Mau Mau From Below:

Mau Mau from Below Greet Kershaw, 1997 This text is based on the oral evidence of the Kikuyu villagers with whom the author lived as an aid worker during the Mau Mau emergency in the 1950s The data suggests that there was never a single Mau Mau movement and that none of its members ever saw it as such not because they did not have a political aim but because that agenda was contested within different political circles over which they had no control and of which they may scarcely have had any knowledge This importance of this is that almost all the enemies of the Mau Mau did see it as a whole movement in order to try and comprehend it and defeat it Mau Mau and the Kikuyu Louis Leakey, 2013-11-05 This widely acclaimed book on a troubled period of Kenyan history summarizes some of the more important Kikuyu customs and a discussion of their break down under the impact of European civilization This discussion illustrates why and how the Mau Mau came into being and how the situation could be improved so that peace could once again come to Kenya Radical Chic and Mau-Mauing the Flak Catchers Tom Wolfe, 2010-04-01 Radical Chic and Mau Mauing the Flak Catchers is classic Tom Wolfe a funny irreverent and delicious The Wall Street Journal dissection of class and status by the master of New Journalism The phrase radical chic was coined by Tom Wolfe in 1970 when Leonard Bernstein gave a party for the Black Panthers at his duplex apartment on Park Avenue That incongruous scene is re created here in high fidelity as is another meeting ground between militant minorities and the liberal white establishment Radical Chic provocatively explores the relationship between Black rage and White guilt Mau Mauing the Flak Catchers set in San Francisco at the Office of Economic Opportunity details the corruption and dysfunction of the anti poverty programs run at that time Wolfe uncovers how much of the program's money failed to reach its intended recipients Instead hustlers gamed the system causing the OEO efforts to fail the impoverished communities From Mau Mau to Harambee Tom Askwith, 1995 Controversial Chiefs in Colonial Kenya Evanson N. Wamagatta, 2016-04-21 This book documents the life of Senior Chief Waruhiu one of colonial Kenya's most controversial chiefs from his birth in 1890 to his death in 1952 Dedan Kimathi on Trial Julie MacArthur, 2017-11-27 The transcript from this historic trial long thought destroyed or hidden unearths a piece of the British colonial archive at a critical point in the Mau Mau Rebellion Its discovery and landmark publication unsettles an already contentious Kenyan history and its reverberations in the postcolonial present Perhaps no figure embodied the ambiguities colonial fears and collective imaginations of Kenya's decolonization era more than Dedan Kimathi the self proclaimed field marshal of the rebel forces that took to the forests to fight colonial rule in the 1950s Kimathi personified many of the contradictions that the Mau Mau Rebellion represented rebel statesman literate peasant modern traditionalist His capture and trial in 1956 and subsequent execution for many marked the end of the rebellion and turned Kimathi into a patriotic martyr Here the entire trial transcript is available for the first time This critical edition also includes provocative contributions from leading Mau Mau scholars reflecting on the meaning of the rich documents offered here and the figure of

Kimathi in a much wider field of historical and contemporary concerns These include the nature of colonial justice the moral arguments over rebellion nationalism and the end of empire and the complexities of memory and memorialization in contemporary Kenya Contributors David Anderson Simon Gikandi Nicholas Githuku Lotte Hughes and John Lonsdale

Introductory note by Willy Mutunga Reawakened Jeff Evans, 2021-06-10 In this important book ten navigators the late Hec Busby Piripi Evans and Jacko Thatcher from Aotearoa New Zealand Peia Patai and Tua Pittman from the Cook Islands and Kalepa Baybayan Shorty Bertelmann Nainoa Thompson Onohi Paishon and Bruce Blankenfeld from Hawai i share the challenges and triumphs of traditional wayfinding based on the deep knowledge of legendary navigator Mau Piailug They also discuss the significance of receiving the title of Pwo master navigator from Piailug and the responsibilities that come with that position Their stories are intertwined with the renaissance of knowledge and traditions around open ocean voyaging that are inspiring communities across the Pacific The Last Mau Mau David Njagi, 1991 Peaceful Resistance Robert M. Press, 2017-03-02 An innovative study that examines how peaceful domestic tactics by individual human rights activists and organizational activists with public support can force an authoritarian regime to make key concessions Robert Press explores the creation and impact of a culture of resistance He examines how domestic pressure can be more important than foreign pressure for political reform especially in underdeveloped authoritarian states This study of contemporary Kenya fills a gap in traditional social movement theory to show how a resistance movement actually starts Contrary to long dominant theory the book shows how the initiative for such a movement can come from activists themselves in the face of severe obstacles in society With its unique findings on the effects of individual activism and peaceful resistance this book will attract a broad audience in the study and practice of international relations comparative politics sociology interest groups peace and conflict and human rights Proudly We Can Be Africans James H. Meriwether, 2009-01-05 The mid twentieth century witnessed nations across Africa fighting for their independence from colonial forces By examining black Americans attitudes toward and responses to these liberation struggles James Meriwether probes the shifting meaning of Africa in the intellectual political and social lives of African Americans Paying particular attention to such important figures and organizations as W E B Du Bois Martin Luther King Jr and the NAACP Meriwether incisively utilizes the black press personal correspondence and oral histories to render a remarkably nuanced and diverse portrait of African American opinion Meriwether builds the book around seminal episodes in modern African history including nonviolent protests against apartheid in South Africa the Mau Mau war in Kenya Ghana s drive for independence under Kwame Nkrumah and Patrice Lumumba s murder in the Congo Viewing these events within the context of their own changing lives especially in regard to the U S civil rights struggle African Americans have continually reconsidered their relationship to contemporary Africa and vigorously debated how best to translate their concerns into action in the international arena Grounded in black Americans encounters with Africa this transnational history sits astride the leading issues of the twentieth century race civil rights

