Home Across Borders Jagath Bandara Pathirage, 2024-10-08 This book studies how transnational migrants create a sense of home in their host countries It draws on case studies of Sri Lankan migrants living in Australia to argue that home is an existential experience rather than a fixed entity The author looks at how the sense of home arises as a fresh category which is critical in defining one's existentiality in the host society Going beyond the conventional methodological approach of an ethnographer objectivizing other's sense of home into fixed categories the book attempts to foreground the immigrant's articulation of home which evolves parallel to their being It reveals how three important aspects of our lives time space and memory intersect with the trajectories of migration The author also delves into the ways in which migrants engage in building a home as a way of creating materiality in their dwelling practice Unique and compelling the book will be highly useful in studies of diaspora globalisation and transnational migration It will be of interest to students researchers and scholars of anthropology migration and transnational studies as well as sociology and other related disciplines

Global Religious Movements Across Borders Stephen M. Cherry, Helen Rose Ebaugh, 2016-04-22 From global missionizing among proselytic faiths to mass migration through religious diasporas religion has traveled from one side of the world and back again It continues to play a prominent role in shaping world politics and has been a vital force in the continued emergence spread and creation of a transnational civil society Exploring how religious roots are shaping organizations that seek to aid people across political and geographic boundaries service movements this book focuses on how religious movements establish structures to assist people with basic human needs such as food clothing shelter education and health Examining a multitude of faith traditions with origins in different parts of the world seven contributing chapters with an introduction and conclusions by the senior author offer a unique discussion of the intersections between religious transnationalism and social movements

Intersections of Religion and Migration Jennifer B. Saunders, Elena Fiddian-Qasbiyeh, Susanna Snyder, 2016-09-28 This innovative volume introduces readers to a variety of disciplinary and methodological approaches used to examine the intersections of religion and migration A range of leading figures in this field consider the roles of religion throughout various types of migration including forced voluntary and economic They discuss examples of migrations at all levels from local to global and critically examine case studies from various regional contexts across the globe The book grapples with the linkages and feedback between religion and migration exploring immigrant congregations activism among and between religious groups and innovations in religious thought in light of migration experiences among other themes The contributors demonstrate that religion is an important factor in migration studies and that attention to the intersection between religion and migration augments and enriches our understandings of religion Ultimately this volume provides a crucial survey of a burgeoning cross disciplinary interreligious and global area of study Links to the Diasporic Homeland Russell King, Anastasia Christou, Peggy Levitt, 2015-10-14 This book examines return mobilities to and from ancestral homelands of the second generation and beyond It presents cutting edge empirical research framed within the mobilities transnational and return migration diaspora paradigms on a trans local and global scale The book is unique in presenting not only a variety of return movements including short term visits and longer term return migrations but also circulatory movements within transnational social fields while engaging with notions of home belonging identity and generation The individual contributions range widely over different ethnic national regional and global settings including Europe North America the Caribbean the Gulf and Africa The result is a remapping of the conceptualisation of diaspora and of the role of successive generations in the diasporic experience as well as a nuancing of the concepts of return migration and transnationalism by their extension to the second and subsequent generations of immigrants This book was originally published as a special issue of Mobilities

Religion and the Global City David Garbin, Anna Strhan, 2017-06-29 This is the first book to explore how religious movements and actors shape and are shaped by aspects of global city dynamics Theoretically grounded and empirically informed Religion and the Global City advances discussions in the field of urban religion and establishes future research directions David Garbin and Anna Strhan bring together a wealth of ethnographically rich and vivid case studies in a diversity of urban settings in both Global North and Global South contexts These case studies are drawn from both classical global cities such as London and Paris and also from large cosmopolitan metropolises such as Bangalore Rio de Janeiro Lagos Singapore and Hong Kong which all constitute in their own terms powerful sites within the informational cultural and moral networked economies of contemporary globalization The chapters explore some of the most pressing issues of our times globalization and the role of global neo liberal regimes urban change and in particular the dramatic urbanization of Global South countries and religious politics and religious revivalism associated for instance with transnational Islam or global Pentecostal Charismatic Christianity

Cross-Border Migration among Latin Americans C. McIlwaine, 2011-11-16 This book aims to address this neglect in the European context with concentration on the UK case Conceptually it explores the meanings of diaspora and whether this is an appropriate concept to refer to Latin American migration to Europe in particular SANACS Journal 2012-2013 Young Lee Hertig, Editor, 2013-06-11 Issue 4 Featuring articles from Asian American Equipping Symposium II III

Religion on the Edge Courtney Bender, 2013 The thirteen essays in this volume offer a challenge to conventional scholarly approaches to the sociology of religion They urge readers to look beyond congregational settings beyond the United States and to religions other than Christianity and encourage critical engagement with religion's complex social consequences By expanding conceptual categories the essays reveal how aspects of the religious have always been part of allegedly non religious spaces and show how by attending to these intellectual blindspots we can understand aspects of identity modernity and institutional life that have long been obscured Religion on the Edge addresses a number of critical questions What is revealed about the self pluralism or modernity when we look outside the U S or outside Christian settings What do we learn about how and where the religious is actually at work and what its role is when we unpack the assumptions about it embedded in the categories we use Religion on the Edge offers groundbreaking new methodologies and models bringing to light conceptual lacunae re centering what is unsettled by their use and inviting a significant reordering of long accepted political and economic hierarchies The book shows how social scientists across the disciplines can engage with the sociology of religion By challenging many of its long standing empirical and analytic tendencies the contributors to this volume show how their work informs and is informed by debates in other fields and the analytical purchase gained by bringing these many conversations together Religion on the Edge will be a crucial resource for any scholar seeking to understand our post modern post secular world

Religion, Migration and Business María Villares-Varela, Olivia Sheringham, 2020-10-07 This book critically interrogates the role of religious faith in the experiences and practices of migrant entrepreneurs against the backdrop of neoliberal Britain Focussing on Pentecostalism a popular Christian denomination amongst migrant groups in the UK the authors draw on primary qualitative data to examine the ways in which Pentecostal beliefs and values influence the aspirations and practices of migrant entrepreneurs The book also explores the role of Pentecostal churches in supporting entrepreneurial activities among migrant communities arguing that these institutions simultaneously comply and contest the formation of neoliberal subjectivities providing cultural legitimacy to the entrepreneurial subject whilst also contesting the community erosion of neoliberalism particularly in an austerity context and fostering a strong a sense of belonging among congregants The book offers an interdisciplinary perspective spanning sociology geography and entrepreneurship studies to explain how values and faith networks shape everyday life work and entrepreneurial practices 2009 SANACS Journal Isaac,Russell
