the concept and understanding of time in Christian spirituality over the past few decades Theological approaches to time and eternity as well as a look at Trinitarian theology and its relation to time The discussion of scientific theories of time including Newtonian relativistic quantum and chaos theories The formulation of a theology of time a theological mathematical model incorporating relational thinking oriented towards the future the doctrine of trinity and the notion of eschatology Descriptive editor     The Many Faces of the Divine Hermann Haering, Johann Baptist Metz, 1995 Elenchus of Biblica, 1993     Who's who in Theology and Science, 1996     Rediscovering the Human Andrea M. Ng'weshemi, 2002 By assuming that the data for understanding the human being and human nature is given and therefore remains the same at all times and in all places Christian theological anthropology has barely quenched the quests for meaning and fulfillment that have constantly emerged in every age Modern western theologians such as Barth and Rahner have sought to tie theological anthropology with Christology with the conviction that Jesus Christ is paradigmatic of what humanity should be
