

Introducing the Authors

Max Braithwaite (right) A former classroom teacher and Royal Canadian Navy schoolmaster, Max Braithwaite is still teaching through radio and television, and now, as an author of this book. He is perhaps best known for his CBC School Broadcast series, VOICES OF THE WILD, which is heard every fall in schoolrooms across Canada. He has participated in school broadcast television experiments, and has written for other CBC departments, such as Children's Programmes, Farm Broadcasts, Talks and Drama. It may be that Mr. Braithwaite's special ability to write for boys and girls comes from the fact that he has five children of his own.

R. S. Lambert (left) Young people know Richard S. Lambert as the writer of five excellent Canadian books for children: FRANKLIN OF THE ARCTIC (Governor General's Juvenile Award, 1949), NORTH FOR ADVENTURE (Samuel Hearne), RED-COAT SAILOR (Sir Howard Douglas), ADVENTURE OF CANADIAN PAINTING; a textbook for Grade 5, THEY WENT EXPLORING, has delighted thousands of boys and girls throughout Canada, the United Kingdom and the United States. For the past fifteen years Mr. Lambert has been CBC's National Supervisor of School Broadcasts. In addition, he is a keen gardener and fisherman. He likes animals, and has two pets—a cat and a skunk.

Born at the Right Time Doug Owram, 1997-12-15 It is rare in history for people to link their identity with their generation and even rarer when children and adolescents actually shape society and influence politics Both phenomena aptly describe the generation born in the decade following the Second World War These were the baby boomers viewed by some as the spoiled selfish generation that had it all and by others as a shock wave that made love and peace into tangible ideals In this book Doug Owram brings us the untold story of this famous generation as it played out its first twenty five years in Canadian society Beginning with Dr Spock's dictate that this particular crop of babies must be treated gently Owram explores the myth and history surrounding this group from its beginning at war's end to the close of the 1960s The baby boomers wielded extraordinary power right from birth Owram points out and laid their claim on history while still in diapers He sees the generation's power and sense of self stemming from three factors its size its affluent circumstance and its connection with the 1960s the fabulous decade of free love flower power women's liberation drugs protest marches and rock n roll From Davy Crockett hats and Barbie dolls to the civil rights movement and the sexual revolution the concerns of this single generation became predominant themes for all of society Thus Owram's history of the baby boomers is in many ways a history of the era Doug Owram has written extensively on cultural icons Utopian hopes and the gap between realities and images all powerful themes in the story of this idealistic generation A well researched lucid and humorous book Born at the Right Time is the first Canadian history of the baby boomers and the society they helped to shape
