Religion And Media Cultural Memory In The Present:

Religion and Media Hent de Vries, Samuel Weber, 2001 Counter The twenty five contributors to this volume who include such influential thinkers as Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Nancy Talal Asad and James Siegel confront the conceptual analytical and empirical difficulties involved in addressing the complex relationship between religion and media The book s introductory section offers a prolegomenon to the multiple problems raised by an interdisciplinary approach to these multifaceted phenomena The essays in the following part provide exemplary approaches to the historical and systematic background to the study of religion and media The third part presents case studies by anthropologists and scholars of comparative religion The book concludes with two remarkable documents a chapter from Theodor W Adorno s study of the relationship between religion and media in the context of political agitation The Psychological Technique of Martin Luther Thomas s Radio Addresses and a section from Niklas Luhmann s monumental Die Gesellschaft der Gesellschaft Society as a Social System

Religion and Cultural Memory Jan Assmann, Rodney Livingstone, 2006 In ten brilliant essays Jan Assmann explores the connections between religion culture and memory Building on Maurice Halbwachs s idea that memory like language is a social phenomenon as well as an individual one he argues that memory has a cultural dimension too He develops a persuasive view of the life of the past in such surface phenomena as codes religious rites and festivals and canonical texts on the one hand and in the Freudian psychodrama of repressing and resurrecting the past on the other Whereas the current fad for oral history inevitably focuses on the actual memories of the last century or so Assmann presents a commanding view of culture extending over five thousand years He focuses on cultural memory from the Egyptians Babylonians and the Osage Indians down to recent controversies about memorializing the Holocaust in Germany and the role of memory in the current disputes between Israelis and Palestinians in the Middle East and between Protestants and Catholics in Northern Ireland

A Systems Theory of Religion Niklas Luhmann, 2013-01-09 A Systems Theory of Religion still unfinished at Niklas Luhmann s death in 1998 was first published in German two years later thanks to the editorial work of Andr Kieserling One of Luhmann s most important projects it exemplifies his later work while redefining the subject matter of the sociology of religion Religion for Luhmann is one of the many functionally differentiated social systems that make up modern society All such subsystems consist entirely of communications and all are autopoietic which is to say self organizing and self generating Here Luhmann explains how religion provides a code for coping with the complexity opacity and uncontrollability of our world Religion functions to make definite the indefinite to reconcile the immanent and the transcendent Synthesizing approaches as disparate as the philosophy of language historical linguistics deconstruction and formal systems theory cybernetics A Systems Theory of Religion takes on important topics that range from religion s meaning and evolution to secularization turning decades of sociological assumptions on their head It provides us with a fresh vocabulary and a fresh philosophical and sociological approach to one of society s most fundamental phenomena The Reality of the Mass Media Niklas Luhmann, 2000 Luhmann argues that the system of mass media is a set of recursive self-referential programs of communication whose functions are not determined by the external values of truthfulness objectivity or knowledge nor by specific social interests or political directives

Memory and Religion from a Postsecular Perspective Zuzanna Bogumił, Yuliya Yurchuk, 2022-02-27 The book argues that religion is a system of significant meanings that have an impact on other systems and spheres of social life including cultural memory The editors call for a postsecular turn in memory studies which would provide a more reflective and meaningful approach to the constant interplay between the religious and the secular This opens up new perspectives on the intersection of memory and religion and helps memory scholars become more aware of the religious roots of the language they are using in their studies of memory By drawing on examples from different parts of the world the contributors to this volume explain how the interactions between the religious and the secular produce new memory forms and content in the heterogeneous societies of the present day world These analyzed cases demonstrate that religion has a significant impact on cultural memory family memory and the contemporary politics of history in secularized societies At the same time politics grassroots movements and different secular agents and processes have so much influence on the formation of memory by religious actors that even religious ecclesiastic and confessional memories are affected by the secular This volume is ideal for students and scholars of memory studies religious studies and history

Cultural Memory and Western Civilization Aleida Assmann, 2011-11-14 This book provides an introduction to the concept of cultural memory offering a comprehensive overview of its history forms and functions

Cultural Memory and Early Civilization Jan Assmann, 2011-12-05 Pt 1 The theoretical basis Memory culture Written culture Cultural identity and political imagination pt 2 Case studies Egypt Israel and the invention of religion The birth of history from the spirit of the law Greece and disciplined thinking Cultural memory a summary

