Reinventing A Continent:

Reinventing a Continent Andre BRINK, 1996 Love Songs for a Lost Continent Anita Felicelli, 2018-10 This is the book we needed to read yesterday a book we will still be reading tomorrow Porochista Khakpour author of Sick and Sons and Other Flammable Objects Anita Felicelli's debut collection delivers a dazzling array of precisely drawn characters searching for identity in the seemingly narrow spaces of their everyday lives From the glittering heat of India to the palm lined streets of Silicon Valley the backwoods of Kentucky to the vanilla bean fields of Madagascar immigrants daughters and lovers explore what it means to lose and to love to continually reinvent oneself while honoring the personal histories and lost continents that shape us all Pre and Post-publication Itineraries of the Contemporary Novel in English François Gallix, 2007 Readings of the Particular Anne Holden Rønning, Lene Johannessen, 2007 The present collection aims at throwing light on transculturality and the identities and masks that people put on in writing as much as in life in an age of global levelling and the struggle for a particular place in a postcolonial world Topics covered include North African identity in France cultural citizenship and the Asian diaspora novels of beur self identity by Maghrebi immigrants in France Scottish fiction Britain and Empire memory amnesia and the re-invention of the past in South Africa the Caribbean and elsewhere borders necrophilia and history in Southern African fiction encodings of female control spectating in black documentary cinema theatre performance and the Western presence in Africa masks history transtextuality and other aspects of Irish poetry and drama the masking and unmasking of identity in the African American novel violence and Titus Andronicus in black Nova Scotian poetry notions of the national and of indigeneity in contemporary Canadian drama Native Canadians space and the city Authors and artists treated include William Boyd Andr Brink George Elliott Clarke David Dabydeen Ralph Ellison Bessie Head Seamus Heaney Tomson Highway Isaac Julien Daniel David Moses Paul Muldoon Albert Murray Jean Rhys Sir Walter Scott Robert Louis Stevenson Richard Wright and W B Yeats Reinventing Africa Annie E. Coombes, 1994-01-01 Between 1890 and 1918 British colonial expansion in Africa led to the removal of many African artifacts that were subsequently brought to Britain and displayed Annie Coombes argues that this activity had profound repercussions for the construction of a national identity within Britain itself the effects of which are still with us today Through a series of detailed case studies Coombes analyzes the popular and scientific knowledge of Africa which shaped a diverse public's perception of that continent the looting and display of the Benin bronzes from Nigeria ethnographic museums the mass spectacle of large scale international and missionary exhibitions and colonial exhibitions such as the Stanley and African of 1890 together with the critical reaction to such events in British national newspapers the radical and humanitarian press and the West African press Coombes argues that although endlessly reiterated racial stereotypes were disseminated through popular images of all things African this was no simple reproduction of imperial ideology There were a number of different and sometimes conflicting representations of Africa and of what it was to be African representations that varied according to political institutional and disciplinary pressures The professionalization of anthropology over this period played a crucial role in the popularization of contradictory ideas about African culture to a mass public Pioneering in its research this book offers valuable insights for art and design historians historians of imperialism and anthropology anthropologists and museologists

Reinventing Government David Osborne, Ted Gaebler, 1993-02-01 A landmark in the debate on the future of public policy The Washington Post

Reinventing The Future Thomas A. Bass, 1994 The author of The Eudaemonic Pie now reveals the inspiration motivations and aspirations of the world s greatest scientists The scientists interviewed in this collection have changed the rules of the game altered our perception of reality and the language used to describe it

Reinventing Order in the Congo Theodore Trefon, 2013-04-04 Kinshasa is sub Saharan Africa s second largest city The seven million Congolese who live there have a rich reputation for the courageous and innovative ways in which they survive in a harsh urban environment They have created new social institutions practices networks and ways of living to deal with the collapse of public provision and a malfunctioning political system This book describes how ordinary people in the absence of formal sector jobs hustle for a modest living the famous bargaining system ordinary Kinshasians have developed and how they access food water supplies health and education The NGO ization of service provision is analysed as is the quite rare incidence of urban riots The contributors also look at popular discourses including street rumor witchcraft and attitudes to big men such as musicians and preachers This is urban sociology at its best richly empirical unjargonized descriptive of the lives of ordinary people and weaving into its analysis how they see and experience life

