What If? Christy Clarke, 2008-03 In What If Contemplations of an Undergrad author Christy Clarke has compiled several of her most passionate beliefs and contemplations Beginning with a bit of insight into the author's personality and reasons for writing this book Clarke then delves into the debate between science and religion and offers an explanation of her own personal ontology However the primary focus of this book is on animal rights consciousness and experimentation Arguments are made to provoke contemplation of what different areas of research have suggested about these controversial issues in hopes of arousing greater popular interest in them Among the controversial topics it explores are connecting animal cruelty to human slavery a consideration and response to the debate between science and religion and an investigation of what alternative health therapies contribute to the debate over nonhuman animal consciousness Significant research and thought has gone into each of the pages in this book and its enthusiastic arguments are sure to provoke reader contemplation whether one agrees or disagrees with the author's additional arguments and decision to acknowledge and embrace personal biases rather than try to work outside of them

An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies, Second Edition Cyril Orji, 2021-01-07 An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies walks students through topical issues to be encountered in the study of the Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam as these religions encounter other religions in the context of the wider ecumenism The text is written from a Christian point of view and aims at helping students understand that to be Christian is to be ecumenical African Traditional Religions ATRs has been included in this survey to provide background for the religious traditions and cultures of peoples of Africa as Christianity moves inexorably southward The book has been written with undergraduate general education students in mind including meeting the needs of those in seminaries and theological institutes

Religion and Atheism in Dialogue Anthony Carroll, Richard Norman, 2025-06-23 The divide in our societies between those who are religious and those who are not is becoming increasingly apparent in many areas of contemporary life This fascinating book based on conversations between religious and nonreligious participants asks if societies divided on such fundamental questions can nonetheless find some common ground A rich array of topics is explored including the linguistic complexities of using the concept of God the relation between science and religion the ethics of altruistic concern sexuality and gender roles and the possibility of shedding light on important positions often taken to be intractable or nonnegotiable In addition topics of a more reflective nature but also prone to polarise are also examined such as spiritual experience and practice mindfulness the arts and the nature of human consciousness Religion and Atheism in Dialogue will interest anyone who is concerned about the current tensions and even conflicts exhibited between religious and secular positions on a range of key issues and how it might be possible to move beyond them It will also be of interest to students of ethics philosophy of religion and religious studies and all those who are concerned to explore how better dialogue across differences might be possible Problems of Religious Luck Guy Axtell, 2020-07-07 This book develops an inductive risk account of the limits of reasonable religious disagreement The riskiness of different people's methods for forming religious beliefs is shown central both to understanding fundamentalist orientation and to concerns that philosophers and theologians share for ownership of risk in people's faith ventures Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association, 2005 List of members in v 1 Field of FAITH Bethany Huff, 2020-04-28 WITHIN THESE PAGES IS A GOD BREATHED WAKE UP CALL filled with encounters containing prophecy and instruction to open the eyes of the hurting so that healing can flow Field of Faith is a powerful testimony of unfailing love justice and restoration through divine appointments with Jesus showing that NOTHING is impossible with God This timely message reminds readers that along their path to healing they do not walk alone Jesus is there Jesus desires for all to be healed and whole a Bride without spot or wrinkle Through Bethany's story she encourages you to seek the face of Jesus by receiving Pathways to healing freedom and encounters Tools to break bondages of the past Keys to open the secrets of Heaven and Earth Faith and training through prophetic experiences Challenges to dive deeper in your walk with the Lord One look into the eyes of Jesus and you will be changed forever American Book Publishing Record , 2003 Going Beyond Religious Traditions in Africa Frederic Ntedika Mvumbi, 2018 Atheism and Agnosticism Peter A. Huff, 2021-09-01 An overview essay and approximately 50 alphabetically arranged reference entries explore the background and significance of atheism and agnosticism in modern society This is the age of atheism and agnosticism The number of people living without religious belief and practice is quickly and dramatically rising Some experts call nonreligion after Christianity and Islam the third largest religion in the world today Understanding the origins history variations and impact of atheism and agnosticism is crucial to getting a grasp of the meaning of the present and gaining a glimpse of the future Exploring some of the most extraordinary people events and ideas of all time this book provides a fair comprehensive and engaging survey of all aspects of contemporary atheism and agnosticism An overview essay discusses the background and social and political contexts of unbelief while a timeline highlights key events Some 50 alphabetically arranged reference entries follow with each providing fundamental objective information about particular topics along with cross references and suggestions for further reading The volume closes with an annotated bibliography of the most important resources on atheism and agnosticism AFER. , 2007 Religion Margaret Huff, Ann Wetherilt, 2004-07 This thought provoking innovative text presents religion as the human search for meaning and discusses the phenomenon of religion as one way in which individuals and communities engage in that search A Book of the Beginnings Gerald Massey, 1881 God and His Demons Michael Parenti, 2010-06-30 A noted author and activist brings his critical acumen and rhetorical skills to bear in this polemic against the dark side of religion Unlike some popular works by stridently outspoken atheists this is not a blanket condemnation of all believers Rather the author's focus is the heartless exploitation of faithful followers by those in power as well as sectarian intolerance the violence against heretics and nonbelievers and the reactionary political and economic collusion that has often prevailed between the upper echelons of church and state Parenti notes the deleterious effects of past theocracies and the threat to our freedoms posed by present day fundamentalists and theocratic reactionaries He discusses how socially conscious and egalitarian minded liberal religionists have often been isolated and marginalized by their more conservative and better financed coreligionists Finally he documents the growing strength of secular freethinkers who are doing battle against the intolerant theocratic usurpers in public life Historically anchored yet sharply focused on the contemporary scene this eloquent indictment of religion s dangers will be welcomed by committed secular laypersons and progressive religionists alike
