Mau Mau And Nationhood:

Mau Mau & Nationhood E. S. Atieno Odhiambo, John Lonsdale, 2003 Fifty years after the declaration of the state of emergency Mau Mau still excites argument and controversy not least in Kenya itself Mau Mau and Nationhood is a collection of essays providing the most recent thinking on the uprising and its aftermath The work of well established scholars as well as of young researchers with fresh perspectives Mau Mau and Nationhood achieves a multilayered analysis of a subject of enduring interest According to Terence Ranger Emeritus Rhodes Professor Oxford In some ways the historiography of Mau Mau is a supreme example not only of ambiguity and complexity but also of redemption of a topic once thought incapable of rational analysis

Mau Mau & Nationhood E. S. Atieno Odhiambo, John Lonsdale, 2003 Decades on from independence the role of Mau Mau still excites argument and controversy not least in Kenya itself

Defeating Mau Mau, Creating Kenya Daniel Branch, 2009-09-07 This book details the devastating Mau Mau civil war fought in Kenya during the 1950s and the legacies of that conflict for the post colonial state As many Kikuyu fought with the colonial government as loyalists joined the Mau Mau rebellion Focusing on the role of those loyalists the book examines the ways in which residents of the country's Central Highlands sought to navigate a path through the bloodshed and uncertainty of civil war It explores the instrumental use of violence changes to allegiances and the ways in which cleavages created by the war informed local politics for decades after the conflict's conclusion Moreover the book moves toward a more nuanced understanding of the realities and effects of counterinsurgency warfare Based on archival research in Kenya and the United Kingdom and insights from literature from across the social sciences the book reconstructs the dilemmas facing members of society at war with itself and its colonial ruler

Human Rights in the Shadow of Colonial Violence Fabian Klose, 2013-04-22 Human Rights in the Shadow of Colonial Violence explores the relationship between the human rights movement emerging after 1945 and the increasing violence of decolonization Based on material previously inaccessible in the archives of the International Committee of the Red Cross and the United Nations Human Rights Commission this comparative study uses the Mau Mau War 1952-1956 and the Algerian War 1954-1962 to examine the policies of two major imperial powers Britain and France Historian Fabian Klose considers the significance of declared states of emergency counterinsurgency strategy and the significance of humanitarian international law in both conflicts Klose's findings from these previously confidential archives reveal the escalating violence and oppressive tactics used by the British and French military during these anticolonial conflicts in North and East Africa where Western powers that promoted human rights in other areas of the world were opposed to the growing global acceptance of freedom equality self-determination and other postwar ideals Practices such as collective punishment torture and extrajudicial killings did lasting damage to international human rights efforts until the end of decolonization Clearly argued and meticulously researched Human Rights in the Shadow of Colonial Violence demonstrates the mutually impacting histories of international human rights and decolonization expanding our understanding of political violence in human rights discourse From Divided Pasts to Cohesive Futures Hiroyuki Hino, Arnim Langer, John Lonsdale, Frances Stewart, 2019-08-22 Offers an insightful yet readable study of the paths and challenges to social cohesion in Africa by experienced historians economists and political scientists Revolutionary Movements in World History James DeFronzo, 2006-07-20 This groundbreaking three volume encyclopedia is the first to focus exclusively on the revolutionary movements that have changed the course of history from the American and French Revolutions to the present ABC CLIO is proud to present an encyclopedia that reaches around the globe to explore the most momentous and impactful political revolutions of the last two and a half centuries exploring their origins courses consequences and influences on subsequent individuals and groups seeking to change their own governments and societies In three volumes Revolutionary Movements in World History covers 79 revolutions from the American and French uprisings of the late 18th century to the rise of communism Nazism and fascism from Ho Chi Minh and Fidel Castro to the Ayatollah al Qaeda and the fall of the Berlin wall Written by leading experts from a number of nations this insightful cutting edge work combines detailed portrayals of specific revolutions with essays on important overarching themes Full of revealing insights compelling personalities and some of the most remarkable moments in the world s human drama Revolutionary Movements in World History offers a new way of looking at how societies reinvent themselves Indians in Kenya Sana Aiyar, 2015-04-06 Working as merchants skilled tradesmen clerks lawyers and journalists Indians formed the economic and administrative middle class in colonial Kenya In general they were wealthier than Africans but were denied the political and economic privileges that Europeans enjoyed Moreover despite their relative prosperity Indians were precariously positioned in Kenya Africans usually viewed them as outsiders and Europeans largely considered them subservient Indians demanded recognition on their own terms Indians in Kenya chronicles the competing often contradictory strategies by which the South Asian diaspora sought a political voice in Kenya from the beginning of colonial rule in the late 1890s to independence in the 1960s Indians intellectual economic and political connections with South Asia shaped their understanding of their lives in Kenya Sana Aiyar investigates how the many strands of Indians diasporic identity influenced Kenya s political leadership from claiming partnership with Europeans in their mission to colonize and civilize East Africa to successful collaborations with Africans to battle for racial equality including during the Mau Mau Rebellion She also explores how the hierarchical structures of colonial governance the material inequalities between Indians and Africans and the racialized political discourses that flourished in both colonial and postcolonial Kenya limited the success of alliances across racial and class lines Aiyar demonstrates that only by examining the ties that bound Indians to worlds on both sides of the Indian Ocean can we understand how Kenya came to terms with its South Asian minority The State and Nation-Building Processes in Kenya since Independence Mwangi, Susan Waiyego, Opongo, Elias Omondi, Whom, Ephraim Wachira, 2019-06-25 Kenya s nationalism during the colonial period was marked by two main characteristics that feature in this book First the struggle for independence that was mainly characterized by the claim for land that had been taken away by the colonizers Second was the struggle for autonomy and self determination mainly through political resistance The authors in this book analyse historical trajectories of Kenya s nationalism trends while highlighting the role of political leaders large as well as small ethnic groups perennial conflicts community as well as religious leaders among others The discussions demonstrate that quest for a national identity that is inclusive at all levels whether politically economically religiously and ethnically has marked Kenya s struggle for nationalism sometimes leading to violence especially during election periods national unity through political coalitions and reconciliation as well as institutional reforms In conclusion the authors demonstrate that while Kenya is gradually advancing towards national cohesion there are still many challenges yet to be surmounted

