Mau Mau Memoirs History Memory And Politics:

Mau Mau Memoirs Marshall S. Clough, 1998 Clough history U of Northern Colorado analyzes 13 personal accounts by Kenyans in order to make a case for not only their historical value but their role in the struggle to define the importance of Mau Mau within Kenyan historiography and politics He argues that the recollections of the authors whose experiences ranged from organizing the secret movement to supplying the guerillas to active fighting to resistance in the British detention camps serve to refute both the British and Kenyan versions of the revolt Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Mau Mau Memoirs Marshall S. Clough, 2022 Clough deftly addresses the contentious issues of the Mau Mau revolt through his analysis of the Mau Mau memoirs making a strong case for not only the historical value of the memoirs but also the critical importance of Mau Mau in the making of modern Kenya

The Politics of Historical Memory and Commemoration in Africa Cassandra Mark-Thiesen, Moritz Mihatsch, Michelle Sikes, 2021-12-06 Essays in Memory of Jan Georg Deutsch The volume observes some of the principles that drove Prof Jan Georg Deutsch's research highlighting present day politics for the way they shape historical remembrance learning from people on the ground through fieldwork and oral history and bringing various parts of the African continent into discussion with one another From Cape Town to Charlottesville many societies are grappling with historical consciousness and the production of public memory In particular how and why societies remember and forget what should serve as symbols of collective memory and whether there exists space for multiple memory cultures are questions being vigorously debated once again These discussions present particular challenges not only to official memory bound to ideological constructions of nationhood but also to the teaching of history and its links to social justice movements The volume re-centres Africa and African history in memory studies with each chapter drawing parallels to comparable cases in Africa and the world An underlying assumption is that what can be learned from the politics of historical memory in Africa will have relevance for contemporary politics globally and for understanding how memories can be mobilised for political ends

Human Rights in the Shadow of Colonial Violence Fabian Klose, 2013-05-31 Based on previously inaccessible material from international archives Human Rights in the Shadow of Colonial Violence examines the relationship between emerging human rights concepts after 1945 and repressive British and French actions against anticolonial movements in Africa

For Money and Elders Robert W. Blunt, 2019-11-19 Many observers of Kenya's complicated history see causes for concern from the use of public office for private gain to a constitutional structure historically lopsided towards the executive branch Yet efforts from critics and academics to diagnose the country's problems do not often consider what these fiscal and political issues mean to ordinary Kenyans How do Kenyans express their own political understanding make sense of governance and articulate what they expect from their leaders In For Money and Elders Robert W Blunt addresses these questions by turning to the political economic and religious signs in circulation in Kenya today He examines how Kenyans attempt to make sense of political instability caused by the uncertainty of authority behind everything from currency to title deeds When the symbolic order of a society is up for grabs he shows violence may seem like an expedient way to enforce the authority of signs Drawing on fertile concepts of sovereignty elderhood counterfeiting acephaly and more Blunt explores phenomena as diverse as the destabilization of ritual oaths public anxieties about Satanism with the advent of democratic reform and mistrust of official signs The result is a fascinating glimpse into Kenya s past and present and a penetrating reflection on meanings of violence in African politics

Health, State, and Society in Kenya George O. Ndege,2001 George Ndege provides an examination of the conflicts and compromises between Western biomedicine and African traditional therapies in colonial Kenya

Oppression and Resistance in Africa and the Diaspora Kenneth Kalu,Toyin Falola,2019-01-04 Africa s modern history is replete with different forms of encounters and conflicts From the fifteenth century when millions of Africans were forcefully taken away as slaves during the infamous Atlantic slave trade to the colonial conquests of the nineteenth century where European countries conquered and subsequently balkanized Africa and shared the continent to European powers and to the postcolonial era where many African leaders have maintained several instruments of exploitation the continent has seen different forms of encounters exploitations and oppressions These encounters and exploitations have equally been met with resistance in different forms and at different times The mode of Africa s encounters with the rest of the world have in several ways shaped and continue to shape the continent s social political and economic development trajectories Essays in this volume have addressed different aspects of these phases of encounters and resistance by Africa and the African Diaspora While the volume document different phases of oppression and conflict it also contains some accounts of Africa s resistance to external and internal oppressions and exploitations From the physical guerilla resistance of the Mau Mau group against British colonial exploitation in Kenya and its aftermath to efforts of the Kayble group to preserve their language and culture in modern Algeria and from the innovative ways in which the Tuareg are using guitar and music as forms of expression and resistance to the modern ways in which contemporary African immigrants in North America are coping with oppressive structures and racism the chapters in this volume have examined different phases of oppressions and suppressions of Africa and its people as well as acts of resistance put up by Africans

