Winter, 2021-08-11 The history and archaeology of Hellenistic Commagene is a rich field of study not in the least because of the remarkable monuments and inscriptions of king Antiochos I c 70 36 BC Over the last decades important new work has been done on Commagene proper providing novel interpretations of the epigraphical and historical record or the archaeological data and individual sites like Nemrud Dag Samosata or Arsameia Simultaneously scholars have tried to better understand Hellenistic Commagene by situating the region and its history in a wider Mediterranean and Near Eastern context This long awaited book provides a critical evaluation of all these new data and ideas on the basis of a theoretically embedded state of the art overview for the history and archaeology of Hellenistic Commagene From this volume a new picture emerges in which Hellenistic Commagene is no longer understood as peripheral and out of the ordinary but as an important node in a global Hellenistic network from Ai Khanoum to Pompeii and from Alexandria to Armawir The

Terror Jürgen Habermas, Jacques Derrida, Giovanna Borradori, 2003-06-15 The idea for Philosophy in a Time of Terror was born hours after the attacks on 9 11 and was realized just weeks later when Giovanna Borradori sat down with Jürgen Habermas and Jacques Derrida in New York City in separate interviews to evaluate the significance of the most destructive terrorist act ever perpetrated This book marks an unprecedented encounter between two of the most influential thinkers of our age as here for the first time Habermas and Derrida overcome their mutual antagonism and agree to appear side by side As the two philosophers disassemble and reassemble what we think we know about terrorism they break from the familiar social and political rhetoric increasingly polarized between good and evil In this process we watch two of the greatest intellects of the century at work Georges Rouault Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), James Thrall Soby, 1947
