Max Dupain:

Body Culture Isobel Crombie, 2004 Displays how Australia's most distinctive contribution to body culture was through the depiction of the lifesaver and the surfer and that the popularity of these iconic figures was largely generated due to photography Max Dupain's Australia Max Dupain, 1986 Under the Sun, 2017-02-23 Guide for the Australian Centre for Photography exhibition Featuring essays by curator Claire Monneraye and academic Martyn Jolly and featuring newly commissioned work of 15 contemporary Australian artists with accompanying text Each Wild Idea Geoffrey Batchen, 2002-02-22 Essays on photography and the medium's history and evolving identity In Each Wild Idea Geoffrey Batchen explores a wide range of photographic subjects from the timing of the medium's invention to the various implications of cyberculture Along the way he reflects on contemporary art photography the role of the vernacular in photography's history and the Australianness of Australian photography The essays all focus on a consideration of specific photographs from a humble combination of baby photos and bronzed booties to a masterwork by Alfred Stieglitz Although Batchen views each photograph within the context of broader social and political forces he also engages its own distinctive formal attributes In short he sees photography as something that is simultaneously material and cultural In an effort to evoke the lived experience of history he frequently relies on sheer description as the mode of analysis insisting that we look right at rather than beyond the photograph being discussed A constant theme throughout the book is the question of photography's past present and future identity Max Dupain Photographs, Etc. [Reproductions.]. Max DUPAIN, 1948 Max Dupain Photographs Max Dupain, 1948 Speaking of Us Barry York, 1999 Echoes from the earliest years of the century mingle with the voices of contemporary Australia in this fascinating selection of excerpts from the Oral History Collection of the National Library of Australia Humour and drama sport culture politics and the media work and leisure are all represented There are stories of life from remote properties there are comments on society and government policies there are anecdotes and opinions Australian Art Andrew Sayers, 2001 This comprehensive survey uniquely covers both Aboriginal art and that of European Australians providing a revealing examination of the interaction between the two Painting bark art photography rock art sculpture and the decorative arts are all fully explored to present the rich texture of Australian art traditions Well known artists such as Margaret Preston Rover Thomas and Sidney Nolan are all discussed as are the natural history illustrators Aboriginal draughtsmen and pastellists whose work is only now being brought to light by new research Taking the European colonization of the continent in 1788 as his starting point Sayers highlights important issues concerning colonial art and women artists in this fascinating new story of Australian art Useless Beauty Ann Elias, 2015-10-05 The story of Australian art does not begin and end with landscape This book puts flowers front and centre because they have often been ignored in preference for more masculine themes Departing from where studies of single flower artists leave off Useless Beauty embraces the general topic of flowers in Australian art and shines new light on a slice of Australian art history that extends from 1880 to 1950 It is the first book of broad chronology to discuss Australian art through blossoms which it does by addressing stories of major figures including Hans Heysen Margaret Preston and Sidney Nolan as well as specific objects such as surreal flowers Aboriginal flowers and war flowers Whether modern or conservative the artists in this study shared an intellectual and emotional passion for flora This was true for men as well as women despite blossoms being a more traditionally feminine subject Through spectacular reproductions of historical and contemporary artworks drawn from collections in Australia the United States Britain and New Zealand Useless Beauty explores how flowers influenced the psyche governed rituals defined identity and brought a psychological dimension to the everyday The peak years for flower centrality in Australian art were between 1920 and 1940 when flowers were known as the apotheosis of useless beauty

Sand in Our Souls Leone Huntsman, 2001 Images of the beach pervade Australian popular culture However the deeper significance of the experience of the beach and its influence on Australian culture generally have not yet been seriously explored How why and when did the beach become part of the Australian way of life In Sand in our Souls Leone Huntsman describes the forces and pressures that encouraged or impeded Australians enjoyment of sand and surf from early enjoyment of bathing through nearly a century of repressive restrictions to freedom won in the face of drawn out opposition The ways in which artists writers film makers and the advertising industry have depicted the beach are examined for the light they throw on the beach s significance She traces the development of a distinctively Australian way of being at the beach suggesting that the beach experience has been absorbed into our emerging culture and continues to shape it in subtle ways Huntsman s provocative arguments will stimulate debate on the concept of national identity appropriate for a new Australian century and promote a deeper understanding of an aspect of life in Australia that is cherished by many of those who live here