anticolonialism and the intersections of domestic race relations and U S foreign relations Leaves From the Fig Tree Diana Duff, Born in Africa Anglo Irish by descent Diana aged two travelled from Johannesburg to Ireland to Annes Grove a stately Georgian home with world famous gardens with talk of horses rare plants and fishing juxtaposed with tales of banshees the little people r ths the foxy haired ghost and visits from Elizabeth Bowen Vita Sackville West David Cecil and many others Aged 18 Diana returned to Africa where she doubled for Grace Kelly in Mogambo met Raymond Hook the king of cheetah racing befriended the legendary Ewart Grogan and unwittingly employed a Mau Mau leader Ever one to stand up for what is right she challenged the authorities at the height of apartheid and won With humour eloquence empathy and candour Diana shares her return to a place from her childhood where family truths are learned along with the realisation that Africa has real magic all of its own p li white space pre wrap Sites of imperial memory Dominik Geppert, Frank Muller, 2016-05-16 Europe s great colonial empires have long been a thing of the past but the memories they generated are still all around us They have left deep imprints on the different memory communities that were affected by the processes of establishing running and dismantling these systems of imperial rule and they are still vibrant and evocative today This volume brings together a collection of innovative and fresh studies exploring different sites of imperial memory those conceptual and real places where the memories of former colonial rulers and of former colonial subjects have crystallised into a lasting form The volume explores how memory was built up re shaped and preserved across different empires continents and centuries It shows how it found concrete expression in stone and bronze how it adhered to the stories that were told and retold about great individuals and how it was suppressed denied and neglected Imperial Reckoning Caroline Elkins, 2010-04-01 A major work of history that for the first time reveals the violence and terror at the heart of Britain s civilizing mission in Kenya As part of the Allied forces thousands of Kenyans fought alongside the British in World War II But just a few years after the defeat of Hitler the British colonial government detained nearly the entire population of Kenya s largest ethnic minority the Kikuyu some one and a half million people The compelling story of the system of prisons and work camps where thousands met their deaths has remained largely untold the victim of a determined effort by the British to destroy all official records of their attempts to stop the Mau Mau uprising the Kikuyu people s ultimately successful bid for Kenyan independence Caroline Elkins an assistant professor of history at Harvard University spent a decade in London Nairobi and the Kenyan countryside interviewing hundreds of Kikuyu men and women who survived the British camps as well as the British and African loyalists who detained them The result is an unforgettable account of the unraveling of the British colonial empire in Kenya a pivotal moment in twentieth century history with chilling parallels to America s own imperial project Imperial Reckoning is the winner of the 2006 Pulitzer Prize for Nonfiction A History of Counterinsurgency Gregory Fremont-Barnes, 2015-05-05 This two volume history of counterinsurgency covers all the major and many of the lesser known examples of this widespread and enduring form of conflict addressing the various measures employed in the attempt to overcome the insurgency and examining the individuals and organizations responsible for everything from counterterrorism to infrastructure building How and when should counterinsurgency be pursued as insurgency is growing in frequency and conversely while conventional warfare continues to decline as a means by which political rivals seek to impose their will upon each other What lessons from the past should today's policymakers strategists military leaders and soldiers in the field keep in mind while facing off against 21st century insurgents This two volume set offers a comprehensive history of modern counterinsurgency covering the key examples of this widespread and enduring form of conflict It identifies the political military social and economic measures employed in attempting to overcome insurgency examining the work of the individuals and organizations involved demonstrating how success and failure dictated change from established policy and carefully analyzing the results Readers will gain valuable insight from the detailed assessments of the history of counterinsurgency that demonstrate which strategies have succeeded and which have failed and why After an introductory essay on the subject each chapter provides historical background to the insurgency being addressed before focusing on the specific policies pursued and actions taken by the counterinsurgency force Each section also provides an assessment of those operations including in most cases an analysis of lessons learned and where appropriate their relevance to counterinsurgency operations today The set's coverage spans modern counterinsurgencies from Europe to Asia to Africa since 1900 and includes the ongoing counterinsurgency operations in Afghanistan today Its wide international approach to the subject makes the set a prime resource for readers seeking specific information on a particular conflict or a better understanding of the general theories and practices of counterinsurgency