The Past Coming to Roost in the Present Adrian Kopp, 2006-10-07 Since the final demise of apartheid in 1994 South Africa has undergone dramatic changes in the political social and economic sphere It is not surprising that these changes have also resulted in contentious reassessments of recent history Many contemporary South African writers have taken up the challenge and created works offering new ways of critically re imagining the country s violent past While Andr P Brink s Imaginings of Sand and Zakes Mda s Ways of Dying constitute renegotiations of the past during the period of transition J M Coetzee s Disgrace and Phaswane Mpe s Welcome to our Hillbrow represent deliberations of a past that has been hampered in its change by a flawed transition Just as history can never be taken at face value and never constitutes a finite all inclusive narration of the past the historical accounts provided in these texts often present a one sided picture of history when considered only on their representational level On the metafictional level however these texts often put such misreadings into perspective and in doing so open up an otherwise monochrome reflection of South Africa s rainbow

The Reinvention of Australasian Biogeography Malte C. Ebach, 2017 The story of the evolution of biogeographical practice in Australasia Colonizer and Colonized, 2021-11-08 Over the last two decades the experiences of colonization and decolonization once safely relegated to the margins of what occupied students of history and literature have shifted into the latter s center of attention in the West as elsewhere This attention does not restrict itself to the historical dimension of colonization and decolonization but also focuses upon their impact upon the present for both colonizers and colonized The nearly fifty essays here gathered examine how literature now and in the past keeps and has kept alive the experiences both individual and collective of colonization and decolonization The contributors to this volume hail from the four corners of the earth East and West North and South The authors discussed range from international luminaries past and present such as Aphra Behn Racine Blaise Cendrars Salman Rushdie Graham Greene Derek Walcott Guimar es Rosa J M Coetzee Andr Brink and Assia Djebar to less known but certainly not lesser authors like Gioconda Belli Ren Depestre Amadou Kon Elisa Chimenti Sapho Arthur Nortje Es kia Mphahlele Mark Behr Viktor Paskov Evelyn Wilwert and Le la Houari Issues addressed include the role of travel writing in forging images of foreign lands for domestic consumption the reception and translation of Western classics in the East the impact of contemporary Chinese cinema upon both native and Western audiences and the use of Western generic novel conventions in modern Egyptian literature

Modernism and the New Spain Gayle Rogers, 2012-10-03 How and why did a country seen as remote backwards and barely European become a pivotal site for reinventing the continent after the Great War Modernism and the New Spain argues that the Spanish problem the nation s historically troubled relationship with Europe provided an animating impulse for interwar literary modernism and for new conceptions of cosmopolitanism Drawing on works in a variety of genres Gayle Rogers reconstructs an archive of cross cultural exchanges to reveal the mutual constitution of two modernist movements one in Britain the other in Spain and stretching at key moments in between to Ireland and the Americas Several sites of transnational collaboration form the core of Rogers s innovative literary history The relationship between T S Eliot s Criterion and Jos Ortega y Gasset s Revista de Occidente shows how the two journals joined to promote a cosmopolitan agenda A similar case of kindred spirits appears with the 1922 publication of Joyce s Ulysses The novel s forward thinking sentiments on race and nation resonated powerfully within Spain where a generation of writers searched for non statist forms through which they might express a new European Hispanicity These cultural ties between the Anglo Irish and Spanish speaking worlds increased with the outbreak of civil war in 1936 Rogers explores the connections between fighting Spanish fascism and dismantling the English patriarchal system in Virginia Woolf s Three Guineas along with the international anti fascist poetic community formed by Stephen Spender Manuel Altolaguirre and others as they sought to establish Federico Garc a Lorca as an apolitical Spanish European poet Mining a rich array of sources that includes novels periodicals biographies translations and poetry in English and in Spanish Modernism and the New Spain adds a vital new international perspective to modernist studies revealing how writers created alliances that unified local and international reforms to reinvent Europe not in the London Paris Berlin nexus but in Madrid

Trabold, 2018-10-24 The period of apartheid was a perilous time in South Africa s history This book examines the tactics of resistance developed by those working for the Weekly Mail and New Nation two opposition newspapers published in South Africa in the mid and late 1980s The government in an attempt to crack down on the massive political resistance sweeping the country had imposed martial law and imposed even greater restrictions on the press Bryan Trabold examines the writing legal and political strategies developed by those working for these newspapers to challenge the censorship restrictions as much as possible without getting banned Despite the many steps taken by the government to silence them including detaining the editor of New Nation for two years and temporarily closing both newspapers the Weekly Mail and New Nation not only continued to publish but actually increased their circulations and obtained strong domestic and international support New Nation ceased publication in 1994 after South Africa made the transition to democracy but the Weekly Mail now the Mail Guardian continues to publish and remains one of South Africa s most respected newspapers Mama Africa
