Reinventing Collective Action From The Global To The Local:

Technocities John Downey, Jim McGuigan, 1999-04-22 Information and communication technologies are said to be transforming urban life dramatically and bringing about rapid economic and cultural globalization This book explores the many fascinating and urgent issues involved by relating advanced theoretical debates to practical matters of communication with cultural policy It maps out a range of optimistic and pessimistic scenarios with special regard to various forms of inequality particularly class gender and geopolitical Topics discussed include urban planning virtual cities and actual cities economic and political policy and critical social analysis of current trends that are of momentous consequence The book concludes that it is necessary to bring together a number of differently informing approaches cultural economic political and technological to make sense of a field of dynamic and contradictory forces

Countryside Planning Kevin Bishop, Adrian Phillips, 2012-05-23 Not since the 19th century has the future of the countryside been such a focus of political and public attention nor of profound uncertainty and anguished debate A watershed has now been reached and in this time of unprecedented change new tools are needed for planning and managing the countryside Increasingly the drivers of countryside management and conservation are European and international They aim to provide comprehensive new frameworks for the whole countryside and encourage community driven planning and protection There have been numerous responses at the country and local levels within the UK In this book a broad range of scholars and practitioners review the international drivers affecting countryside policy and practice and through a variety of case studies they assess the value of country and local responses The result is a powerful and coherent volume that provides a fully up to date review and analysis of the pressures on the countryside the policies for the future and the keys to successful implementation Countryside Planning is essential reading for planners local authorities and rural organizations conservationists and environmental groups as well as academics and students in planning rural studies environmental studies and geography

The Citizens at Risk Pedro Jacobi, Marianne Kjellen, Gordon McGranahan, Jacob Songsore, Charles Surjadi, 2010-09-23 Local environments such as cities and neighbourhoods are becoming a focal point for those concerned with environmental justice and sustainability The Citizens at Risk takes up this emerging agenda and analyses the key issues in a refreshingly simple yet sophisticated style Taking a comparative look at cities in Africa Asia and Latin America the book examines the changing nature of urban environmental risks the rules governing the distribution of such risks and their differential impact how the risks arise and who is responsible The authors clearly describe the most pressing urban environmental challenges such as improving health conditions in deprived urban settlements ensuring sustainable urban development in a globalizing world and achieving environmental justice along with the greening of development They argue that current debates on sustainable development fail to come to terms with these challenges and call for a more politically and ethically explicit approach For policy makers students academics activists or concerned general readers this book applies a wealth of empirical analysis and theoretical insight to the interaction of citizens their cities and their environment Policymaking and Democracy Stuart S. Nagel,2003-01-01 Policymaking and Democracy is the first volume of a three volume set that examines the multi dimensional role of policy in the development and promotion of democracy prosperity and peace The democracy volume brings together international contributions on the policy challenges faced by national and multinational bodies to promote a democratic political culture and encourage the growth and development of civil society The work includes chapters on integration and representation within the European Union the expanding role of NGOs and IGOs international parliamentary organs the future of the nation state in a pluralistic world and the mportance of global consensus building Inside the Learning Society Stewart Ranson,1998-11-01 As an approach to the diverse and shifting learning needs of today the learning society labours under a definitional generosity which has led to three different models evolving with competing claims This book traces the history of the concept and lucidly lays out these three interpretive models learning for work learning for citizenship and learning for democracy The book s close scrutiny concludes with an analysis that synthesizes and sharpens our understanding of the learning society With due consideration given to the emerging critique and with chapters from public bodies engaged in implementing learning society principles Inside the Learning Society offers a comprehensive appraisal of ideas and practices This is a book of great significance for anyone concerned about or involved in the future of education Stakeholding and New labour R. Prabhakar,2003-05-07 In Stakeholding and New Labour Rajiv Prabhakar examines two core claims Firstly that stakeholding furnishes the centre left with a set of Third Way principles of public policy that differ from those previously deployed by the Labour and Conservative parties Secondly Prabhakar contends that while explicit references to stakeholding have been scaled down by New Labour the concept remains important for understanding the ideology and the policies of New Labour in government Urban Movements in a Globalising World Pierre Hamel,Henri Lustiger-Thaler,Margit Mayer,2003-09-02 This collection deals with the transformation of urban movements in the new social economic and political environments that the rise of globalisation has brought about Urban Planning in a Changing World Freestone,2000-06-22 Urban planning in today s world is inextricably linked to the processes of mass urbanization and modernization which have transformed our lives over the last hundred years Written by leading experts and commentators from around the world this collection of original essays will form an unprecedented critical survey of the state of urban planning a Reinventing Democracy João Arriscado Nunes,Boaventura de Sousa Santos,2014-01-02 The studies gathered in this volume focus on Portuguese society from the creative social and political experimentation by citizen and popular movements during the revolution of 1974 75 to more recent episodes of alternative economic organisation popular mobilization over the claim of local populations to self government local environmental conflicts transformations in trade unionism transnational solidarity movements and citizen participation on territorial planning They explicitly explore the relationships and tensions between difference and equality citizenship and difference state society relationships and local identities and European integration as part of broader processes of globalisation and of the emergence of new experiences of active citizenship This volume was previously published as a special issue of the journal South European Society and Politics

