Reinterpreting Menopause:

Reinterpreting Menopause Paul Komesaroff, Philipa Rothfield, Jeanne Daly, 2013-05-13 Reinterpreting Menopause brings together a number of reflections from a broad range of areas including feminism cultural studies clinical medicine sociology philosophy and political science and includes the voices and experiences of menopausal women themselves In an innovative series of essays current thinking about medicine society and the body is critically examined Particular attention is given to the medical representations of menopause biology and aging the history of medical approaches to women and the tensions between bio medical models and other explanations of menopause Contributors include E Ann Kaplan Emily Martin Mia Campioni Fiona Mackie Roe Sybylla Wendy Rogers Kwok Lei Leng Margaret Morganroth Gullette and Robyn Gardner

Menopause Transitions and the Workplace Vanessa Beck, Jo Brewis, 2024-01-10 The symptoms of menopause transitions have profound implications for work and are in turn affected by work Despite this the topic is rarely discussed in management and organization studies Providing an overview of existing knowledge in the field of menopause in the workplace this collection re theorizes the management of human resources as it relates to the connections between gender age and the body in the workplace environment with an intersectional analysis Offering theoretical frameworks from experts as well as possible practical approaches that can be implemented in workplaces to support women transitioning through menopause this is a go to reference for academics and policy makers working in the field Menopause Lynnette Leidy Sievert, 2006-07-24 Menopause is a biological reality for all women in their forties and fifties Yet the way we think about the cessation of menstruation is influenced by a variety of factors Cultural and technological influences combine with biology to transform this universal phenomenon into an experience that varies considerably between cultures and individuals In this concise book Lynnette Leidy Sievert draws on her own case studies from Puebla Mexico and western Massachusetts as well as on comparative data from other studies in places such as Slovenia Paraguay and Hawaii to explore the different ways that women experience menopause around the world Sievert suggests that attempts by medical professionals to define the normal occurrence of menopause including its typical onset and symptoms may not be realistic when considering how lifestyle nutrition and workload can contribute to diverging realities She explores how women feel about hysterectomies chemotherapy and other medical procedures and treatments that stop menstruation prematurely She also considers recent advances in technology including post menopausal birth which have turned what was previously an unavoidable end of fertility into something that can be postponed A unique comparative look at women s experiences this text brings new perspectives to the mainstream literature on the subject and invites readers to consider compelling questions about menopause its meanings and its future Ecocritical Menopause Nicole Anae, 2024-07-08 Ecocritical Menopause Women Literature Environment The Change is the first volume of its kind to bring together cross sectional ecofeminist voices privileging women s menopausal positionality within literary works This collection reexamines menopause across the disciplinary fields of ecofeminism and ecocriticism as clearly the most neglected phase of the menstrual cycle and aims to develop a critical discourse in counterpoint to the persistent cultural and critical legacies that sustain underrating women in midlife In highlighting selected literary representations of female being in transition this volume includes Exploration of the core motifs mediating the fashioning of menopausal women including biology the body body shaming climacterium hysteria the crone hag figure femininity gender identity reproduction sexlessness and asexuality Reexamination of histo cultural biases that continue to perpetuate a devaluation of women after menopause such as ageism degeneration loss of fertility and myths of essentialism patriarchy and hegemony social taboos the medicalization of menopause and cultural menophobia Analysis of literature genres in which we find portraiture of peri post menopause subjectivity such as autofiction crime fiction detective fiction folktales frame tale fiction mystery poetry short story and the whodunit Managing the Monstrous Feminine Jane M. Ussher, 2006 Jane Ussher takes a unique approach to the study of the material and discursive practices associated with the construction and regulation of the female body Hot and Bothered Judith A. Houck, 2006-02-15 This book deals with the experiences of an airman a radio telephone operator one of the many ordinary people who served their country in the Second World War The Health and Wellbeing Coaches' Handbook Jonathan Passmore, Badri Bajaj, Lindsay G. Oades, 2024-12-30 This comprehensive volume offers ideas examples and guidance to help coaches develop skills in their coaching practice specifically in the areas of health and wellbeing as they are experienced by their clients The book also explores the growing importance of wellbeing coaching within the wider coaching world and the health sector Starting with definitions of wellbeing and health coaching then delving into health and wellbeing issues faced by clients and tools for coaches along with their practical applications this book includes theory case studies and reflection exercises so that readers can use it in a personal and practical way The Health and Wellbeing Coaches Handbook is an essential resource for coach practitioners supervisors and consultants working with clients as well as for students in post graduate programmes including coaching health and allied health professional programmes and human resource professionals focusing on employee wellness