Managing Heritage, Making Peace Annie E. Coombes,Lotte Hughes,Karega Munene,2019-12-26 Kenya stands at a crossroads in its history and heritage as the nation celebrates its fiftieth anniversary of independence from Britain in 2013 At this important juncture what parts of its history including the Mau Mau uprising do citizens and state wish to remember and commemorate and what is best forgotten or occluded What does heritage mean to ordinary Kenyans and what role does it play in building nationhood and forging peace and reconciliation Focusing on the 1990s to the present Managing Heritage Making Peace is a timely exploration of the ways in which Kenyans are engaging with the past in the present including such local initiatives as the community peace museums movement local and national monuments and other notable commemorative actions The authors show how Kenya is facing a continuing crisis over nationhood heritage memory and identity which must be resolved to achieve social cohesion and peace

Conservation of Natural and Cultural Heritage in Kenya Anne-Marie Deisser, Mugwima Njuguna, 2016-10-07 In Kenya cultural and natural heritage has a particular value Its pre historic heritage not only tells the story of man s origin and evolution but has also contributed to the understanding of the earth s history fossils and artefacts spanning over 27 million years have been discovered and conserved by the National Museums of Kenya NMK Alongside this the steady rise in the market value of African art has also affected Kenya Demand for African tribal art has surpassed that for antiquities of Roman Byzantine and Egyptian origin and in African countries currently experiencing conflicts this activity invariably attracts looters traffickers and criminal networks This book brings together essays by heritage experts from different backgrounds including conservation heritage management museum studies archaeology environment and social sciences architecture and landscape geography philosophy and economics to explore three key themes the underlying ethics practices and legal issues of heritage conservation the exploration of architectural and urban heritage of Nairobi and the natural heritage landscapes and sacred sites in relation to local Kenyan communities and tourism It thus provides an overview of conservation practices in Kenya from 2000 to 2015 and highlights the role of natural and cultural heritage as a key factor of social economic development and as a potential instrument for conflict resolution

Movements in Time Natalie Churn, Cecile Lawrence, 2013-01-14 2011 was a tumultuous year in terms of social protest movements The Occupy movement spread across the globe with unprecedented support of an enormity not seen since 1968 while revolutions in Egypt Tunisia Morocco Syria and Libya caught the attention of the global media and brought the word revolution back into public discussions on social justice and governance For many people worldwide it appears that it is time for social political and economic change And it is precisely time in all its forms which cannot be ignored in this context As something that surrounds us and affects every aspect of our lives time is at once a tool for control for order for emancipation for understanding the future and the past and measuring degrees of freedom and quality of life in the present This book brings together essays from fields such as politics cultural studies and philosophy in order to reinterpret and reorient current thinking on the possibilities for new understandings of concepts of time to bring about social change History as the passing of time clock time the exchange value of time qualitative time and alternative or marginal notions of temporality are analysed through the lens of various theoretical thinkers and applied to a multitude of political and social case studies Breaking away from traditional notions of time as linear and against common socially constructed understandings of time these essays suggest that new conceptions of time can have a major influence on creating a more just tolerant world

Cultural Heritage Management in Africa George Okello Abungu, Webber Ndoro, 2022-12-15 Cultural Heritage Management in Africa explores the diversity of Africa's cultural heritage by analysing how and why this heritage has been managed and by considering the factors that continue to influence management strategies and systems throughout the African continent Including contributions from prominent scholars and heritage professionals working across Africa the volume presents critical contemporary perspectives on the state of heritage in the area Chapters analyse the practices that emanated from different colonial experiences and consider what impact these had and continue to have on the management of African heritage It also critically examines the ideological influence of independence movements on the African continent's management and remembering of heritage and considers whether there are any differences in heritage management between countries that experienced armed conflicts and those that did not The volume will be the first to critically assess the state of heritage management now at a time when vital conversations about the balance between heritage and development is ongoing and the actions of new players have begun to impact the management and practice of heritage in the region Cultural Heritage Management in Africa will be essential reading for those engaged in the study of museums and heritage development archaeology anthropology history and African studies It will also be of interest to heritage and museum professionals who wish to learn more about the decolonisation of heritage

Convicts Clare Anderson, 2022-01-13 Clare Anderson provides a radical new reading of histories of empire and nation showing that the history of punishment is not connected solely to the emergence of prisons and penitentiaries but to histories of governance occupation and global connections across the world Exploring punitive mobility to islands colonies and remote inland and border regions over a period of five centuries she proposes a close and enduring connection between punishment governance repression and nation and empire building and reveals how states imperial powers and trading companies used convicts to satisfy various geo political and social ambitions Punitive mobility became intertwined with other forms of labour bondage including enslavement with convicts a key source of unfree labour that could be used to occupy territories Far from passive subjects however convicts manifested their agency in various forms including the extension of political ideology and cultural transfer and vital contributions to contemporary knowledge production