Redefining the Political. Youth Experiences of Collective Action in Turkey Pınar Gümüş Mantu,2023-08-01 This book offers an analysis of the complex and shifting conditions of being young as well as the new ways in which young people engage in politics in Turkey It is based on a closer examination of young people s participation in the Gezi protests in 2013 From the perspective of cultural sociology this work presents a nuanced discussion of the roots and dynamics of young people s unexpected engagement and spectacular appearance at the protests with a theoretical focus on the concepts of youth and the political by exploring questions such as How did young people experience the protests How did they reflect on being young How did they define the political Grounded in ethnographic field research conducted via in depth interviews this book demonstrates that what happened in the Gezi protests was not a sudden and miraculous transformation of apolitical youth into political subjects on the streets as has often been argued in public discourse Rather the protests brought into view the changes which had already been taking place in young people s lives in Turkey as a result of the effects of both local and global processes i e the influence of authoritarian politics and social change characterized by religion in everyday life as well as the implications of neoliberal policies in the restructuring of urban spaces

Economy in Society Michael J. Piore,2013 Prominent economists discuss internal labor markets the dynamics of immigration labor market regulation and other key topics in the work of Michael J Piore In Economy in Society five prominent social scientists honor Michael J Piore in original essays that explore key topics in Piore s work and make significant independent contributions in their own right Piore is distinctive for his original research that explores the interaction of social political and economic considerations in the labor market and in the economic development of nations and regions The essays in this volume reflect this rigorous interdisciplinary approach to important social and economic questions M Diane Burton s essay extends our understanding of internal labor markets by considering the influence of surrounding firms Natasha Iskander builds on Piore s theory of immigration with a study of Mexican construction workers in two cities Suzanne Berger highlights insights from Piore s work on technology and industrial development Andrew Schrank takes up the theme of regulatory discretion and Charles Sabel discusses theories of public bureaucracy

Social Education for Peace C. Carter,2015-04-08 Carter illuminates and validates the vital role of visioning in social education The book features peace in social education with instructional recommendations planning resources and descriptions of transdisciplinary learning It elaborates mindful citizenship across social environmental ethical geographic economic and political realms

Supporting Lifelong Learning: Organising learning Roger Harrison,Fiona Reeve,Marion Cartwright,Richard Edwards,2002 This book looks at what types of learning environments promote lifelong learning how they can be organized to support meaningful learning and what the implications of these shifts are for managers development of social democratic parties in Western Europe and suggests that instead of viewing a single model in the past it was more accurate to consider a Northern and Southern European version. Each model varied in its characteristics yet each retained an adherence to the same core values. But now a new version of social democracy is emerging that is characterised by an advocacy of the tenets of neo liberalism. Urban Planning in a Changing World Robert Freestone, 2000. Urban planning in today's world is inextricably linked to the processes of mass urbanization and modernization which have transformed our lives over the last hundred years. Written by leading experts and commentators from around the world this collection of original essays will form an unprecedented critical survey of the state of urban planning at the end of the millennium.