The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics Nic Cheeseman,Karuti Kanyinga,Gabrielle Lynch,2020-02-14 Kenya is one of the most politically dynamic and influential countries in sub Saharan Africa Today it is known in equal measure as a country that has experienced great highs and tragic lows In the 1960s and 1970s Kenya was seen as a success story of development in the periphery and also led the way in terms of democratic breakthroughs in 2010 when a new constitution devolved power and placed new constraints on the president However the country has also made international headlines for the kind of political instability that occurs when electoral violence is expressed along ethnic lines such as during the Kenya crisis of 2007 08 when over 1 000 people lost their lives and almost 700 000 were displaced The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics explains these developments and many more drawing together 50 specially commissioned chapters by leading researchers The chapters they have contributed address a range of essential topics including the legacy of colonial rule ethnicity land politics devolution the constitution elections democracy foreign aid the informal economy civil society human rights the International Criminal Court the growing influence of China economic policy electoral violence and the impact of mobile phone technology In addition to covering some of the most important debates about Kenyan politics the volume provides an insightful overview of Kenyan history from 1930 to the present day and features a set of chapters that review the impact of devolution on regional politics in every part of the country War and Women across Continents Shirley Ardener, Fiona Armitage-Woodward, Lidia D. Sciama, 2016-02-01 Drawing on family materials historical records and eyewitness accounts this book shows the impact of war on individual women caught up in diverse and often treacherous situations It relates stories of partisans in Holland an Italian woman carrying guns and provisions in the face of hostile soldiers and Kikuyu women involved in the Mau Mau insurrection in Kenya A woman displaced from Silesia recalls fleeing with children across war torn Germany and women caught up in conflicts in Burma and in Rwanda share their tales War s aftermath can be traumatic as shown by journalists in Libya and by a midwife on the Cambodian border who helps refugees to give birth and regain hope Finally British women on active service in Afghanistan and at NATO headquarters also speak (Re)membering Kenya Vol 1 Mbũgua wa Mũngai, G. M. Gona, 2010 One of the critical questions that Kenyans have continuously asked is what went wrong in January and February 2008 with the peace they had hitherto enjoyed There have not been readily available answers to this fundamental question The collection of papers presented in this book attempt to provide as a starting point possible explanations for the events of early 2008 including key background issues in Kenyan history since pre independence times Based on a series of public lectures titled Re membering Kenya organized by the volume editors together with Twaweza Communications and sponsored by the Goethe Institut Kenya the Institute for International Education and The Ford Foundation the lecture series became a way of trying to get scholars to engage meaningfully with the Kenyan public on critical matters pertaining to their nationhood even if this entailed first calling to question the lie about the very ideas and practices upon which that nationhood is assumed to stand A key lesson drawn from the unfolding discussions at the Goethe Institut Kenya was that the 2007 elections debacle was merely the cusp of momentous crises to do with among other issues governance law and order Parliament s abdication of its role in ensuring accountability from the Executive dilemmas of identity and socio economic marginality The book is the first of three volumes under the Re membering Kenya series whose overall objective is to cast some new light on the various trajectories that informed the happenings of January 2008 The present volume brings together some of the best interpretative writing and suggestions on pertinent questions past and present ranging from the architecture of Kenya s ethnicity Kenyanness generational competition socialization and violence iconic representations of identity to the ongoing debate on the efficacy of the Truth Justice and Reconciliation Commission TJRC It is hoped that the issues debated during the public lectures and documented herein will spur further discussions in other spaces within civil society organizations among activists and in newspapers where the public might continue to expand their thinking on the complex task of Re membering Kenya From Bureaucracy to Bullets Bree Akesson, Andrew R. Basso, 2022-02-11 From Bureaucracy to Bullets uses eight compelling case studies from five continents and spanning the 20th and 21st centuries to explore the concept of extreme domicide or the intentional destruction of home as a result of political violence Moving beyond mere description From Bureaucracy to Bullets identifies common factors that contribute to extreme domestic violence thereby providing human rights actors with a framework to hold perpetrators accountable for their actions

