Reinventing Marxism:

Reinventing Marxism Howard J. Sherman, 1995-12-02 A re evaluation of Marxism as an alternative to pro capitalist perspectives     Adventures of the Symbolic Warren Breckman, 2013-06-18 Warren Breckman critically revisits thrilling experiments in the aftermath of Marxism     Marx's Scientific Dialectics Paul Paolucci, 2007 This book examines both problems in traditional readings of Marx's texts and how he used several methods of science to inform his dialectical thinking historical materialist research political economic analyses and his communist project A case is made for Marx's continuing methodological relevance     Marx, Marxism and the Spiritual Anjan Chakrabarti, Anup Dhar, Serap A. Kayatekin, 2020-09-10 While Marxian theory has produced a sound and rigorous critique of capitalism has it faltered in its own practice of social transformation Has it faltered because of the Marxian insistence on the hyper secularization of political cultures The history of religions with the exception of some spiritual traditions has not been any less heartless and soulless This book sets up a much needed dialogue between a rethought Marxian praxis of the political and a rethought experience of spirituality Such rethinking within Marxism and spirituality and a resetting of their lost relationship is perhaps the only hope for a non violent future of both the Marxian reconstruction of the self and the social as also faith based life practices Building on past work in critical theory this book offers a new take on the relationship between a rethought Marxism and a rethought spirituality rethought in the life philosophy and works of Christian thinkers anti Christian thinkers Marxian thinkers those critical of Marxist Statecraft Dalit neo Buddhist thinkers thinkers drawing from Judaism as well as thinkers drawing critically from Christianity Contrary to popular belief this book does not see spirituality as a derivative of only religion This book also sees spirituality as what Marx designated the sigh of the oppressed against both social and religious orthodoxy In that sense spirituality is not just a displaced form of religion it is a displaced form of the political too This book therefore sets up the much needed dialogue between the Marxian political and the spiritual traditions The chapters in this book were originally published in Rethinking Marxism A Journal of Economics Culture and Society     Metromarxism Andrew Merrifield, 2013-04-15 Metromarxism discusses Marxism's relationship with the city from the 1850s to the present by way of biographical chapters on figures from the Marxist tradition including Marx Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and David Harvey Each chapter combines interesting biographical anecdotes with an accessible analysis of each individual's contribution to an always transforming Marxist theory of the city He suggests that the interplay between the city as center of economic and social life and its potential for progressive change generated a major corpus of work That work has been key in advancing progressive political and social transformations     Confronting Capitalism in the 21st Century Marc Silver, 2019-04-23 This book analyzes key aspects of Marx's Capital with an eye towards its relevance for an understanding of issues confronting us in the 21st Century The contributions to this volume suggest that while aspects of Marx's original analysis must be adjusted to take into account changes that have occurred since its initial publication in 1867 his overall perspective remains necessary for understanding the nature of crises in 21st century Part I emphasizes the central concepts Marx employed in Capital including exploitation capital accumulation commodity fetishism and his use of dialectics as a method for baring the underlying relations that define capitalism Parts II and III extend that focus by addressing the concept of value fictitious capital credit and financialization Parts IV and V offer analyses of several concrete manifestations of contemporary crises from national contexts Europe Latin America China and the United States The volume argues that we have to combat the imperatives of capitalism to move towards a more humane and egalitarian future Reclaiming Evolution William Dugger,Howard J. Sherman,2000-10-12 Howard Sherman and William M Dugger engage in a dialogue on social evolution from Institutional and Marxist perspectives each representing one side Together they explore the way society develops using the equally radical but very different approaches of Thorstein Veblen and Karl Marx American Marxism Mark R. Levin,2021-07-13 Fox News personality and radio talk show host Levin explains how the dangers he warned against have come to pass Critical Strategies for Social Research William K. Carroll,2004 This thought provoking volume is designed for research methods courses in sociology and the social sciences Critical Strategies for Social Research explores ways in which several key research strategies bring an emancipatory dimension to social analysis The new approaches recognise that social analysis is a form of knowledge production that takes place in a human constructed world marked by injustice and persistent inequality The book considers five influential and productive strategies of inquiry dialectical social analysis institutional ethnography participatory action research critical discourse analysis research to invigorate the public sphere This unique volume of 27 readings includes works by leading Canadian and international scholars The Coloniality of the Secular Yountae An,2023-12-15 In The Coloniality of the Secular An Yountae investigates the collusive ties between the modern concepts of the secular religion race and coloniality in the Americas Drawing on the work of douard Glissant Frantz Fanon Aim C saire Sylvia Wynter and Enrique Dussel An maps the intersections of revolutionary non Western thought with religious ideas to show how decoloniality redefines the sacred as an integral part of its liberation vision He examines these thinkers rejection of colonial religions and interrogates the narrow conception of religion that confines it within colonial power structures An explores decoloniality s conception of the sacred in relation to revolutionary violence gender creolization and racial phenomenology demonstrating its potential for reshaping religious paradigms Pointing out that the secular has been pivotal to regulating racial hierarchies under colonialism he advocates for a broader understanding of religion that captures the fundamental ideas that drive decolonial thinking By examining how decolonial theory incorporates the sacred into its vision of liberation An invites readers to rethink the transformative power of decoloniality and religion to build a hopeful future Dance of the Dialectic Bertell Ollman,2003 Bertell Ollman has been hailed as this country s leading authority on dialectics and Marx s method by Paul Sweezy the editor of Monthly Review and dean of America s Marx scholars In this book Ollman offers a thorough analysis of Marx s use of dialectical method Marx made extremely creative use of dialectical method to analyze the origins operation and direction of capitalism Unfortunately his promised book on method was never written so that readers wishing to understand and evaluate Marx's theories or to revise or use them have had to proceed without a clear grasp of the dialectic in which the theories are framed The result has been more disagreement over what Marx really meant than over the writings of any other major thinker In putting Marx's philosophy of internal relations and his use of the process of abstraction two little studied aspects of dialectics at the center of this account Ollman provides a version of Marx's method that is at once systematic scholarly clear and eminently useful Ollman not only sheds important new light on what Marx really meant in his varied theoretical pronouncements but in carefully laying out the steps in Marx's method makes it possible for a reader to put the dialectic to work in his or her own research He also convincingly argues the case for why social scientists and humanists as well as philosophers should want to do so

