Oxford love story is the only novel by English essayist Max Beerbohm a satire of undergraduate life at Oxford published in 1911 It includes the famous line Death cancels all engagements and presents a corrosive view of Edwardian Oxford The all male campus of Oxford Beerbohm s alma mater is a place where aesthetics holds sway above all else and where witty intellectuals reign Things haven t changed for its privileged student body for years until the beguiling music hall prestidigitator Zuleika Dobson shows up The book s marvelous prose dances along the line between reality and the absurd as students and dons alike fall at Zuleika s feet and she cuts a wide swath across the campus until she encounters one young aristocrat for whom she is astonished to find she has feelings As Zuleika and her creator zero in on their targets the book takes some surprising and dark twists on its way to a truly startling ending an ending so striking that readers will understand why Virginia Woolf said that Mr Beerbohm in his way is perfect In 1998 the Modern Library ranked Zuleika Dobson 59th on its list of the 100 best English language novels of the 20th century Sale American Art Association, Anderson Galleries (Firm),1922 The London Mercury Sir John Collings Squire,1921 The Bookman ,1911