Readings in Sexualities from Africa Rachel Spronk, Thomas Hendriks, 2020-02-04 Images and stories about African sexuality abound in today's globalized media Frequently old stereotypes and popular opinion inform these stories and sex in the media is predominately approached as a problem in need of solutions and intervention The authors gathered here refuse an easy characterization of African sexuality and instead seek to understand the various erotic realities sexual practices and gendered changes taking place across the continent They present a nuanced and comprehensive overview of the field of sex and sexuality in Africa to serve as a guide through the quickly expanding literature This collection offers a set of texts that use sexuality as a prism for studying how communities coalesce against the canvas of larger political and economic contexts and how personal lives evolve therein Scholars working in Africa the U S and Europe reflect on issues of representation health and biopolitics same sex relationships and identity transactional economies of sex religion and tradition and the importance of pleasure and agency This multidimensional reader provides a comprehensive view of sexuality from an African perspective

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o Oliver Lovesey, 2012-01-01 Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o is one of the most important and celebrated authors of postindependence Africa as well as a groundbreaking postcolonial theorist His work written first in English then in Gikuyu engages with the transformations of his native Kenya after what is often termed the Mau Mau rebellion It also gives voice to the struggles of all Africans against economic injustice and political oppression His writing and activism have continued despite imprisonment the threat of assassination and exile Part 1 of this volume Materials provides resources and background for the teaching of Ngũgĩ's novels plays memoirs and criticism The essays of part 2 Approaches consider the influence of Frantz Fanon Karl Marx and Joseph Conrad on Ngũgĩ how the role of women in his fiction is inflected by feminism his interpretation and political use of African history his experimentation with orality and allegory in narrative and the different challenges of teaching Ngũgĩ in classrooms in the United States Europe and Africa