BOOK JACKET How Society Makes Itself: The Evolution of Political and Economic Institutions Howard J. Sherman, 2015-06-01 This radical account of the evolution of political social and economic institutions weaves together strands of anthropology sociology political science history and economics In a highly readable text Howard Sherman explains the interconnections of ideas and economic forces and traces the evolution of social and economic institutions from primitive times to the present Sherman focuses on the myth of inevitable progress in technology and argues that it progresses only when social and economic institutions and dominant ideas encourage it to improve He shows that throughout history technology as a part of the economic forces ebbs and flows to create or undermine existing economic institutions

Total Freedom Chris Matthew Sciabarra, 2000 Building upon his previous books about Marx Hayek and Rand Total Freedom completes what Lingua Franca has called Sciabarra's epic scholarly quest to reclaim dialectics usually associated with the Marxian left as a methodology that can revivify libertarian thought Part One surveys the history of dialectics from the ancient Greeks through the Austrian school of economics Part Two investigates in detail the work of Murray Rothbard as a leading modern libertarian in whose thought Sciabarra finds both dialectical and nondialectical elements Ultimately

Sciabarra aims for a dialectical libertarian synthesis highlighting the need not sufficiently recognized in liberalism to think of the totality of interconnections in a dynamic system as the way to ensure human freedom while avoiding totalitarianism such as resulted from Marxism      The Revenge of History Alex Callinicos,1991 Than to resume unfinished business
