Dalit Theology and Dalit Liberation Peniel Rajkumar, 2016-05-13 In fulfilling the long awaited need for a constructive and critical rethinking of Dalit theology this book offers and explores the synoptic healing stories as a relevant biblical paradigm for Dalit theology in order to help redress the lacuna between Dalit theology and the social practice of the Indian Church Peniel Rajkumar's starting point is that the growing influence of Dalit theology in academic circles is incompatible with the praxis of the Indian Church which continues to be passive in its attitude towards the oppression of the Dalits both within and outside the Church The theological reasons for this lacuna between Dalit theology and the Church's praxis Rajkumar suggests lie in the content of Dalit theology especially the biblical paradigms explored which do not offer adequate scope for engagement in praxis

Untouchable Bodies, Resistance, and Liberation Joshua Samuel, 2020-02-25 In Untouchable Bodies Resistance and Liberation Joshua Samuel constructs an embodied comparative theology of liberation by comparing divine possessions among Hindu and Christian Dalits in South India Critiquing the problems inherent in prioritizing texts when studying religious traditions Samuel calls for the need to engage in body and people centered interreligious learning This comparative theological reading of ecstatic experiences of the divine in Dalit bodies in Hinduism and Christianity brings out the powerful liberative potential inherent in the bodies of the oppressed enabling us to identify alternative modes of resistance and new avenues of liberation among those who are dehumanized and discriminated and to find deeper and meaningful ways of speaking about God in the context of oppression

Godroads Peter Berger, Sarbeswar Sahoo, 2020-10-29 Dynamics of conversion and religious change more generally are extremely complex yet it is crucial for contemporary societies to understand them This volume contributes to this understanding by focussing on the processes and modalities of conversion within between and across various religious traditions Hinduism Islamic Reformism Christianity indigenous religions from a multi disciplinary perspective including anthropology sociology religious studies history and theology While the book deals with Indian case studies the introduction preface by Piers Vitebsky and afterword by Aparecida Vila also offer a comparative perspective linking the Indian situation to contexts of conversion in other parts of the world The introduction not only provides an overview of important research on conversion in India it also intends to advance the general theoretical reflection on conversion considers analytical tools for further research and discusses the work of important theorists such as Pierre Bourdieu Joel Robbins and Marshall Sahlins who are not generally referred to in debates on conversion in India

Christianity and Education David Emmanuel Singh, Bernard C. Farr, 2011-10-14 Christianity and Education is a collection of papers published in Transformation An International Journal of Holistic Mission Studies over a period of 15 years It brings to life some of the papers that lay buried in shelves and in disparate volumes of Transformation under a single volume for theological libraries students and teachers The articles here represent a spectrum of Christian thinking addressing issues of institutional development for theological education theological studies in the context of global mission contextually aware informed education and academics which deliver such education methodologies and personal reflections

Christians and Public Life in Colonial South India, 1863-1937 Chandra Mallampalli, 2004-07-31 This book tells the story of how Catholic and Protestant Indians have attempted to locate themselves within the evolving Indian nation Ironically British rule in India did not privilege Christians but pushed them to the margins of a predominantly Hindu society Drawing upon wide ranging sources the book first explains how the Indian judiciary's official knowledge isolated Christians from Indian notions of family caste and nation It then describes how different varieties and classes of Christians adopted resisted and reshaped both imperial and nationalist perceptions of their identity Within a climate of rising communal tension in India this study finds immediate relevance

Forrester on Christian Ethics and Practical Theology Duncan B. Forrester, 2017-05-15 Bringing together articles and chapters from his considerable work in theological ethics India and the social order Duncan Forrester incorporates new writing and introductions to each thematic section to guide readers through this invaluable resource This book offers stimulating studies in three related areas Indian Christianity with particular attention to the caste system contemporary Christian theological ethics and the distinctive and challenging theological approach that Duncan Forrester has developed in relation to public issues such as prisons and punishment welfare provision social justice and poverty

The World's Christians Douglas Jacobsen, 2011-03-21 Written by an award winning author this well organized and comprehensive introduction to global Christianity illuminates the many ways the world's Christians live their faith today Covers the entire globe Africa Asia and Latin America as well as Europe North America and the Pacific Provides impartial in depth descriptions of the world's four major Christian traditions Orthodox Catholic Protestant and Pentecostal Charismatic Utilizes the best available sources to produce an up to date profile of demographic trends in the Christian population Blends history sociology anthropology and theology to create a rich multi layered analysis of the world Christian movement Features clear maps and 4 color illustrations throughout the volume

What About Us? Global Perspectives on Redressing Religious Inequalities Mariz Tadros, Olumide Adebimpe Aderounmu, Asif Aqeel, Manal Ahmed (Elehemier), Miriam Feldmann Kaye, Mary Gill, Mark Kaahwa, Philip Mader, Matome Jacky Makgoba, Moses Muhumuza, Rebecca Supriya Shah, Timothy Samuel Shah, Katharine Thane, Rifqah Tifloen, Tom Vanwing, 2022-10-26 How can we make religious equality a reality for those on the margins of society and politics This book is about the individual and collective struggles of the religiously marginalised to be recognised and their inequalities religious or otherwise redressed It is also about the efforts of civil society governments multilateral actors and scholars to promote freedom of religion or belief whatever shape they take The actors and contexts that feature in this book are as diverse as health workers in Israel local education authorities in Nigeria indigenous movements in India Uganda or

South Africa and multilateral actors such as the Islamic Development Bank in Sudan and the World Bank in Pakistan Some of the case studies engage with development discourses and narratives or are undertaken by development actors while other cases operate completely outside the international development paradigm These case studies present some important insights which while highly relevant for their contexts also draw out important insights for academics practitioners activists and others who have an interest in redressing religious inequalities for socioeconomically marginalised populations