Decolonization and Conflict Martin Thomas, Gareth Curless, 2017-06-15 Insurgency based irregular warfare typifies armed conflict in the post Cold War age For some years now western and other governments have struggled to contend with ideologically driven guerrilla movements religiously inspired militias and systematic targeting of civilian populations Numerous conflicts of this type are rooted in experiences of empire breakdown Yet few multi empire studies of decolonisation's violence exist Decolonization and Conflict brings together expertise on a variety of different cases to offer new perspectives on the colonial conflicts that engulfed Europe's empires after 1945 The contributors analyse multiple forms of colonial counter insurgency from the military engagement of anti colonial movements to the forced removal of civilian populations and the application of new doctrines of psychological warfare Contributors to the collection also show how insurgencies their propaganda and methods of action were inherently transnational and inter connected The resulting study is a vital contribution to our understanding of contested decolonization It emphasises the global connections at work and reveals the contemporary resonances of both anti colonial insurgencies and the means devised to counter them It is essential reading for students and scholars of empire decolonization and asymmetric warfare Obama and Kenya Matthew Carotenuto, Katherine Luongo, 2016-07-29 Barack Obama's political ascendancy has focused considerable global attention on the history of Kenya generally and the history of the Luo community particularly From politicians populating the blogosphere and bookshelves in the U S and Kenya to tourists traipsing through Obama's ancestral home a variety of groups have mobilized new readings of Kenya's past in service of their own ends Through narratives placing Obama into a simplified sweeping narrative of anticolonial barbarism and postcolonial tribal violence the story of the United States president's nuanced relationship to Kenya has been lost amid stereotypical portrayals of Africa At the same time Kenyan state officials have aimed to weave Obama into the contested narrative of Kenyan nationhood Matthew Carotenuto and Katherine Luongo argue that efforts to cast Obama as a son of the soil of the Lake Victoria basin invite insights into the politicized uses of Kenya's past Ideal for classroom use and directed at a general readership interested in global affairs Obama and Kenya offers an important counterpoint to the many popular but inaccurate texts about Kenya's history and Obama's place in it as well as focused thematic analyses of contemporary debates about ethnic politics tribal identities postcolonial governance and U S African relations Cooperative Rule Aaron Windel, 2021-11-30 Cooperative rule Pedagogies of community development Anti empire development and emergency rule Uganda's anticolonial cooperative movement Cooperatives and decolonization in postwar Britain History, Identity and the Bukusu-Bagisu Relations on the Kenya and Uganda Border Peter Wafula Wekesa, 2023-02-27 This book examines the history of community relations across the Kenya Uganda border using the case of the Bukusu and the Bagisu From this microcosmic level the book explores the social economic and political relations that have evolved between the two communities and states over time (Re)membering Kenya Vol 1 wa-Mungai Mbugua, George Gona, 2010-11-01 One of the critical questions that Kenyans have continuously asked is what went wrong in January and February 2008 with the peace they had hitherto enjoyed There have not been readily available answers to this fundamental question The collection of papers presented in this book attempt to provide as a starting point possible explanations for the events of early 2008 including key background issues in Kenyan history since pre independence times Based on a series of public lectures titled Re membering Kenya organized by the volume editors together with Twaweza Communications and sponsored by the Goethe Institut Kenya the Institute for International Education and The Ford Foundation the lecture series became a way of trying to get scholars to engage meaningfully with the Kenyan public on critical matters pertaining to their nationhood even if this entailed first calling to question the lie about the very ideas and practices upon which that nationhood is assumed to stand A key lesson drawn from the unfolding discussions at the Goethe Institut Kenya was that the 2007 elections debacle was merely the cusp of momentous crises to do with among other issues governance law and order Parliaments abdication of its role in ensuring accountability from the Executive dilemmas of identity and socio economic marginality The book is the first of three volumes under the Re membering Kenya series whose overall objective is to cast some new light on the various trajectories that informed the happenings of January 2008 The present volume brings together some of the best interpretative writing and suggestions on pertinent questions past and present ranging from the architecture of Kenyas ethnicity Kenyanness generational competition socialization and violence iconic representations of identity to the ongoing debate on the efficacy of the Truth Justice and Reconciliation Commission TJRC It is hoped that the issues debated during the public lectures and documented herein will spur further discussions in other spaces within civil society organizations among activists and in newspapers where the public might continue to expand their thinking on the complex task of Re membering Kenya
