Maurice Blanchot Et Le Deplacement Dorp:

Canadian Periodical Index, 2000      L'Espace Littéraire Maurice Blanchot, 1989-01-01 Maurice Blanchot the eminent literary and cultural critic has had a vast influence on contemporary French writers among them Jean Paul Sartre and Jacques Derrida From the 1930s through the present day his writings have been shaping the international literary consciousness The Space of Literature first published in France in 1955 is central to the development of Blanchot's thought In it he reflects on literature and the unique demand it makes upon our attention Thus he explores the process of reading as well as the nature of artistic creativity all the while considering the relation of the literary work to time to history and to death This book consists not so much in the application of a critical method or the demonstration of a theory of literature as in a patiently deliberate meditation upon the literary experience informed most notably by studies of Mallarmé Kafka Rilke and Hölderlin Blanchot's discussions of those writers are among the finest in any language      Criticism and Truth Roland Barthes, 2007-02-22 Roland Barthes 1915-1980 was a major French writer literary theorist and critic of French culture and society His classic works include Mythologies and Camera Lucida Criticism and Truth is a brilliant discussion of the language of literary criticism and a key work in the Barthes canon It is a cultural linguistic and intellectual challenge to those who believe in the clarity flexibility and neutrality of language couched in Barthes' own inimitable and provocative style      The Book to Come Maurice Blanchot, Charlotte Mandell, 2003 Featuring essays originally published in La Nouvelle Revue Française this collection clearly demonstrates why Maurice Blanchot was a key figure in exploring the relation between literature and philosophy      The Absence of Myth Georges Bataille, 2024-11-19 For Bataille the absence of myth had itself become the myth of the modern age In a world that had lost the secret of its cohesion Bataille saw surrealism as both a symptom and the beginning of an attempt to address this loss His writings on this theme are the result of profound reflection in the wake of World War Two The Absence of Myth is the most incisive study yet made of surrealism insisting on its importance as a cultural and social phenomenon with far reaching consequences Clarifying Bataille's links with the surrealist movement and throwing revealing light on his complex and greatly misunderstood relationship with André Breton The Absence of Myth shows Bataille to be a much more radical figure than his postmodernist devotees would have us believe a man who continually tried to extend Marxist social theory a pessimistic thinker but one as far removed from nihilism as can be Introduced and translated by Michael Richardson      Sovereignties in Question Jacques Derrida, 2005 This book brings together five encounters They include the date or signature and its singularity the notion of the trace structures of futurity and the to come language and questions of translation such speech acts as testimony and promising the possibility of the impossible and the poem as addressed and destined beyond knowledge      Libertine Strategies Joan E. DeJean, 1981 Discusses the development of the French novel      Thomas the Obscure Maurice Blanchot, 1988 Originally published in English New York David Lewis Inc 1973      Invention of Hysteria Georges Didi-Huberman, 2004-09-17 The first English language publication of a classic French book on the relationship between the development of photography and of the medical category of hysteria In this classic of French cultural studies Georges Didi Huberman traces the intimate and reciprocal relationship between the disciplines of psychiatry and photography in the late nineteenth century Focusing on the immense photographic output of the Salpetriere hospital the notorious Parisian asylum for insane and incurable women Didi Huberman shows the crucial role played by photography in the invention of the category of hysteria Under the direction of the medical teacher and clinician Jean Martin Charcot the inmates of Salpetriere identified as hysterics were methodically photographed providing skeptical colleagues with visual proof of hysteria s specific form These images many of which appear in this book provided the materials for the multivolume album Iconographie photographique de la Salpetriere As Didi Huberman shows these photographs were far from simply objective documentation The subjects were required to portray their hysterical type they performed their own hysteria Bribed by the special status they enjoyed in the purgatory of experimentation and threatened with transfer back to the inferno of the incurables the women patiently posed for the photographs and submitted to presentations of hysterical attacks before the crowds that gathered for Charcot s Tuesday Lectures Charcot did not stop at voyeuristic observation Through techniques such as hypnosis electroshock therapy and genital manipulation he instigated the hysterical symptoms in his patients eventually giving rise to hatred and resistance on their part Didi Huberman follows this path from complicity to antipathy in one of Charcot s favorite cases that of Augustine whose image crops up again and again in the Iconographie Augustine s virtuosic performance of hysteria ultimately became one of self sacrifice seen in pictures of ecstasy crucifixion and silent cries     Aesthetics, Method, and Epistemology Michel Foucault, 2019-11-14 Foucault leaves no reader untouched or unchanged Edward Said Aesthetics the second volume of the complete collection of Michel Foucault s courses articles and interviews focuses on the philosophy literature and art which informed his engagement with ethics and power including brilliant commentaries on the work of de Sade Rousseau Marx Magritte Nietzsche Freud and Wagner He also explores a number of avant garde authors who challenge our traditional notions of humanism extends his theories on power relations and looks back over the whole of his extraordinary critical history of thought Edited by James D Faubion Translated by Robert Hurley and Others     Language, Counter-Memory, Practice Michel Foucault, 2019-06-30 Because of their range brilliance and singularity the ideas of the philosopher critic historian Michel Foucault have gained extraordinary currency throughout the Western intellectual community This book offers a selection of seven of Foucault s most important published essays translated from the French with an introductory essay and notes by Donald F Bouchard Also included are a summary of a course given by Foucault at College de France the transcript of a conversation between Foucault and Gilles Deleuze and an interview with Foucault that appeared in the journal Actuel Professor Bouchard has divided the book into three closely related sections The four essays in Part One examine language as a perilous limit of what we know and what we are The essays in the second part suggest the methodological guidelines to which Foucault subscribes and they record in the editor's words the penetration of the language of literature into the domain of discursive thought. The material in the last section is more obviously political than the essays. It treats language in use, language attempting to impart knowledge and power. Translated by the editor and Sherry Simon into fluent and lucid English, these essays will appeal primarily to students of literature, especially those interested in contemporary continental structuralist criticism. But because of the breadth of Foucault's interests, they should also prove valuable to anthropologists, linguists, sociologists, and psychologists.