Women Ageing Miriam Bernard, Val Harding Davies, Linda Machin, Judith Phillips, 2005-06-22 Women Ageing provides a better understanding of what ageing is like for women and challenges the myths which have grown up around the ageing process Blending the scholarly the personal and the political it reveals the range of strategies and identities women adopt to manage the transitions of the second half of the life course In doing so it uncovers not only the commonalities and the similarities between mid life and older women but also some of the variation and diversity relating to ethnicity and race class disability and sexual orientation Women Ageing makes the ordinary lives of ordinary women as in this instance they grow older more visible Its findings have important implications for policy and practice All those studying or working with older people will find it an illuminating text The Wrong Prescription for Women Maureen C. McHugh, Joan C. Chrisler, 2015-07-14 This groundbreaking book challenges the medicalized approach to women's experiences including menstruation pregnancy and menopause and suggests that there are better ways for women to cope with real issues they may face Before any woman diets douches botoxes reduces reconstructs or fills a prescription for antidepressants statins hormones menstrual suppressants or diet pills she should read this book Contesting common medical practice the book addresses the many aspects of women's lives that have been targeted as deficient in order to support the billion dollar profits of the medical pharmacological industry and suggests alternatives to these remedies The contributors psychologists sociologists and health experts are also gender experts and feminist scholars who recognize the ways in which gender is an important aspect of the human experience In this eye opening work they challenge the marketing and science that increasingly render women's bodies and experiences as a series of symptoms diseases and dysfunctions that require treatment by medical professionals who prescribe pharmaceutical and surgical interventions Each article in the book addresses the marketing of a specific condition that has been constructed in a way that convinces a woman that her body is inadequate or her experience and behavior are not good enough Among the topics addressed are menstruation menopause pregnancy post partum adjustment sexual desire weight body dissatisfaction moodiness depression grief and anxiety

Technologies of Reproduction Across the Lifecourse Victoria Boydell, Katharine Dow, 2022-09-15 This book presents a dialogue between scholars on different aspects of reproductive technologies If we continue to work in disciplinary silos reproductive studies is in danger of missing and thereby reproducing the kinds of power structures that shape reproductive life

Body Failure Wendy Mitchinson, 2013-01-01 In this energetic new study Wendy Mitchinson traces medical perspectives on the treatment of women in Canada in the first half of the twentieth century It is based on in depth research in a variety of archival sources including Canadian medical journals textbooks used in many of Canada's medical faculties popular health literature patient case records and hospital annual reports as well as interviews with women who lived during the period Each chapter examines events throughout a woman's life cycle puberty menstruation sexuality marriage and motherhood and the health problems connected to them infertility birth control and abortion gynaecology cancer nervous disorders and menopause Mitchinson provides a sensitive understanding of the physician patient relationship the unease of many doctors about the bodies of their female patients as well as overriding concerns about the relationship between female and male bodies Throughout the book Mitchinson takes care to examine the roles and agency of both patients and practitioners as diverse individuals

Age Becomes Us Leni Marshall, 2015-06-30 Deconstructs fiction and nonfiction to further understandings of how aging and old age are created In lively accessible prose this book expands the reach and depth of age studies A review of age studies methods in theory literature and practice leads readers to see how their own intersectional identities shape their beliefs about age aging and old age This study asks readers to interrogate the texts of menopause self help books on aging and foundational age studies works In addition to the study of these nonfiction texts the poetry and prose of Doris Lessing Lucille Clifton and Louise Erdrich serve as vehicles for exploring how age relations work including how they invoke readers into kinships of reciprocal care as othermothers otherdaughters and otherelders The literary chapters examine how gifted storytellers provide enactments portrayals and metaphorical uses of age to create transformative potential

Testosterone Dreams J. Hoberman, 2005 Testosterone Dreams is a detailed and frightening look at the shifting balance between patients fantasies and the entrepreneurial bioscience that fuels these desires Hoberman reveals the darker side of medicine that enhances athletic performances and how the publicity given those performances generates wider demands for enhancement medicine This book is a crucial contribution to the ethical deliberation of who we humans want to be as bodies and as selves Arthur W Frank author of The Wounded Storyteller

The Body in Everyday Life Sarah Nettleton, Jonathan Watson, 2002-03-11 We all have a body but how does it impact upon our day to day life This book sets out to explore how ordinary women men and children talk about their bodies through four central themes physical and emotional bodies illness and disability gender ageing A coherent collection of such empirical research The Body in Everyday Life provides an accessible introduction to the sociology of the body a field previously dominated by theoretical or philosophical accounts

Art into Life Alexandra Kokoli, Deborah Cherry, 2020-05-14 Tracey Emin has undergone an extraordinary metamorphosis from a young unknown artist into the bad girl of the Young British Art yBA movement challenging the complacency of the art establishment in both her work and her life Today she is arguably the doyenne of the British art scene and attracts more acclaim than controversy Her work is known by a wide audience yet rarely receives the critical attention it deserves In Art Into Life Essays on Tracey Emin writers from a range of art historical artistic and curatorial perspectives examine how Emin s art life and celebrity status have become inextricably intertwined This innovative collection explores Emin s intersectional identity including her Turkish Cypriot heritage ageing and sexuality reflects on her early years as an artist and debates issues of autobiography self presentation and performativity alongside the multi media exchanges of her work and the tensions between art and craft With its discussions of the central themes of Emin s art attention to key works such as My Bed and accessible theorization of her creative practice Art into Life will interest a broad readership