The Fear and the Freedom Keith Lowe, 2017-10-24 Bestselling historian Keith Lowe's The Fear and the Freedom looks at the astonishing innovations that sprang from WWII and how they changed the world The Fear and the Freedom is Keith Lowe's follow up to Savage Continent While that book painted a picture of Europe in all its horror as WWII was ending The Fear and the Freedom looks at all that has happened since focusing on the changes that were brought about because of WWII simultaneously one of the most catastrophic and most innovative events in history It killed millions and eradicated empires creating the idea of human rights and giving birth to the UN It was because of the war that penicillin was first mass produced computers were developed and rockets first sent to the edge of space The war created new philosophies new ways of living new architecture this was the era of Le Corbusier Simone de Beauvoir and Chairman Mao But amidst the waves of revolution and idealism there were also fears of globalization a dread of the atom bomb and an unexpressed longing for a past forever gone All of these things and more came about as direct consequences of the war and continue to affect the world that we live in today The Fear and the Freedom is the first book to look at all of the changes brought about because of WWII Based on research from five continents Keith Lowe s The Fear and the Freedom tells the very human story of how the war not only transformed our world but also changed the very way we think about ourselves

Narrating the Self and Nation in Kenyan Autobiographical

Writings Samuel Ndogo,2016 Author Samuel Ndogo offers an understanding of the autobiographical genre in contemporary Kenyan literature He draws attention to life writing as a form of cultural re imagination in post colonial Africa Taking into consideration contradictions and paradoxes of referentiality in life writing this book examines the autobiographies of Jaramogi Oginga Odinga Ngugi wa Thiong o Wangari Maathai and Bethwell Ogot The analysis dwells on self representations in correlation with imaginations of the Kenyan nation in these works Thus the study gives a critical account into the modern memoir the forms and styles it takes the ways in which these authors tend to understand and present their lives Series Contributions to African Research Beitr ge zur Afrikaforschung Vol 63 Subject African Studies Literary Criticism Gender and Authority across Disciplines, Space and Time Adele Bardazzi,Alberica Bazzoni,2020-09-07 This edited collection investigates the relationship between gender and authority across geographical contexts periods and fields Who is recognized as a legitimate voice in debate and decision making and how is that legitimization produced Through a variety of methodological approaches the chapters address some of the most pressing and controversial themes under scrutiny in current feminist scholarship and activism such as pornography political representation LGBTI struggles female genital mutilation the MeToo movement abortion divorce and consent Organized into three sections Politics Law and Religion and Imaginaries the contributors highlight formal and informal aspects of authority its gendered and racialized configurations and practices of solidarity resistance and subversion by traditionally disempowered subjects In dialogue with feminist scholarship on power and agency the notion of authority as elaborated here offers a distinctive lens to critique political and epistemic foundations of inequality and oppression and will be of use to scholars and students across gender studies sociology politics linguistics theology history law film and literature

Narrating War and Peace in Africa

Solimar Otero,2010 Narrating War and Peace in Africa interrogates conventional representations of Africa and African culture mainly in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries with an emphasis on portrayals of conflict and peace While Africa has experienced political and social turbulence throughout its history more recent conflicts seem to reinforce the myth of barbarism across the continent in Nigeria Rwanda Somalia Sierra Leone Uganda Kenya Mozambique Chad South Africa Zimbabwe and Sudan The essays in this volume address reductive and stereotypical assumptions of postcolonial violence as tribal in nature and offer instead various perspectives across disciplinary boundaries that foster a less fetishized more contextualized understanding of African war peace and memory Through their geographical historical and cultural scope and diversity the chapters in Narrating War and Peace in Africa aim to challenge negative stereotypes that abound in relation to Africa in general and to its wars and conflicts in particular encouraging a shift to more balanced and nuanced representations of the continent and its political and social climates Contributors Ann Albuyeh Zermarie Deacon Alicia C Decker Am na Mo nfar Kayode Omoniyi Ogunfolabi Sabrina Parent Susan Rasmussen Michael Sharp Cheryl Sterling Hetty ter Haar Melissa Tully Pamela Wadende Metasebia Woldemariam Jonathan Zilberg Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin Hetty ter Haar is an independent researcher in England

The City Makers of Nairobi Anders Eise, Kristin Eise, 2020-07-21 The City Makers of Nairobi re examines the history of the urban development of Nairobi in the colonial period Although Nairobi was a colonial construct with lasting negative repercussions the African population s impact on its history and development is often overlooked This book shows how Africans took an active part in making use of the city and creating it and how they were far from being subjects in the development of a European colonial city This re interpretation of Nairobi s history suggests that the post colonial city is the result of more than unjust and segregative colonial planning Merging historical documentation with extensive contemporary urban theory this book provides in depth knowledge of the key historical roles played by locals in the development of their city It argues that the idea of agency a popular inroad to urban development today is not a current phenomenon but one that has always existed with its many social spatial and physical ramifications This is an ideal read for upper level undergraduate and graduate students studying the history of urban development and theories providing an in depth case study for reference The City Makers of Nairobi broaches interdisciplinary themes important to urban planners social scientists historians and those working with popular settlements in cities across the world

Empire, Emergency and International Law John Reynolds, 2017-08-10 This book analyses the states of emergency exposing the intersections between colonial law international law imperialism and racial discrimination

The Top Books of the Year Mau Mau Memoirs History Memory And Politics The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Mau Mau Memoirs History Memory And Politics : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Mau Mau Memoirs History Memory And Politics : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
