Mixed Categories Irina Nikolaeva, Andrew Spencer, 2020 Uses an explicit formal framework to explore and model cross linguistic variation in constructions where a noun modifies another noun The Old World Kitchen Elisabeth Luard, 2013-11-12 The best cookbook no one's ever heard of Mark Bittman former New York Times food columnist One of the great cookbooks of all time The Mail on Sunday The rediscovered classic cookbook on the essentials of authentic back to basics European cuisine with over 300 recipes from 25 countries including France Spain Greece Italy and more Award winning food writer Elisabeth Luard joyously salutes the foundations of modern Western cooking with recipes collected during more than 25 years of travel and research many of them spent living in rural France Spain Greece Ireland and Italy Divided into 14 sections The Old World Kitchen includes recipes for Vegetable Dishes Potato Dishes Corner Cupboard Dishes Noodles and Dough Based Dishes Barnyard and Dairy Fish and Seafood Poultry Small Game Pork Shepherd's Meats Beef Reindeer and Grilled Meats Breads and Yeast Pastries Sweet Dishes The Rustic Kitchen This definitive collection of over 300 time tested recipes from 25 European countries is an indispensable guide to the simple delicious and surprisingly exotic dishes of peasant Europe The Benefits of the Cold and Domestication Florian Stammler, Hiroki Takakura, 2025-04-28 This book explores cooperation between humans and animals in extreme environments and contends that understanding domestication is crucial to explaining how life is possible in such conditions The chapters draw on work from anthropology genetics law and geography with a range of ethnographic case studies from cold environments The contributors offer new evidence for rethinking the dichotomy of trust vs domination previously used to characterize human animal relations They show how humans and animals partner for survival and how a cold environment does not merely threaten existence but rather creates opportunities Domestication is presented as a continuous mutually beneficial human animal relationship of becoming familiar with each other and the surrounding environment which can lead to a symbiotic partnership of multiple agents for adapting to changes including a warming climate This volume will be relevant to scholars from anthropology geography and related disciplines interested in human animal relations ecology and the environment particularly in the North The Heart is a Quarter Pounder Jeffrey Miller, 2005 Poetry Not since Jim Gustafson edited The First One's Free in 1978 has the work of the late poet Jeffrey Miller been available This new collection includes unpublished poems as well as an introduction by Andrei Codrescu and an afterward by Bruce Cheney both of whom were friends of Miller's Jeffrey Miller's work has been an underground classic inspiring and captivating three generations of poets who have had the good fortune to encounter Miller's work Canonical Morphology and Syntax Dunstan Brown, Marina Chumakina, Greville G. Corbett, 2012-11-08 This is the first book to present Canonical Typology a framework for comparing constructions and categories across languages The canonical method takes the criteria used to define particular categories or phenomena eg negation finiteness possession to create a multidimensional space in which language specific instances can be placed In this way the issue of fit becomes a matter of greater or lesser proximity to a canonical ideal Drawing on the expertise of world class scholars in the field the book addresses the issue of cross linguistic comparability illustrates the range of areas from morphosyntactic features to reported speech to which linguists are currently applying this methodology and explores to what degree the approach succeeds in discovering the elusive canon of linguistic phenomena Reindeer Soup Brittany Ohler,2022-12-08 A Grammar of Tundra Nenets Irina

Nikolaeva,2014-06-18 The book is the first substantial description of Tundra Nenets a highly endangered Uralic language spoken in Western Siberia and the north of European Russia destined for the international linguistic community Its purpose is to provide a thorough documentation of all of the major grammatical phenomena in the language The grammar particularly emphasizes the description of syntax because this has traditionally been a very neglected area of Nenets studies Many syntactic aspects have not received a systematic treatment in the existing literature or have not been addressed at all Since the existing works are not easily available incomplete or idiosyncratically presented Tundra Nenets syntax has played little or no role in the considerations of modern linguists whether more descriptively or theoretically inclined The book is largely descriptive it is not intended to address theoretical questions per se and the description is not meant to be formulated within a particular framework However it identifies and discusses issues which are of broad typological and theoretical interest The description is richly exemplified Most of the cited examples are the result of fieldwork conducted by the in various locations They are sentences produced by native speakers either spontaneously or elicited in response to questions posed in Russian Other examples are excerpts from original texts The Everything Slow Cooking For A Crowd Cookbook Katie
