

RELATOS DE BELCEBÚ A SU NIETO

G. I. Gurdjieff se valió de múltiples medios para transmitir su enseñanza, pero siempre dio especial importancia a este libro, cuya meta, según sus palabras, es nada menos que "extirpar del pensar y del sentimiento del lector, despiadadamente y sin la menor compenenda, las creencias y opiniones, arraigadas desde siglos en la psiquis de los hombres, acerca de todo cuanto existe en el mundo".

El protagonista, testigo y hábil narrador oral de estas historias, es un anciano y experimentado Belcebú, quien, tras haber pagado por sus pecados de juventud y haber sido perdonado por Su Eternidad, asume con tesón la educación de su nieto Jasín por medio de relatos y reflexiones perspicaces sobre la vida humana en nuestro lejano y atribulado planeta.

El resultado es una de las obras más desafiantes y gratificadoras de la literatura filosófica moderna, un verdadero «mar de cuentos» y de ideas que uno podría explorar durante toda la vida. Majestuoso en escala y contenido, con una prosa y un estilo de desbordante inventiva, sus páginas revelan vastas dimensiones, desde la génesis del cosmos y el desarrollo de la vida en todos los niveles, hasta las más minuciosas narraciones que manifiestan la profunda comprensión de Gurdjieff acerca del significado y el propósito de la vida sobre la Tierra.

EXACTLY A MONTH HAS ELAPSED since I finished the first series of my writings just that period of the flow of time which I intended to devote exclusively to resting the parts of my common presence subordinate to my pure reason As I wrote in the last chapter of the first series I had given myself my word that during the whole of this time I would do no writing whatsoever but would only for the well being of the most deserving of these subordinate parts slowly and gently drink down all the bottles of old calvados now at my disposal by the will of fate in the wine cellar of the Prieur and specially provided the century before last by people who understood the true sense of life Today I have decided and now I wish without forcing myself at all but on the contrary with great pleasure to set to work at my writing again of course with the help of all the corresponding forces and also this time with the help of the law conformable cosmic results flowing in from all sides upon my person from the good wishes of the readers of the first series I now propose to give a form understandable for everyone to everything I have written down for the second series in the hope that these ideas may serve as preparatory constructive material for setting up in the consciousness of creatures similar to myself a new world a world in my opinion real or at least one that can be perceived as real by all degrees of human thinking without the All and Everything Beelzebub's Tales to His Grandson p 1236 slightest impulse of doubt instead of the illusory world which contemporary people picture to themselves And indeed the mind of contemporary man of whatever level of intellectuality is only able to take cognizance of the world by means of data which whenever accidentally or intentionally activated arouse in him all sorts of fantastic impulses And these impulses by constantly affecting the tempo of all the associations flowing in him gradually disharmonize the whole of his functioning with such sorrowful results that it is impossible for any man if he is able to isolate himself even a little from the influences of the established abnormal conditions of our ordinary life and is willing to think about it seriously not to be terrified as for example by the shortening of our life with each decade First of all for the swing of thought that is for establishing a corresponding rhythm for my thinking and also for yours I wish to follow somewhat the example of the Great Beelzebub and imitate the form of thinking of one highly respected by him and by me and perhaps already brave reader of my writings by you if of course you have had the daring to read through to the end all of the first series That is to say I wish to introduce at the very beginning of this writing of mine what our dear to all Mullah Nassr Eddin¹ would call a subtly philosophical question I wish to do this at the very beginning because I intend to use freely both here and in my later expositions the wisdom of this sage who is now recognized almost everywhere and upon whom it is rumoured the title of The One and Only is soon to be officially conferred by the proper person And this subtly philosophical question may already be sensed in that sort of perplexity which is bound to arise in the consciousness of every reader of even the very first paragraph of this chapter if he compares the many data on which his firm convictions about medical matters are based with the fact that I the author of Beelzebub's Tales to His Grandson after the accident which nearly cost me my life with the functioning of my organism not yet fully re established owing to the incessant active effort Mullah Nassr Eddin a legendary figure in numerous countries of the Near East is an embodiment of popular wisdom The Man-wolf... South Sea Tales Robert Louis Stevenson, 2008-05-08 Roslyn Jolly is Lecturer in English at the University of New South Wales Australia She is the author of Henry James History Narrative Fiction OUP 1993 The Religion of Tomorrow Ken Wilber, 2017-05-02 A provocative examination of how the great religious traditions can remain relevant in modern times by incorporating scientific truths learned about human nature over the last century A single purpose lies at the heart of all the great religious traditions awakening to the astonishing reality of the true nature of ourselves and the universe At the same time through centuries of cultural accretion and focus on myth and ritual as ends in themselves this core insight has become obscured Here Ken Wilber provides a path for re envisioning a religion of the future that acknowledges the evolution of humanity in every realm while remaining faithful to that original spiritual vision For the traditions to attract modern men and women Wilber asserts they must incorporate the extraordinary number of scientific truths learned about human nature in just the past hundred years for example about the mind and brain emotions and the growth of consciousness that the ancients were simply unaware of and thus were unable to include in their meditative systems Taking Buddhism as an example Wilber demonstrates how his comprehensive Integral Approach which is already being applied to several world religions by some of their adherents can avert a cultural disaster of unparalleled proportions the utter neglect of the glorious upper reaches of human potential by the materialistic postmodern worldview Moreover he shows how we can apply this approach to our own spiritual practice This his most sweeping work since Sex Ecology Spirituality is a thrilling call for wholeness inclusiveness and unity in the religions of tomorrow

The Bible Unearthed Israel Finkelstein, Neil Asher Silberman, 2002-06-11 In this groundbreaking work that sets apart fact and legend authors Finkelstein and Silberman use significant archeological discoveries to provide historical information about biblical Israel and its neighbors In this iconoclastic and provocative work leading scholars Israel Finkelstein and Neil Asher Silberman draw on recent archaeological research to present a dramatically revised portrait of ancient Israel and its neighbors They argue that crucial evidence or a telling lack of evidence at digs in Israel Egypt Jordan and Lebanon suggests that many of the most famous stories in the Bible the wanderings of the patriarchs the Exodus from Egypt Joshua s conquest of Canaan and David and Solomon s vast empire reflect the world of the later authors rather than actual historical facts Challenging the fundamentalist readings of the scriptures and marshaling the latest archaeological evidence to support its new vision of ancient Israel The Bible Unearthed offers a fascinating and controversial perspective on when and why the Bible was written and why it possesses such great spiritual and emotional power today