Britain's Gulag Caroline Elkins, 2023-09-21 Only a few years after Britain defeated fascism came the Mau Mau uprising in Kenya a mass armed rebellion by the Kikuyu people demanding the return of their land and freedom The draconian response of Britain's colonial government was to detain nearly the entire Kikuyu population of 1.5 million and to portray them as sub human savages Detainees in their thousands possibly a hundred thousand or more died from exhaustion disease starvation and systemic physical brutality For decades these events remained untold Caroline Elkins conducted years of research to piece together this story unearthing reams of documents and interviewing several hundred Kikuyu survivors Britain's Gulag reveals for the first time the full savagery of the Mau Mau war and the ruthless determination with which Britain sought to control its empire

Readings in Sexualities from Africa Rachel Spronk, Thomas Hendriks, 2020-02-04 Images and stories about African sexuality abound in today's globalized media Frequently old stereotypes and popular opinion inform these stories and sex in the media is predominately approached as a problem in need of solutions and intervention The authors gathered here refuse an easy characterization of African sexuality and instead seek to understand the various erotic realities sexual practices and gendered changes taking place across the continent They present a nuanced and comprehensive overview of the field of sex and sexuality in Africa to serve as a guide through the quickly expanding literature This collection offers a set of texts that use sexuality as a prism for studying how communities coalesce against the canvas of larger political and economic contexts and how personal lives evolve therein Scholars working in Africa the U S and Europe reflect on issues of representation health and bio politics same sex relationships and identity transactional economies of sex religion and tradition and the importance of pleasure and agency This multidimensional reader provides a comprehensive view of sexuality from an African perspective Historical Companion to Postcolonial Literatures in English Prem Poddar,2019-08-07 This is the first reference guide to the political cultural and economic histories that form the subject matter of postcolonial literatures written in English The focus of the Companion is principally on the histories of postcolonial literatures in the Anglophone world Africa the Middle East South Asia South east Asia Australia and New Zealand the Pacific the Caribbean and Canada There are also long entries discussing the literatures and histories of those further areas that have also claimed the title postcolonial notably Britain East Asia Ireland Latin America and the United States The Companion contains 220 entries written by 150 acknowledged scholars of postcolonial history and literature covers major events ideas movements and figures in postcolonial histories long regional survey essays on historiography and women s histories Each entry provides a summary of the historical event or topic and bibliographies of postcolonial literary works and histories Extensive cross references and indexes enable readers to locate particular literary texts in their relevant historical contexts as well as to discover related literary texts and histories in other regions with ease

From Divided Pasts to Cohesive Futures Hiroyuki Hino,Arnim Langer,John Lonsdale,Frances Stewart,2019-08-22 Offers an insightful yet readable study of the paths and challenges to social cohesion in Africa by experienced historians economists and political scientists Allies at the End of Empire David M. Anderson,Daniel Branch,2017-09-05 The wars of decolonization fought by European colonial powers after 1945 had their origins in the fraught history of imperial domination but were framed and shaped by the emerging politics of the Cold War In all the counter insurgencies mounted against armed nationalist risings in this period the European colonial powers employed locally recruited militias styled as loyalists to fight their dirty wars These loyalist histories have been neglected in the nationalist narratives that have dominated the post decolonization landscape and this book offers the first comparative assessment of the role played by these allies at the end of empire Their experience illuminates the deeper ambiguities of the decolonization story some loyalists were subjected to vengeful violence at liberation others actually claimed the victory for themselves and seized control of the emergent state while others still maintained a role as fighting units into the Cold War The overlap between the history of decolonization and the emergence of the Cold War is a central theme in the studies presented here The collection discusses the categorization of these irregular auxiliary forces after 1945 and presents seven case studies from five European colonialisms covering nine former colonies Portugal Angola the Netherlands Indonesia France Algeria Belgium Congo and Britain Cyprus Kenya Aden South Yemen and Oman This book was originally published as a special issue of the International History Review From Bureaucracy to Bullets Bree Akesson,Andrew R. Basso,2022-02-11 From Bureaucracy to Bullets uses eight compelling case studies from five continents and spanning the 20th and 21st centuries to explore the concept of extreme domicide or the intentional destruction of home as a result of political violence Moving beyond mere description From Bureaucracy to Bullets identifies common factors that contribute to extreme domicide thereby providing human rights actors with a framework to hold perpetrators accountable for their actions