Monster/Beauty Joanna Frueh, 2001-02-19 This book is as seductive as the phenomenon that it explores With courage love and joy Frueh crosses into unexplored terrains of beauty and pleasure where she finds a grotesquely captivating creature Monster Beauty By illuminating her journey with thoughtful insight and engaging prose she encourages readers to join her in her quest to articulate fresh ways of thinking about the aesthetic and the erotic and of theorizing the flux of lived experience John Alan Farmer senior editor of Art Journal Monster Beauty is a daringly provocative experiment in personal and erotic writing and an important book for anyone interested in breaking normative codes of beauty pedagogy and authorial methodology In a richly self revealing text Frueh proposes nothing less than a Rabellaisian re ordering of aesthetic embodiments within social relations Mira Schor author of Wet On Painting Feminism and Art Culture Giving new meaning to embodied writing this book goes farther than any other toward getting the body into the text Joanna Frueh is a performance artist first she is also an art historian a singer a poet a bodybuilder a professor an academic celebrity of modest fame but her performances collapse these distinctions Frueh s intensely personal intensely physical prose brings an aura of presence to the book that rivals the effect she achieves on stage Robyn Warhol co editor of Feminisms This book is monstrous full of gorgeous hypermuscular women step mothers and vampires full of ravishing muscular sex classroom erotics splendid aging It is a performance in which Frueh explores and celebrates her body its powers and beauties and those of her friends and lovers Alphonso Lingis author of Excesses Abuses and Dangerous Emotions A welcome voice in contemporary feminist theory Frueh s Monster Beauty reminds us of the pleasures of thinking teaching and creating in wholly embodied sensual and passionate acts Frueh poetically enacts the self as an aesthetic erotic project affirming the many different and beautiful selves we can become It is a joy to read Marsha Meskimmon author of We Weren t Modern Enough Women Artists and the Limits of German Modernism Joanna Frueh is a hero I sleep better knowing she s out there writing and thinking Michael Cunningham author of The Hours

Aging by the Book Kay Heath,2009-02-19 Uncovers the origins of midlife anxiety in Victorian print culture

Agewise Margaret Morganroth Gullette,2011-03-15 Let s face it almost everyone fears growing older We worry about losing our looks our health our jobs our self esteem and being supplanted in work and love by younger people It feels like the natural inevitable consequence of the passing years But what if it s not What if nearly everything that we think of as the natural process of aging is anything but In Agewise renowned cultural critic Margaret Morganroth Gullette reveals that much of what we dread about aging is actually the result of ageism which we can and should battle as strongly as we do racism sexism and other forms of bigotry Drawing on provocative and under reported evidence from biomedicine literature economics and personal stories Gullette probes the ageism that drives discontent with our bodies our selves and our accomplishments and makes us easy prey for marketers who want to sell us an illusory vision of youthful perfection Even worse rampant ageism causes society to discount and at times completely discard the wisdom and experience acquired by people over the course of adulthood The costs both collective and personal of this culture of decline are almost incalculable diminishing our workforce robbing younger people of hope for a decent later life and eroding the satisfactions and sense of productivity that should animate our later years Once we open our eyes to the pervasiveness of ageism however we can begin to fight it and Gullette lays out ambitious plans for the whole life course from teaching children anti ageism to fortifying the social safety nets and thus finally making possible the real pleasures and opportunities promised by the new longevity A bracing controversial call to arms Agewise will surprise enlighten and perhaps most important bring hope to readers of all ages

Feminist Perspectives on the Body Barbara Brook,2014-06-11 Feminist Perspectives on the Body provides an accessible introduction to this extremely popular new area and is aimed at students from a variety of disciplines who are interested in gaining an understanding of the key issues involved The author explores many important topics including the Western world s construction of the body as a theoretical philosophical and political concept the body and reproduction medicalisation cosmetic surgery and eating disorders the body in performance the private and the public body working bodies and new ways of thinking about the body Lectures on the Psychology of Women Joan C. Chrisler, Carla Golden, Patricia D. Rozee, 2012-12-21 Designed as a supplement in courses on the psychology of women the psychology of gender and gender role development this collection of short accessible lectures written by experienced and committed teachers spotlights topics that often receive less in depth coverage in core textbooks While topically arranged to align with standard texts each favorite lecture stands alone essentially instructors can assign the readings to meet their own course needs Among the student friendly features are the informal writing styles with each author speaking directly to the reader questions and ideas that encourage critical thinking and biographical statements and photographs that introduce each contributor The authors represent a variety of personal backgrounds and experiences but they believe in the importance of gender equality To that point the book addresses common feminist themes including the social construction of gender power the value of diversity inclusive language the global status of women and the value of social activism