A Sunlit Vision Max Dupain, Susan Van Wyk, 2000 Olive Cotton Helen Ennis, 2019-11-01 A landmark biography of a singular and important Australian photographer Olive Cotton by an award winning writer beautifully written and deeply moving Winner 2022 Adelaide Festival Awards for Literature Non Fiction Award Winner of the 2020 Canberra Critics Circle Award for Biography Winner of the University of Queensland Non Fiction Book Award Queensland Literary Awards 2020 Winner of the Magarey Medal for Biography for 2020 Longlisted for the 2020 Mark Evette Moran Nib Literary Award 2020 Olive Cotton was one of Australia s pioneering modernist photographers whose significant talent was recognised as equal to her first husband the famous photographer Max Dupain Together Olive and Max were an Australian version of Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera or Ray and Charles Eames and the photographic work they produced in the 1930s and early 1940s was bold distinctive and quintessentially Australian But in the mid 1940s Olive divorced Max leaving Sydney to live with her second husband Ross McInerney and raise their two children in a tent on a farm near Cowra later moving to a cottage that had no running water electricity or telephone for many years Famously quiet yet stubbornly determined Olive continued her photography despite these challenges and the lack of a dark room But away from the public eye her work was almost forgotten until a landmark exhibition in Sydney in 1985 shot her back to fame followed by a major retrospective at the Art Gallery of New South Wales in 2000 ensuring her reputation as one of the country's greatest photographers Intriguing moving and powerful this is Olive's story but it is also a compelling story of women and creativity and about what it means for an artist to try to balance the competing demands of their art work marriage children and family Absorbing illuminating and moving Inside Story Max Dupain Max Dupain, Photography and Australia Helen Ennis, 2007 Photography and Australia focuses on those aspects of photographic practice that can be considered distinctively Australian It argues that the colonial experience has been crucial in shaping photographers' concerns Dupain's Beaches Max Dupain, 2000 Max Dupain who took Australia's most famous photograph Sunbaker loved the beach This collection of Dupain's photographs is by his own admission among his best work In it we see Dupain's fascination with shadows with sand patterns with the arcs of seascape and above all with the people who indulged themselves on Australia's urban and country beaches over a period of sixty years These images demonstrate how vital a part the beach plays in the Australian consciousness Jill White as custodian of Dupain's personal exhibition archive offers us here the opportunity to share his vision of the beach as a place of relaxation and renewal b/w photographs Max Dupain Max Dupain, 1980 Backgazing: Reverse Time in Modernist Culture Paul Giles, 2019-02-14 This volume traces ways in which time is represented in reverse forms throughout modernist culture from the beginning of the twentieth century until the decade after World War II Though modernism is often associated with revolutionary or futurist directions this book argues instead that a retrograde dimension is embedded within it By juxtaposing the literature of Europe and North America with that of Australia and New Zealand it suggests how this antipodean context serves to defamiliarize and reconceptualize normative modernist understandings of temporal progression Backgazing thus moves beyond the treatment of a specific geographical periphery as another margin on the expanding field of New Modernist Studies Instead it offers a systematic investigation of the transformative effect of retrograde dimensions on our understanding of canonical modernist texts The title backgazing is taken from Australian poet Robert G Fitzgerald's 1938 poem Essay on Memory and it epitomizes how the cultural history of modernism can be restructured according to a radically different discursive map Backgazing intellectually reconfigures US and European modernism within a planetary orbit in which the literature of Australia and the Southern Hemisphere far from being merely an annexed margin can be seen substantively to change the directional compass of modernism more generally By reading canonical modernists such as James Joyce and T S Eliot alongside marginalized writers such as Nancy Cunard and others and relatively neglected authors from Australia and New Zealand this book offers a revisionist cultural history of modernist time one framed by a recognition of how its measurement is modulated across geographical space Eyewitness Companions: Photography Tom Ang, 2005-10-03 This title illustrates techniques and how to take amazing pictures as well as looking at renowned photographers the most up to date equipment and a history of the art form Specially commissioned illustrations and photographs Written by experts in each field Using the award winning design of the Eyewitness Travel Guides Eyewitness Companions are the ultimate visual handbook to a wide range of subjects Stranger Cities: Australian Creation and the Ambidextrous Mind, a Profile of Portal Modernity Peter Murphy, 2023-06-19 Stranger Cities explores the metaphysics of Australian society and the clash between its competing strands of romantic culture and classic civilization The social expression artistic resonance economic significance civic character historic phases mythic representations creative antinomies and imaginative contribution of these metaphysical fundamentals form the background of Australia s distinctive urban civilization with its bustling stranger populations ocean facing portal cities revealing art and architecture and cyclical worlds of markets and industries war and peace Murphy portrays a classic eudemonic society whose dominant ethos of phlegmatic happiness vies with a subsidiary current of melancholic and choleric romanticism Camouflage Australia Ann Elias, 2018-08-30 Camouflage Australia provides international context for the historical circumstances and events of the organisation of camouflage in World War II in Australia and the Pacific region She elaborates on the parallel involvement of British and American artists in the field of concealment and deception and reveals the widespread interest shown by western naturalists and scientists in the application to warfare of the behaviours and aesthetics of animals
