The Films of Denys Arcand Jim Leach, 2020-07-17 Denys Arcand is best known outside Canada for three films that were nominated for Academy Awards for Best Foreign Language Film The Decline of the American Empire 1986 Jesus of Montreal 1989 and The Barbarian Invasions

2003 the last of which won the Award Yet Arcand has been making films since the early 1960s When he started making films Quebec was rapidly transforming from a relatively homogeneous community united by its Catholic faith and French language and culture into a more fragmented modern society The Films of Denys Arcand sheds light on how Arcand addressed the impact of these changes from the 1960s when the long drawn out debate on Quebec s possible separation from the rest of Canada began to the present in which the traditional cultural heritage has been further fragmented by the increasing presence of diasporic communities His career and films offer an ideal case study for exploring the contradictions and tensions that have shaped Quebec cinema and culture in a period of increasing globalization and technological change

Guide to the Cinema(s) of Canada Peter Rist, 2001-07-30. This new volume in the Greenwood Press series Reference Guides to the World's Cinema discusses the films and personalities of the Canadian cinema. This guide encompasses the diverse output of both the English and French Canadian communities and includes 175 films and 125 filmmakers and actors. Alphabetically arranged entries discuss important films, actors, directors, shorts, and a number of experimental films. With few exceptions, films are included only if their production company was incorporated in Canada. Similarly, filmmakers and actors represent people who have worked primarily in Canada. This guide will interest scholars, students, and film buffs. Brief bibliographies after each entry provide sources for further reading. Three appendixes provide additional information regarding Canadian-born filmmakers and actors excluded from the main text, winners of Canadian film awards, and a listing of the top ten Canadian films.