A Postcapitalist Politics J. K. Gibson-Graham, Is there life after capitalism. In this creatively argued follow up to their book The End of Capitalism As We Knew It J K Gibson Graham offer already existing alternatives to a global capitalist order and outline strategies for building alternative economies. A Postcapitalist Politics reveals a prolific landscape of economic diversity one that is not exclusively or predominantly capitalist and examines the challenges and successes of alternative economic interventions. Gibson Graham bring together political economy feminist poststructuralism and economic activism to foreground the ethical decisions as opposed to structural imperatives that construct economic development pathways. Marshalling empirical evidence from local economic projects and action research in the United States Australia and Asia they produce a distinctive political imaginary with three intersecting moments a politics of language of the subject and of collective action. In the face of an almost universal sense of surrender to capitalist globalization this book demonstrates that postcapitalist subjects economies and communities can be fostered. The authors describe a politics of possibility that can build different economies in place and over space. They urge us to confront the forces that stand in the way of economic experimentation and to explore different ways of moving from theory to action. J K Gibson Graham is the pen name of Katherine Gibson and Julie Graham feminist economic geographers who work respectively at the Australian National University in Canberra and the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

British Politics in the Global Age Joel Krieger, 1999. In British Politics in the Global Age Joel Krieger provides an in depth study of New Labour's model of government and the political challenges it faces. Krieger analyzes the interaction of global processes and domestic politics from the organization of production to the formation of class ethnic and gender based identities. The book considers how these processes compromise sovereignty complicate national identities forge new political agendas create electoral volatility and complicate the art of politics. Krieger develops an original framework for analyzing New Labour in comparison to three models of social democracy and places the British case firmly in the context of alternative national models and European debates. Employing an approach with potential applications well beyond the UK the book reconceptualizes globalization and introduces the concept modular politics to explain the context dependent processes of identity formation that shape and potentially destabilize contemporary politics. Thoroughly researched and clearly argued British Politics in the Global Age is essential reading for anyone who wishes to understand the full ramifications of New Labour for both Europe and the United States Publisher description Sexuality, Morals and Justice Nicholas Bamforth,1997-10-23 Against the background of the law reform debates around sexuality in Britain and America Bamforth examines what functions it is legitimate for the law to serve and how effective law can be in achieving social goals He provides a new and cogent argument for protecting lesbian and gay rights through law but is sceptical about how useful law can be in eradicating discriminatory social practices This work sheds new light on the equal rights debate and raises issues of central importance to the role of law in society

Encyclopedia of Community DAVID LEVINSON,KAREN CHRISTENSEN,2003-06-30 The Encyclopedia of Community is a major four volume reference work that seeks to define one of the most widely researched topics in the behavioural and social sciences Community itself is a concept an experience and a central part of being human This pioneering major reference work seeks to provide the necessary definitions of community far beyond the traditional views A Comparative Political Economy of Industrial Capitalism R. Mascarenhas,2002-10-04 This comparative study of industrial capitalism is an examination of state economy relations in mixed economies ranging from the interventionist German and Japanese to the less interventionist Anglo American Following the postwar consensus that resulted in the golden age 1950 1973 and ended with the energy crisis the Anglo American economies adopted neoliberalism while Germany and Japan remained interventionist This resulted in the emergence of national types of capitalism While analyzing the increased competition between them R C Mascarenhas also notes the influence of globalization as well as alternative capitalism with the survival and re emergence of industrial districts