Present Pasts Andreas Huyssen, 2003 This book analyzes the relation of public memory to history forgetting and selective memory in three late twentieth century cities that have confronted major social or political traumas Berlin Buenos Aires and New York

Mediated Memories in the Digital Age José van Dijck, 2007 This book studies how our personal memory is transformed as a result of technological and cultural transformations digital photo cameras camcorders and multimedia computers inevitably change the way we remember and affect conventional forms of recollection

The Rhetoric of Sincerity Ernst van Alphen, Mieke Bal, Carel E. Smith, 2009 The essays in this volume demonstrate how the performance of sincerity is culturally specific and is enacted in different ways in different media and disciplines including law and the arts

Belief Gianni Vattimo, 1999 In this highly personal book one of Europe's foremost contemporary philosophers confronts the theme of faith and religion He argues that there is a substantial link between the history of Christian revelation and the history of nihilism in particular as the latter appears in the work of Nietzsche and Heidegger Vattimo's philosophical specialty Tracing the relation between his response to these two thinkers and his own life as a devout Catholic Vattimo shows how his interpretation of Heidegger's work and his conceptions of weak thought and weak ontology can be seen as closely linked to a rediscovery of Christianity Vattimo speaks here in the first person a risk that results in a disarmingly open exploration of the themes of charity truth dogmatism morality and sin viewed through the lens of his own life and his own return to Christianity While deeply critical of institutionalized religion and the Church Vattimo discovers in the Christian tradition a voice not a distinct message whose interpretation is still being played out around us Shaped by his readings of Nietzsche and Heidegger Vattimo's decision to affirm his formation within the Christian tradition provides an original and engaging contribution to the contemporary debate on religion At the center of this book is the enigma of belief Freed by modernity from its Platonic subordination to knowledge belief is recovered as a crucial and inevitable feature of our cultural and personal lives Do you believe Vattimo is asked I believe so he replies

Mediation, Remediation, and the Dynamics of Cultural Memory

Astrid Erll, Ann Rigney, 2012 This collection links the use of media to the larger socio cultural processes involved in collective memory making The focus in particular is on mediation and remediation as two fundamental aspects of media use and on the dynamics between them Key questions are What role do media play in the production and circulation of cultural memories How do mediation remediation and intermediality shape objects and acts of cultural remembrance How can new emergent media redefine or transform what is collectively remembered This book first appeared as a hardback volume in the De Gruyter series Media and Cultural Memory Studies With the present book the original articles are reissued in an affordable paperback edition for graduate students and scholars in the field of Media and Memory Studies

Formations of the Secular Talal Asad, 2003-02-03 Opening with the provocative query what might an anthropology of the secular look like this book explores the concepts practices and political formations of secularism with emphasis on the major historical shifts that have shaped secular sensibilities and attitudes in the modern West and the Middle East Talal Asad proceeds to dismantle commonly held assumptions about the secular and the terrain it allegedly covers He argues that while anthropologists have oriented themselves to the study of the strangeness of the non European world and to what are seen as non rational dimensions of social life things like myth taboo and religion the modern and the secular have not been adequately examined The conclusion is that the secular cannot be viewed as a successor to religion or be seen as on the side of the rational It is a category with a multi layered history related to major premises of modernity democracy and the concept of human rights This book will appeal to anthropologists historians religious studies scholars as well as scholars working on modernity

Religion without Belief Jeanne Ellen Petrolle, 2008-06-05 In our present cultural moment when God is supposed to be dead and metaphysical speculation unfashionable why does postmodern fiction in a variety of genres make such frequent use of the ancient rhetorical form of allegory In Religion without Belief Jean Ellen Petrolle argues that contrary to popular understandings of postmodernism as an irreligious and amoral climate postmodern allegory remains deeply engaged in the quest for religious insight Examining a range of films and novels this book shows that postmodern fiction despite its posturing about the unverifiable nature of truth and reality routinely offers theological and cosmological speculation Works considered include virtual reality films such as The Matrix and The Truman Show avant garde films and Amerindian and feminist novels

