In the Shadow of No Towers Art Spiegelman,2004 On 11th September 2001 Art Spiegelman raced to the World Trade Center not knowing if his daughter Nadja was alive or dead Once she was found safe in her school at the foot of the burning towers he returned home to meditate on the trauma and to work on a comic strip Subversive iconic and burningly articulate In the Shadow of No Towers is New Yorker Art Spiegelman s extraordinary account of the hijacking on 9 11 and the subsequent hijacking of those events by America

Against the Unspeakable Naomi Mandel,2006 In Against the Unspeakable Naomi Mandel offers a paradigm of reading that will enable the crucial work on comparative atrocities and the representation of suffering to move beyond the impasse of unspeakability Discussing a variety of texts such as Toni Morrison s Beloved Steven Spielberg s Schindler s List and William Styron s Confessions of Nat Turner Mandel asks What does the evocation of the limits of language enable writers authors and critics to do

Vietnamerica GB Tran,2013-05-01 A superb new graphic memoir in which an inspired artist storyteller reveals the road that brought his family to where they are today Vietnamerica GB Tran is a young Vietnamese American artist who grew up distant from and largely indifferent to his family s history Born and raised in South Carolina as a son of immigrants he knew that his parents had fled Vietnam during the fall of Saigon But even as they struggled to adapt to life in America they preferred to forget the past and to focus on their children s future It was only in his late twenties that GB began to learn their extraordinary story When his last surviving grandparents die within months of each other GB visits Vietnam for the first time and begins to learn the tragic history of his family and of the homeland they left behind In this family saga played out in the shadow of history GB uncovers the root of his father s remoteness and why his mother had remained in an often fractious marriage why his grandfather had abandoned his own family to fight for the Viet Cong why his grandmother had had an affair with a French soldier GB learns that his parents had taken harrowing flight from Saigon during the final hours of the war not because they thought America was better but because they were afraid of what would happen if they stayed They entered America a foreign land they couldn t even imagine where family connections dissolved and shared history was lost within a span of a single generation In telling his family s story GB finds his own place in this saga of hardship and heroism Vietnamerica is a visually stunning portrait of survival escape and reinvention and of the gift of the American immigrants dream passed on to their children Vietnamerica is an unforgettable story of family revelation and reconnection and a new graphic memoir classic

Mapping Jewish Identities Laurence J. Silberstein,2000-07 Is Jewish identity flourishing or in decline Community leaders and scholarly researchers continually seek to determine the attitudes beliefs and activities that best measure Jewish identity At issue according to these studies is the very survival of the Jewish community itself But such studies rarely ask what actually is being examined when we attempt to assess Jewish identity or any identity Most tend to assume that identity is a preexisting relatively fixed frame of reference reflecting shared cultural and historical experiences Drawing on recent work in such fields as cultural studies poststructuralist theory postmodern philosophy and feminist theory Mapping Jewish Identities challenges this premise Contesting conventional approaches to Jewish identity contributors argue that Jewish identity should be conceptualized as an ongoing dynamic process of becoming in response to changing cultural and social conditions rather than as a stable defining body of traits Contributors including Daniel Boyarin Laura Levitt Adi Ophir and Gordon Bearn examine such topics as American Jews desires to connect with a lost immigrant past through photography the complicated function of the Holocaust in the identity formation of contemporary Jews the impact of the struggle with the Palestinians on Israeli group identity construction and the ways in which repressed voices such as those of women Mizrahim and Israeli Arabs have changed our ways of thinking about Jewish and Israeli identity The Mass Ornament Siegfried Kracauer,1995 The Mass Ornament today remains a refreshing tribute to popular culture and its impressively interdisciplinary writings continue to shed light not only on Kracauer s later work but also on the ideas of the Frankfurt School the genealogy of film theory and cultural studies Weimar cultural politics and not least the exigencies of intellectual exile Between Hope and Despair Roger I. Simon, Sharon Rosenberg, Claudia Eppert, 2000 At the end of a century of unfathomable suffering societies are facing anew the question of how events that shock resist assimilation and evoke contradictory and complex responses should be remembered Between Hope and Despair specifically examines the pedagogical problem of how remembrance is to proceed when what is to be remembered is underscored by a logic difficult to comprehend and subversive of the humane character of existence This pedagogical attention to practices of remembrance reflects the growing cognizance that hope for a just and compassionate future lies in the sustained if troubled working through of these issues Trauma Cinema Janet Walker, 2023-11-15 Trauma Cinema focuses on a new breed of documentary films and videos that adopt catastrophe as their subject matter and trauma as their aesthetic Incorporating oral testimony home movie footage and documentary reenactment these documentaries express the havoc trauma wreaks on history and memory Janet Walker uses incest and the Holocaust as a double thematic focus and fiction films as a point of comparison Her astute and original examination considers the Hollywood classic Kings Row and the television movie Sybil in relation to vanguard nonfiction works including Errol Morris s Mr Death Lynn Hershman s video diaries and the chilling genealogy of incest Just Melvin Both incest and the Holocaust have also been featured in contemporary psychological literature on trauma and memory The author employs theories of post traumatic stress disorder and histories of the so called memory wars to illuminate the amnesias fantasies and mistakes in memory that must be taken into account along with corroborated evidence if we are to understand how personal and public historical meaning is made Janet Walker s engrossing narrative demonstrates that the past does not come down to us purely and simply through eyewitness accounts and tangible artifacts Her incisive analysis exposes the frailty of memory in the face of disquieting events while her joint consideration of trauma cinema and psychological theorizing radically reconstructs the roadblocks at the intersection of catastrophe memory and historical representation Trauma Cinema focuses on a new breed of documentary films and videos that adopt catastrophe as their subject matter and trauma as their aesthetic Incorporating oral testimony home movie footage and documentary reenactment these documentaries ex Pamphlets on Roman Inscriptions ,1844 Deogratias, A Tale of Rwanda J.P.