Life Death Jacques Derrida, 2023-06-19 The seventh in our series of Derrida's seminars, Life Death provides interdisciplinary reflections on the relationship of life and death, now in paperback. One of Jacques Derrida's most provocative works, Life Death deconstructs a deeply rooted dichotomy of Western thought: life and death. In rethinking the relationship between life and death, Derrida undertakes a multi-disciplinary analysis of a range of topics across philosophy, linguistics, and the life sciences. Derrida gave this seminar over fourteen sessions between 1975 and 1976 at the École Normale Supérieure in Paris to prepare students for the agrégation, a notoriously competitive exam. The theme for the exam that year was Life and Death, but Derrida made a critical modification to the title by dropping the coordinating conjunction. The resulting title, Life Death, poses a philosophical question about the close relationship between life and death. Through close readings of Freudian psychoanalysis, the philosophy of Nietzsche and Heidegger, French geneticist François Jacob, and epistemologist Georges Canguilhem, Derrida argues that death must be considered neither as the opposite of life nor as the truth or fulfillment of it, but rather as that which both limits life and makes it possible. Derrida thus not only questions traditional understandings of the relationship between life and death but also ultimately develops a new way of thinking about what he calls life-death.

Literature and Politics in the Later Foucault Azucena G. Blanco, 2020-11-09 This study proposes a revised interpretation of Foucault's views on literature. It has been argued that the philosopher's interest in literature was limited to the 1960s and of a mostly depoliticized nature. However, Foucault's previously unpublished later works suggest a different reality, showing a sustained interest in literature and its politics. In the light of this new material, the book repositions Foucault's ideas within recent debates on the politics of literature.

1913: The year of French modernism Max Ernst, Werner Spies, 2009 Effie Rentzou, André Benhaïm, 2020-08-25 This book takes its cue from the annus mirabilis for French culture to outline French modernism and to situate it on the map of global modernism. Essays on specific works in various media present the first narrative of French modernism as a critical category and establish its position in the thriving field of modernist studies.

The New Nietzsche David B. Allison, 1985 The fifteen essays written by such eminent scholars as Derrida, Heidegger, Deleuze, Klossowski, and Blanchot focus on the Nietzschean concepts of the Will to Power, the Übermensch, and the Eternal Return. They discuss Nietzsche's style and deal with the religious implications of his ideas. Taken together, they provide an indispensable foil to the interpretations available in most current American writing.

When the Moon Waxes Red Trinh T. Minh-ha, 2014-02-04 In this new collection of her provocative essays on Third World art and culture Trinh Minh ha offers new challenges to Western regimes of knowledge Bringing to her subjects an acute sense of the many meanings of the marginal she examines topics such as Asian and African texts the theories of Barthes questions of spectatorship the enigmas of art and the perils of anthropology When the Moon Waxes Red is an extended argument against reductive analyses even those that appear politically adroit The multiply hyphenated peoples of color are not simply placed in a duality between two cultural heritages throughout Trinh describes the predicament of having to live a difference that has no name and too many names already She argues for multicultural revision of knowledge so that a new politics can transform reality rather than merely ideologize it By rewriting the always emerging already distorted place of struggle such work seeks to beat the master at his own game Audio-vision Michel Chion,1994 Deals with issue of sound in audio visual images The Fold Gilles Deleuze,2006-05-16 Noir and Blanchot William S. Allen,2020-01-23 In dark or desperate times the artwork is placed in a difficult position Optimism seems na ve while pessimism is no better During some of the most demanding years of the 20th century two distinctive bodies of work sought to respond to this problem the writings of Maurice Blanchot and American film noir Both were seeking not only to respond to the times but also to critically reflect them but both were often criticised for their own darkness Understanding how this darkness became the means of responding to the darkness of the times is the focus of Noir and Blanchot which examines key films from the period including Double Indemnity and Vertigo alongside Blanchot s writings particularly his 1948 narrative Death Sentence What emerges from this investigation is the complex manner in which these works disrupt the experience of time and the event and in doing so expose an entirely different mode of material expression