Diaspora, Memory and Identity Vijay Agnew, 2005-01-01 Memories establish a connection between a collective and individual past between origins heritage and history Those who have left their places of birth to make homes elsewhere are familiar with the question Where do you come from and respond in innumerable well rehearsed ways Diasporas construct racialized sexualized gendered and oppositional subjectivities and shape the cosmopolitan intellectual commitment of scholars The diasporic individual often has a double consciousness a privileged knowledge and perspective that is consonant with postmodernity and globalization The essays in this volume reflect on the movements of people and cultures in the present day when physical social and mental borders and boundaries are being challenged and sometimes successfully dismantled The contributors from a variety of disciplinary perspectives discuss the diasporic experiences of ethnic and racial groups living in Canada from their perspective including the experiences of South Asians Iranians West Indians Chinese and Eritreans Diaspora Memory and Identity is an exciting and innovative collection of essays that examines the nuanced development of theories of Diaspora subjectivity double consciousness gender and class experiences and the nature of home

Cultural Memories Peter Meusburger, Michael Heffernan, Edgar Wunder, 2011-05-11 The revival of interest in collective cultural memories since the 1980s has been a genuinely global phenomenon Cultural memories can be defined as the social constructions of the past that allow individuals and groups to orient themselves in time and space The investigation of cultural memories has necessitated an interdisciplinary perspective though geographical questions about the spaces places and landscapes of memory have acquired a special significance The essays in this volume written by leading anthropologists geographers historians and psychologists open a range of new interpretations of the formation and development of cultural memories from ancient times to the present day The volume is divided into five interconnected sections The first section outlines the theoretical considerations that have shaped recent debates about cultural memory The second section provides detailed case studies of three key themes the founding myths of the nation state the contestation of national collective memories during periods of civil war and the oral traditions that move beyond national narrative The third section examines the role of World War II as a pivotal episode in an emerging European cultural memory The fourth section focuses on cultural memories in postcolonial contexts beyond Europe The fifth and final section extends the study of cultural memory back into premodern tribal and nomadic societies

Religion as a Chain of Memory Daniele Hervieu-Leger, 2000-05-25 This is a major new account of the nature of religion and its changing role in modern societies by one of the most original French sociologists writing on religion today In a stylish and accessible study Hervieu Leger addresses the problem of how to distinguish religion from other systems of meaning in modern Western society The crucial point she argues is the chain of memory and tradition which makes the individual believer a member of the community From this point of view religion is the ideological symbolic and social device by which individual and collective awareness of belonging to a lineage of believers is created and controlled Modern societies Hervieu L ger argues are not more rational than past societies but rather suffer from a kind of collective amnesia They are less and less capable of maintaining a living collective chain of memory as a source of meaning However as major religious traditions decline a range of surrogate memories appears which also permit the contraction of collective identities These small memories are creating an upsurge of emotional communities and the affirmation of ethno religions within Europe and elsewhere This book will be essential reading for students and scholars of theology religious studies and sociology

The Handbook of Religion and Communication Yoel Cohen,Paul A. Soukup,2023-02-22 Provides a contemporary view of the intertwined relationship of communication and religion The Handbook of Religion and Communication presents a detailed investigation of the complex interaction between media and religion offering diverse perspectives on how both traditional and new media sources continue to impact religious belief and practice across multiple faiths around the globe Contributions from leading international scholars address key themes such as the changing role of religious authority in the digital age the role of media in cultural shifts away from religious institutions and the ways modern technologies have transformed how religion is communicated and portrayed Divided into five parts the Handbook opens with a state of the art overview of the subject s intellectual landscape introducing the historical background theoretical foundations and major academic approaches to communication media and religion Subsequent sections focus on institutional and functional perspectives theological and cultural approaches and new approaches in digital technologies The essays provide insight into a wide range of topics including religious use of media religious identity audience gratification religious broadcasting religious content in entertainment films and religion news reporting about religion race and gender the sex religion matrix religious crisis communication public relations and advertising televangelism pastoral ministry death and the media online religion future directions in religious communication and more Explores the increasing role of media in creating religious identity and communicating religious experience Discusses the development and evolution of the communication practices of various religious bodies Covers all major media sources including radio television film press digital online content and social media platforms Presents key empirical research real world case studies and illustrative examples throughout Encompasses a variety of perspectives including individual and institutional actors academic and theoretical areas and different forms of communication media Explores media and religion in Judeo Christian traditions Islam Buddhism Hinduism religions of Africa Atheism and others The Handbook of Religion and Communication is an essential resource for scholars academic researchers practical theologians seminarians mass communication researchers and undergraduate and graduate students taking courses on media and religion

I Am the Truth Michel Henry,2003 A part of the return to religion now evident in European philosophy this book represents the culmination of the career of a leading phenomenologist who investigates the multiple kinds of truth associated with Christianity
