Museum Ritter : a museum squared with art : architect Max Dudler ,2005 Max Dudler has built his first museum for the Marli Hoppe Ritter collection The cubic building is awakening curiosity and prepares the public for an extraordinary encounter with the art within This volume documents this extraordinary building with nume New German Architecture Ullrich Schwarz, 2002 Max Dudler Simone Boldrin, 2020-10-13 For designers and architects this unique volume highlights emblematic works of Max Dudler one of the most acclaimed international architects The main characteristic of Max Dudler s architecture is a combination of strict Swiss minimalism and classical rationalism that is found in both historical and contemporary architecture This volume retraces Dudler s original approach to composition developed over thirty years through his most renowned projects as documented with a selection of drawings and photographs of great visual impact The renewed interest in rational design in the contemporary architecture community is highlighted by the growing number of publications that analyze this expressive style The work of Max Dudler is a symbol and a reinterpretation of this unique expression of architecture in modern cities Architecture for the city Max Dudler, J. Christoph Bürkle, 2003 Max Dudler born in 1949 in Switzerland commutes in his work between Berlin and Zurich With the construction of the new Bewag office building on the Gendarmenmarkt in Berlin 1997 the renovation of the Sale e Tabacchi Restaurant 1996 the first pri

Designing Cities Leonhard Schenk, 2023-02-20 Manual for Urban Design Second and revised edition of the successful edition with new projects Urban design is based on planning and design principles that need to meet functional demands on the one hand but on the other hand bring the design elements together into a distinctive whole The basic compositional principles are for the most part timeless Designing Cities examines the most important design and presentation principles of urban design using historical examples and contemporary international competition entries designed by practices including Foster Partners KCAP Architects Planners MVRDV and OMA At the core of the publication is the question of how the projects were designed and what methods and tools were available to the designer such as parametric design in which variable parameters automatically influence the design and provide a range of possible solutions Tools for urban design Current projects and award winning competition entries by renowned international practices A textbook for students and a practical design aid for practicing architects and planners Max Dudler, Architekt Martin Kieren,1996 Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library,1995 Living Plans Klaus-Peter Gast,2005 Ground plan concepts for contemporary international housing are no longer dominated by standardized solutions and stylistic attitudes They derive mainly from their occupants widely varying lifestyles so new principles for advanced spatial solutions have emerged very recently The present basic work presents innovative ways of living in over 100 realized buildings The examples extend from cost optimized minimal housing via classical detached family houses and lavishly furnished villas to high density detached and terraced homes in the city and on the outskirts These novel Living Plans are analysed using elaborate new drawings of the ground plans sections and spatial schemes along with atmospheric photographs BOOK JACKET New Library Buildings in Europe Inken Feldsien-Sudhaus,2010 This book brings together information about the latest academic library building projects from across Europe New attractive buildings and huge renovation projects are presented in this documentation which continues the tradition established by Professor Elmar Mittler formerly Director of the State and University Library G ttingen who was the first chairman of the LIBER Architecture Group The publication of this book coincides with the 15th LIBER Architecture Group Seminar which will take place in Madrid in April 2010 In addition to hearing about the latest developments in planning and design and offering visits to new library buildings the Seminar provides an occasion to debate ideas and meet colleagues from institutions across Europe I hope that the projects in this book will provide ideas for your own work and that they will also stimulate your interest in new library architecture and the creative use of space Zoo ,2002 Kraftwerke in Berlin Christina Keseberg,2003 Numerous historic power station buildings are impressive records of an era when Berlin was Europe s most important industrial city The Berliner Elektrizitatswerke AG Bewag today has at its disposal a unique portfolio of treasured industrial architecture the majority of which is meanwhile awaiting reutilisation The book not only relates the story of Berlin s power station architecture but also describes the enormous development potential that is connected with reutilising historic industrial architecture With the example of an existing project s achievements the creative possibilities are highlighted for reutilisation that preserves the building heritage and remains economically viable In detail and with many illustrations power stations now taken out of service are introduced and possibilities for their reuse are described The book presents a comprehensive history of Electropolis Berlin from its beginnings as well as insights for the future Book jacket Architectural guide Wolf-Christian Setzepfandt,2002 The Architectural Guides from the tried and trusted Reimer Verlag series are readable clearly set out and in a handy format For all their brevity the texts are informative and critical a considerable achievement These guides do not only line out the more or less famous ensembles places and buildings but also lead the way to little known treasures details