Subalternity and Difference Gyanendra Pandey, 2013-03-01 Focusing on concepts that have been central to investigation of the history and politics of marginalized and disenfranchised populations this book asks how discourses of subalternity and difference simultaneously constitute and interrupt each other The authors explore the historical production of conditions of marginality and minority and challenge simplistic notions of difference as emanating from culture rather than politics They return thereby to a question that feminist and other oppositional movements have raised of how modern societies and states take account of and manage social economic and cultural difference The different contributions investigate this question in a variety of historical and political contexts from India and Ecuador to Britain and the USA The resulting study is of invaluable interest to students and scholars in a wide range of disciplines including History Anthropology Gender and Queer and Colonial and Postcolonial Studies

The Limits of Tolerance C.S. Adcock, 2014 This book provides a critical history of the distinctive tradition of Indian secularism known as Tolerance Examining debates surrounding the activities of the Arya Samaj a Hindu reform organization regarded as the exemplar of intolerance it finds that Tolerance functioned to disengage Indian secularism from the politics of caste

The Sacred in Twentieth-Century Politics R. Griffin, R. Mallett, J. Tortorice, 2008-11-05 The emerging shape of the post Cold War world provides evidence that rather than diminishing the profound intersection of political ideology and religious forms of belief is an ever more potent force in world affairs This volume offers both theoretic underpinnings and a comparative analysis that elucidates this potent and dangerous phenomenon

Dalit Empowerment Felix Wilfred, 2007 On contemporary political social economic and cultural issues of Dalits in India

Sikhs in Europe Kristina Myrvold, 2016-04-01 Sikhs in Europe are neglected in the study of religions and migrant groups previous studies have focused on the history culture and religious practices of Sikhs in North America and the UK but few have focused on Sikhs in continental Europe This book fills this gap presenting new data and analyses of Sikhs in eleven European countries examining the broader European presence of Sikhs in new and old host countries Focusing on patterns of migration transmission of traditions identity construction and cultural representations from the perspective of local Sikh communities this book explores important patterns of settlement institution building and cultural transmission among European Sikhs

Beyond Dalit Theology Paulson Pulikottil, 2022-05-31 This book is a critique of Dalit theology leading to proposals for the future directions of a theology of social transformation in India Dalit theology has ruled the roost for the last forty years in the Indian theological landscape It has captivated the theological imagination in India in spite of other theological movements like tribal theology green theology and so on which are relatively recent and have had little impact Despite the dominance of Dalit theology in the last decade many writers have questioned its social impact and theological efficacy This book takes advantage of the critique to make some proposals for doing a theology of social transformation in India It explores new ways of doing Christology pneumatology and ecclesiology In addition it argues for the need of a public theology in the changing religious political scenario in India Identities in South Asia Vivek Sachdeva, Queeny Pradhan, Anu Venugopalan, 2019-04-09 This book examines how identities are formed and expressed in political social and cultural contexts across South Asia It is a comprehensive intervention on how why and what identities have come to be and takes a closer look at the complexities of their interactions Drawing on an interdisciplinary approach combining methodologies from history literary studies politics and sociology this book Explores the multiple ways in which personal and collective identities manifest and engage are challenged and resisted across time and space Highlights how the shared history of colonialism and partition communal violence bloodshed and pogrom are instrumental in understanding present day developments in identity politics Sheds light on a number of current themes such as borders and nations race and ethnicity identity politics and fundamentalism language and regionalism memory and community and resistance and assertion A key volume in South Asian Studies this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern South Asian history politics sociology literary studies and social exclusion Talisman, Extreme Emotions of Dalit Liberation Thirumaavalavan, 2003 Translated For The First Time Into English From The Original Tamil These Essays Present The Characteristically Honest And Uncompromising Views Of Thirumaavalavan A Leading Dalit Intellectual And Mla Of The Viduthalai Chiruthaigal Or The Liberation Panthers Of Tamil Nadu Hard Hitting Courageous Thought Provoking This Collection Shows New Directions In Dalit Politics A Social History of Christianity John C.B. Webster, 2018-12-22 The Christian community in India emerged from an Indian rather than a foreign or an imperial context Its internal dynamics were shaped far more by Indian social realities than by missionary designs This book presents a comprehensive social history of Christianity in north west India comprising Jammu and Kashmir Himachal Pradesh Punjab Haryana the Union Territories of Delhi and Chandigarh and the Pakistani Punjab and North West Frontier Province The book discusses significant events in the history of the north west up to 1947 after which it focuses only on India These events left a lasting impact on Christianity and shaped its future course culminating in the transfer of churches power from foreign missionaries to Indians and proliferation of churches and the ongoing struggles of the Christian community The author pays special attention to the Christian community s caste composition how caste status and social mobility affected intra and inter community relations religious diversity uneven demographic distribution and development as well as Christianity as a religious movement in the region Crossroad Discourses between Christianity and Culture , 2010-01-01 Christianity exists in relation to and interacts with its cultural environment in a number of ways In this volume authors from a wide variety of backgrounds explore various facets of the relationship and interaction of Christianity with its cultural environment politics society esthetics religion and spirituality and with itself Divided into three main sections Crossroad Discourses between Christianity and Culture looks at the interaction of Christianity with culture in the first section with other religions and spiritualities in the second and finally with itself in the third The contributions engage in a critical examination of not only the culture in which Christianity finds itself but also in a critical examination of Christianity itself and its interaction with that culture The editors hope that teachers students and readers in general will profit greatly from the critical articles contained in this book
