Reinventing Evangelism:

Reinventing Evangelism : New Strategies for Presenting Christ in Today's World Donald C. Posterski, 1989

Reinventing English Evangelicalism, 1966-2001 Robert E. Warner, 2007-12-01 This provocative book offers a revisionist history of the transdenominational initiatives of English evangelicals from 1965 to 2000 Warner provides an authoritative theological analysis and a constructive sociological critique This is an invaluable study for all those in the academy the church and wider society who want a fuller understanding of the social and religious significance and the evolutionary dynamics of this influential and diversifying religious tradition

The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice Helpfully organized into six categories these broad diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism

Liberating Evangelism Stephen K. Pickard, 1999-06-01 Has the church abdicated its responsibility for and privilege of spreading the gospel Has this baptismal birthright been forgotten or denied out of ignorance poor example or even misinformation Stephen Pickard argues that the church is called to be a community of the evangel and thus a community that seeks to embody the glad tidings of God in all of its life He addresses two issues the relationship of evangelism to systematic theology and the relationship of evangelism to the church In the case of the former he calls for a recovery of the complementary nature of theology and evangelism the theory and practice of the gospel discussing what this might involve and how it may benefit the church's evangelistic task This evangelistic task is then developed further in terms of the dynamics of communication Regarding evangelism and its relation to the church Pickard contends that the locus for evangelism has to be the Christian community its life of worship and discipleship in the world But the church must be reconceived missiologically in terms of the Great Commission and as a community for the praise of God

The Story That Chooses Us George R. Hunsberger, 2015-04-15

Full Service Siang-Yang Tan, 2006-03-01 Although servanthood is often discussed as an important part of leadership it is also the basic calling of every follower of Jesus Christ Siang Yang Tan takes a fresh approach to servanthood exploring it as loving obedience to God in and of itself regardless of personal greatness fulfillment or success He lays out the biblical case and practical guidance to help all Christians live out their foundational call of being a servant of God in all areas of life Tan's focus on servanthood alone in contrast to the many books on servant leadership will appeal to pastors church leaders and all Christians interested in a biblical perspective on servanthood

Evangelism Without Additives Jim Henderson, 2009-01-20 What if evangelism meant just being yourself If the gospel really is good news why do most Christians avoid evangelism Why is witnessing often a negative experience for both the sender and receiver Wouldn't it be great if you could communicate the good news without having to become a spiritual salesperson What if you didn't have to make a speech in order to witness you could use everyday experiences to nudge others closer to Jesus the things you're already doing counted as evangelism Evangelism can be as normal as asking great questions and paying attention to the people Jesus misses most It involves doing things you already do but with a little more intentionality Just by being yourself and becoming unusually interested in others you can discover that people will ask you about Jesus This isn't another program or pitch It's a handbook on how to make real connections with the people formerly known as lost Think of it as evangelism for the rest of us Evangelistic Preaching That Connects Craig A. Loscalzo, 1995-10-24 Craig A Loscalzo shows how to develop evangelistic sermons that will appeal to today's audiences He includes a rationale for evangelistic preaching sample sermons and lots of practical advice

Evangelism for Normal People John Bowen, 2002-07-01 Noted author and teacher John Bowen takes a unique look at what it means to witness to one's faith Evangelism is something that all Christians can do as a normal part of being a follower of Jesus Witty wise and biblically grounded the book challenges in a gentle way Includes study questions for congregational use

Ancient-Future Evangelism (Ancient-Future) Robert E. Webber, 2003-11-01 Following his well received Ancient Future Faith Robert Webber presents a new model for evangelism and discipleship the first in a series of four books applying his theoretical ideas to practical situations Part 1 of Ancient Future Evangelism surveys evangelism and Christian formation throughout the church and then translates the process for twenty first century Christians Webber presents evangelism as four distinct stages and suggests three accompanying rites of passage that can be easily adapted to any church tradition Part 2 underscores how the four fold process of faith formation is interwoven with three theological principles Christ as victor over evil the church as witness to God's salvation and worship as a witness to God's mission accomplished in Jesus Ancient Future Evangelism will appeal to both emerging evangelicals as well as traditional church leaders It relates faith to Christian practice by drawing wisdom from the past and translating those insights into the present and future life of the church ChurchNext Eddie Gibbs, 2000-03-24 Eddie Gibbs candidly analyzes new church models while proposing nine areas in which the church will need to transform to be biblically true to its message and mission
